SUBJECT REVISITED:
BACTERIOLOGICAL WARFARE
A MAJOR THREAT TO NORTH AMERICA'S POPULATION

Editor's note: In CONTACT's issue Volume 17, No. 5 (June 24, '97) we ran a Front Page story titled "Bacteriological Warfare—A Major Threat To North America's Population". In this story, Larry Harris speaks of a potential biological threat by Iraqi terrorists [see story reprinted below]. Naturally, by now, we here at CONTACT assume that our readers will be DISCERNING in everything that crosses their path. Certainly a former CIA person such as Mr. Harris is suspect at the very least. We, naturally, have heard back from some CONTACT readers, especially of Arabian background, who have taken exception to this particular story, pointing out questionable holes in the narrative. One such individual, a reader in the Washington area, left, in part, the following statement on our answering machine:

"The Iraqis are being wiped out by the U.N. embargo, and they are sitting on huge oil fields. And if starvation and disease aren't killing them fast enough, this (story) is one way to insure that there is enough panic and hatred to justify a first strike against Iraq. Hey, you guys have been had!"

Obviously it is no secret to CONTACT readers that the New World Order crooks have a definite depopulation agenda, which they WILL execute (no play on words intended). Certainly fanning the flames of racial hatred against the Iraqis during an implemented program of depopulation would serve several purposes simultaneously. And always remember: where there is a great deal of oil wealth involved, foul play is a usual bedfellow. With all this in mind, reread the original story, and then pay attention to Peter Kawaja's remarks, also within these pages.

Thank you, Rick Martin

BACTERIOLOGICAL WARFARE:
A MAJOR THREAT TO NORTH AMERICA (Book Title)
by Larry W. Harris

What You And Your Family Can Do Before And After

[Editor's note: Phone authorization for this excerpt, which is the Preface to his book, was given by author Larry W. Harris, Registered Microbiologist, who also generously sent a copy of his book.]

[Quoting:]

In September 1991 I re-entered the Ohio State University and started taking courses in advanced microbiology in preparation for taking my National Registry of Microbiologist Certification Exam. I soon joined a clique of nontraditional students whose average age was around 40. In that clique was Mariam Arif, a delightful lady that soon became a close friend.

Mariam was from Iraq and was here studying microbiology. She had an unusual background. One of her very close relatives, General Arif, had been a President of Iraq. In April 1966 he was killed in a helicopter accident. A long succession of military coups ended in Saddam Hussein and the Republican guard coming to power. During the coups Mariam's family had suffered much. She said that several members of her family had been hung. She felt it safer to be in America until she could do something that would make her famous back in her home country of Iraq.

One morning in February 1993 I had arrived early to get a parking spot in the rapidly filling student parking lot and was having coffee in the small vending area of the Med-Tech building where our courses were taught. The vending area was deserted except for Mariam Arif and myself I will never forget the way her face and eyes looked that morning—very tired and glossy. I have no doubt that she had gotten little sleep since the World Trade Center bombing. This was the Monday after.

She must have thought that her arrest was imminent. She was rambling on as if she were in a daze. She was silent for a few minutes then she said, "Larry, you are a dear and trusted friend and what I am going to tell you in the next few minutes you can use to protect yourself and a few friends. When it is my time to act, I do not want your death to be on my conscience. You obviously do not know the danger you face concerning the emergence of Biological Warfare as a major threat to the United States." She went on to state that nearly all the emerging countries: Libya, Iran, Iraq, Syria, North Korea, etc., were actively pursuing a Germ Warfare program and scrapping their nuclear program. There are two primary reasons for this shift. The first is the acquisition cost of a sufficiently large nuclear stockpile to be effective. The second reason is BW is antipersonnel warfare, not antimaterial warfare. Housing, buildings, factories, and machinery remain intact and can be made useful in a short time.

I asked her if she had seen any of Iraq's germ warfare facilities. She gave a resounding "Yes!" She stated that Iraq used the plain Jane approach in that Iraq has a very large stockpile of biological agents on hand in the form of special bombs. They are also developing rockets to spread the infection over a very large area. Iraq has two separate areas of biological operations, one foreign and one regional. The ones that are regional have all the facilities located at small airstrips around the country. They are deliberately designed not to draw much attention. These airstrips will not handle large or even medium class aircraft. They only handle a single class of aircraft—single engine, high wing, turbo props that can be used for crop dusting. The regional biological operations would take only a couple of days if you are using Anthrax, or a couple of weeks if you are using Plague to get in operation. If they were ever questioned from abroad as to the purpose of the chemostats located at these facilities they can be explained away as holding tanks for agriculture spray products if they are kept empty.

To get them into operation they are first cycled through a sterilization phase. Then a special nutrient broth is introduced and the desired biological agent (usually Anthrax or Plague) is added. Devices for rapidly mixing the culture vessel are started and ultra filtered air is bubbled through the nutrient. Fresh nutrient broth (growth medium) from a reservoir is fed at a constant rate to the culture vessel through a metering pump. A constant volume of culture is maintained by means of an overflow that removes culture fluid and the desired bacteria at the same rate as fresh medium is added. The culture fluid flows into a refrigerated tank for holding. It is transferred to the aircraft just before the mission. She further stated that these aircraft have exceptionally long range and that only one aircraft is located at each facility. If that aircraft were lost, a replacement aircraft would be flown in from another facility. This kept every thing small and very difficult to detect. I asked her why we didn't see any Germ Warfare being waged during the Gulf War. To this she responded "We did! The Iraqi military adhered, at least in part, to Soviet military doctrine. Soviet methodology is that chemical warfare would be conducted with mixed agents. Mixed agents, often referred to as 'cocktails', are intended to enhance the capabilities of nerve agents and defeat the precautions taken by the enemy. Cocktails can be made by combining a wide variety of biological toxins, nerve agents, vesicants, and some biological agents—such as bacteria and fungi."

Mariam stated that she had personally worked in a germ warfare laboratory in which they had taken Mycoplasma fermentans (incognitus) and had inserted most of the envelope gene from HIV. This genetic manipulation rendered a relative benign mycoplasma much more invasive and pathogenic and capable of attacking many organs and tissue systems in the body. (This can be treated effectively with tetracycline as mentioned later in the book.) Mariam also stated that they also had isolated and used a form of Borna Disease virus that took over 3 to 7 years to kill you. Within the next few years hundreds of thousands of Desert Storm veterans along with their families will start dying. She said, "Iraq thought that the multinational force would respond with Nuclear Weapons if they had used fast-acting biologicals."

"You stated that the people of North America are in grave danger of biological agents being used against us. Would you care to elaborate on that?" To this she replied, "A few hours ago a band of fanatics blew up the World Trade Center. I am sure that my beloved Iraq did not do this. For when payback comes, I am sure we will demand at least one American life for every one of my countrymen that you butchered. We would not settle for some silly old building. I asked her if she knew how such an attack would be carried out. To this she responded, "Don't be silly. Of course, I know! All operations will be batch operations. Unlike the very complex chemostat, where you have a continuous output once you are up and running, with a batch all you require is a sterile vessel. This can be a test tube or a larger container depending on your batch size. In this vessel you place the appropriate amount of dehydrated media. This is a very easily obtainable in this country without any questions. Then you add the proper amount of distilled water, bring to a boil, and simmer at least 15 minutes. Then let it cool to room temperature. This way you do not have to have an autoclave. The top of the container is covered with sterile cloth that you sterilized inside of a pressure cooker much like the one you cook in. The batch vessel of choice would be a metal spray can (stainless steel) much like the one used to spray your garden or one exterminators use to dispense bug spray. The preferable model is the one that has the little air pump in the middle which you pump up when you are ready to spray. To this you would add your culture. A small heating pad is placed around the tank. Next, a small air stone and tubing (similar to the one used in an aquarium) are boiled for at least an hour and then very aseptically placed in the metal spray can and hooked up to an aquarium air pump. Introduce your plague or anthrax starter culture and after an appropriate amount of time the batch is ready. You then insert the spray tank's air pump, pump up the sprayer and you are ready." I then asked her, what the most likely targets would be. She replied, "For one thing it will not be a target but rather many (hundreds of) targets simultaneously across the country. A prime one of these would be the subway systems. Who would notice another maintenance man down there spraying for bugs? Other inviting targets are the air ducts of large office buildings. Or, say a large gathering of people at a stadium, or simpler yet just sticking it outside of a building over those crowded streets in many cities. Who is going to notice a little mist coming from some building? Several cells (each cell has ten men and one woman to act as a carrier) will be using aircraft venturies like the ones that are used to drive the vacuum instruments on airplanes. They are easily obtained by mail order or from an aircraft supply in this country. These will be mounted underneath vehicles. The spray tank will be inside the tubing going to the venturi (which acts like a carburetor). When the vehicle is going 60 miles per hour one simply opens the valve and a fog of death will be coming out behind the car. Other cells will be using these same venturies mounted on light aircraft to attack whole cities at a time.”

I asked her how she would get her bacteria culture. Mariam replied that it is easy for a woman to hide a small sealed vial of dehydrated culture inside her body cavity. She said, “What are they gong to do? Take every woman entering the country to a little room in the airport, make them lay on a table with their feet up in straps and have some one look up their private of privates? I think not!”

I then asked her, “Why not use something that you could obtain in this country without going to the effort of smuggling? To this she replied, “Iraq purchased all the dehydrated cultures from companies right here in the United States. They shipped them to Iraq and those same vials are the ones Iraqi women have been bringing back to use against this country. Ironical, isn’t it?” Mariam said she had made several trips back and forth between Iraq and the United States, and every time she came to America she was carrying a vial secreted in her body cavity.

“What are the microbes of choice?” I asked her. She responded, “Plague and anthrax are the bacteria of choice. You see, plague is easy to work with. We take the proper amount and kind of antibiotic and we are reasonably safe. When you are finished you can easily clean up any spills with disinfectant, and any you miss will be dead in a couple of days regardless. Anthrax, on the other hand, will be used by specially trained groups for attacks on big cities. These cells (groups) have to be extremely careful, thus the detailed training. If you got some on your clothes and happened to inhale it several years later, it could kill you. So they will strip and thoroughly shower. All articles of clothing worn during the attack and preparation will be left behind.” She further commented: “Cholera and typhoid fever were also considered, but these usually do not kill and only inconvenience people for a few days.”

When asked when she thought these attacks would begin she responded “Some time in the next few years. The attacks are centered on three Muslim holy days that occur in the next few years. The first one comes up in July 1997, the next in 1999, the next 2001. One thing is certain, before the year 2002 the population of the United States will be reduced to less than 50 million.” Mariam seemed a lot calmer now and her composure was returning. She said, “Larry why don’t you meet me on the third story of the main library this afternoon? We can go up into the towers and find a place where we can have some privacy. I need to slip back to my apartment and get some things I want to show you.” [End quoting]

NOTE: There is more—a lot more in Larry’s book about the various diseases and methods of treatment, etc.

COMMENTS ON GULF WAR VETERANS' ROLE IN BACTERIOLOGICAL WARFARE ON AMERICA

by Peter Kawaja 7/15/97

This is a special report by Peter Kawaja on the news article of June 24, 1997 in CONTACT, on Larry Wayne Harris. Please read that report [above] FIRST, then refer to the below comments.

(1.) EVERYTHING Harris says about his female informant, we have to believe him because there is no tangible/physical evidence. For me, the scenario is real. However, read this in its entirety first before coming to any conclusion about my commentary.

(2.) Harris says that she said that “several members of her family had been hung” during the coups which took place and Saddam came to power. So, she FLED to America.

(3.) Harris says she said that she felt SAFER in America until she could do something that would make her famous back in her home country of Iraq. WHY did she feel she needed to do anything to be FAMOUS back in Iraq, especially if Iraqi Saddam MURDERED her family, and she fled Iraq to feel safe in America, and would only be AIDING Saddam, who killed her family. So why would she want to help Iraq or Saddam?

(4.) Now Harris says that she called him a “TRUSTED FRIEND”, but says she is working for IRAQ. So, how could Harris be a “trusted friend” of someone who IS and HAS BEEN for MANY YEARS (read on) working for Iraq to KILL AMERICANS?

(5.) IF she wanted to get even with Saddam, WHY is she working in the Holy Jihad to kill Americans for Saddam?

(6.) If she wanted to be FAMOUS in Iraq, why did she “secretly” tell Harris about these plans to kill Americans, instead of going to the American media, or the CIA, etc., to foil Saddam and get back at him, and become a BIG MOVIE STAR not only in her country but worldwide and in America, if she had this very serious and important information?

(7.) Why does an Iraqi woman, whose family was murdered by Saddam and others, want to help Saddam, but at the same time, IF she is their convert and IS working for the HOLY JIHAD, why does she care for a “few of Harris’s friends”? If you are brainwashed into being involved in an operation of a Holy War, you are under mind control and totally brainwashed. You do not think that killing Americans (or whoever you are fighting) is WRONG—you do not care about one person of the same nationality you will be murdering, or even if you did, you do NOT care about “his friends” also. You are out to kill everyone and you do NOT “rat” if you are fighting a Holy Jihad, because you are convinced you are doing good for God!

(8.) If you have carried vials in your body cavity numerous times through US Customs, you are not SCARED of being Arrested because someone else (even if it is another so-called “cell”) blows up a building somewhere else. You would actually be rejoicing and NOT scared at all. You would be anxiously awaiting your turn to kill, you would be envious of those who got to act now. You would NOT be confessing ANYTHING to any American who is your enemy!

(9.) Harris says: she said, “When it is MY TIME TO ACT, I do not want your death on my conscience.” ANYONE who knows anything about those who fight a HOLY WAR knows beyond the shadow of any doubt that those committing these terrorist acts HAVE NO CONSCIENCE, because THEY DO NOT FEEL THEY ARE DOING WRONG, so they do NOT feel GUILTY! End of story!

(10.) Amazingly, this woman who is still sold-out to a Holy Jihad has confessed to an American because she cares about one man and a few close friends of his that she doesn’t even know, but she is still going through with her terrorist activity, as she has stated (so he says), and she KNOWINGLY will be a part of the terrorist activity which will KILL SEVERAL HUNDRED MILLION AMERICANS. She has NO GUILTY feeling for MURDERING HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS of Children, Women, Priests, Doctors, etc., but has a conscience about killing a “trusted friend” American? NO. Absolutely NO WAY, JOSE!

(11.) Harris now says she has SEEN Iraq’s Germ Warfare Facilities. ANYONE who has been inside, AND has knowledge of WHERE these facilities are located—is absolutely a SOLD-OUT Terrorist, and carries SECRET clearance, just like an American Military Officer would have to be, and then even more so, because those who fight a Holy War, do not do so for MONEY, or just out of Patriotism for Country, they BELIEVE they are working for “god”; for GOD. She would NOT be able to SEE these facilities UNLESS she was a very high ranking officer, and if so, she is not going to then CONFESS to Harris, because she is concerned about a FEW deaths of some Americans, when she is sworn to KILL, to MURDER HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF AMERICANS. And if she IS a high-ranking agent, so much she has had access inside, she would NOT be a MULE, but has admitted to him that she is. This does not Jive!

(12.) She also KNOWS all about Gulf Syndrome—AMAZING, now we are getting closer to the TRUTH. Not yet, just closer. Now we have the TIE, of “why” this leak to Harris.

(13.) Now AGAIN, on the word of an IRAQI informant whom we cannot verify this with, we have what the DOD/CIA has denied publicly. YET what THEY ACTUALLY WANT EVERYONE TO REALLY KNOW/BELIEVE. YES, she says, when Harris asked her about why we didn’t see any germ warfare in the Gulf War—and she says, “We did” (meaning we used it) THERE IT IS, all sing together now: THERE IT IS. Finally, a way to break it to the Patriot Community first, to the underground media first. Then to America and the world, a way to have an unknown, non-existing Iraqi speak for ALL Iraqis and Saddam, to say that YES, ALL of the Gulf War Illnesses we admit to, it is a done deal. The Iraqis Admit it, but the DOD denies it. Yes. Americans are dying, people are dying all over the world, and yes—soon MILLIONS will start dropping dead, so NOW, after the movie on TBS, The Coming Plague, and other such releases, THEY HAVE BEEN WORKING TO BREAK THE NEWS. Peter Kawaja PREDICTED THIS YEARS AGO!

(14.) “Miriam stated she had personally worked in a germ-warfare laboratory in which they (meaning the Iraqis) had taken Mycoplasma fermentans (incognitus) and had inserted most of the envelope gene from HIV. And he continues—sounds right out of Garth & Nancy Nicolson’s material. Isn’t that just COMFY?

All of it FITS so neatly—all tied up for us; we don't have to GUESS; we don't have to THINK. UH-OH, but wait, what about (just ONE example) this just-recent example of a US veteran who contacted Peter Kawaja and Kawaja was helping him with his illness (he was NOT in the Gulf at all, but has ALL the same Symptoms) that his wife also now has, but as soon (within 24 hours) of giving this vet Joyce Riley's phone numbers (he asked for them), the vet writes back and says, "I did not know you were aligned with Militia Organizations, so 'bye.'" The actual words are available to those who have not seen this info on the Net recently. But the IMPORTANT THING you do not KNOW, which you will now know is that this sick vet received these VERY type of "Mycoplasma PLAGUE Vaccines" in TESTING that was done HERE IN THE US, by the US Military on US Military—NOT IN IRAQ. The STUFF IS AND WAS ALWAYS HERE! So, all of what is being told to Harris, or what he is surmising or whatever, is really a SPIN on what has been happening HERE, but there has to be an outside enemy that will cause it (although IT has already happened), so they have an EXCUSE and REASON for the UN to step in, and the use of the National Medical ID card, for those who want to live. See "The Saddest Chapter", by Peter Kawaja.)

Nancy Nicolson has confirmed that this was done HERE in the US, not in Iraq. So, whatever is or could be being smuggled in from Iraq wouldn't be the SAME stuff that Harris was told. That PLAGUE, was manufactured here and NOT sold to Saddam, he got simple "cultures"—per Riegle Report.

(15.) Harris now also says that she says they used a form of "Bola Zaire". I assume this was perhaps a TYPO error, meant to be EBOLA ZAIRE. But say, isn't that taken from Peter Kawaja's "THE SADDEST CHAPTER OF AMERICAN HISTORY"? So, is this story sorta TRUE, but the PLAYERS, etc., are changed. All of what is being read is a SPIN and excerpts from various different sources. Go back and read "The Saddest Chapter" re Ebola Reston (strain) vs. Zaire "taking years to kill you..."

(16.) To again CONFIRM that this informant is still sold-out to the Holy Jihad, Harris now says that she said: "A few hours ago a band of fanatics blew up the WTC. I am sure that my BELOVED IRAQ did NOT do this. For when payback comes, I am sure we will demand at least one American life for every one of my countymen that you butchered. We would not settle for some silly old building." REPEAT and PAY ATTENTION HERE: MY BELOVED IRAQ—so she is confessing to Harris and risking failure (exposing) of her (and all others') mission, to save a few Americans? BULLSHIT. "WE WILL DEMAND AT LEAST ONE AMERICAN LIFE FOR EVERY ONE OF MY COUNTRYMEN THAT YOU BUTCHERED." Pay special attention to the BOLDDED words. And this is the very same woman who says, "WE will demand at least ONE American life" (yet she is warning an American, Harris) "for every one of MY COUNTRYMEN", so it is personal to her; this IS a Holy Jihad. "That YOU BUTCHERED"—so she is warning an American. One American and a few of his "friends" so they won't be killed, but she is fighting the Holy War and is determined to Murder Hundreds of Millions of Americans to get even, and she would Jeopardize the entire Mission by warning an American? And this intelligence agent of Iraq, who has SECRET clearance to get into this secret Iraqi facilities where UN troops cannot find even now, is STUPID to confess to an American, and she is NOT thinking that this guy is an American, and he is NOT going to warn the US Government? What an INSULT to Women, period.

(17.) Harris then asks her if she knows HOW this attack would be carried out, and her answer is, "Don't be silly. Of course I know." This intelligence agent of Iraq, this woman who is going to get even with Americans for BUTCHERING her countrymen, now freely not only warns an American, but goes into MINUTE DETAIL of HOW it will happen. Why do you confess to a single man if you want to stop the action? You go to the U.S. MILITARY or the like. And if you are simply warning him to save ONLY his life, you warn him to get out of the country, you do NOT give him all the detailed information, a full and complete confession, and risk him exposing this MAJOR terrorist plan. The DETAILS are a Dead (pardon the pun) Giveaway.

(18) The “pieta-de resistance”: Iraq purchased the dehydrated cultures legally from the U.S., and now the Iraqis are going to SMUGGLE the stuff they brought here in America, BACK INTO THE COUNTRY. EVEN IF IT IS TRUE, then the cultures needed for this holy war, would not have left the country. ANY-ONE DEVIOUS ENOUGH to figure out this LONG RANGE plan, and the plan IS to kill Americans after all, would have simply bought the materials LIKE HARRIS himself did—legally here, would not even need an Export License—and the terrorist plan would have more of a chance of success to be kept SECRET. WHY risk MANY trips using MANY women smuggling back in vials in their body cavity. YES, even though I do not think much of the U.S. Customs Service, they do in fact at random, perform body cavity searches for DRUGS; matter of FACT, many women have been caught smuggling drugs into this country via condoms in the sexual cavity, anus and stomach. GIVE ME A BREAK HERE. Miriam even then says she made several trips ALREADY, carrying the stuff.

(19) Iraqis and others do not need to smuggle back Anthrax, etc., into the U.S.: it is still READILY AVAILABLE here. As to physically searching body cavities, the statement by this supposed Iraqi intelligence agent, who MUST BE an intelligent woman and trusted by Saddam, is not rational. She would know, as many know, that the screening (X-ray) type equipment now used at MOST if not all airports, etc., allows a “special” (concealed-remote) operator to SEE right through clothing and right through your body/muscle/tissue to your bones, similar to the movie Total Recall. Law Enforcement has had this technology (much less the Military) for many years and it is now in use, BUT NOT TOLD to the civilian populations. I have a copy of some of the SOFTWARE, having been a Security Consultant to Airport Security Projects, Defense Contractors and the like. They can see ANY foreign material/matter inside your body, such as a CONDOM with its contents. They may not be able to tell if it is Anthrax or drugs, but THAT, dear friends, is how Customs ends up catching some of the drugs. These supposed RANDOM checks aren’t random at all. By NOT telling the public they can do (use) these things—you do not complain about invasion of your rights or body, or right to privacy. Much less, whether this may affect pregnant women. I can give you a demo of this software. PLEASE LET ME NOT WASTE MORE TIME ON THIS.

(20.) It is AGAIN interesting that the VERY thing these Iraqis and others are supposed to bombard us with are the VERY things ALREADY RELEASED in the GULF WAR—BUT BY WHOM? (AHHHH, ask yourself, WHY is Peter Kawaja’s EVIDENCE sealed as US NATIONAL SECURITY, and WHY was it taken with a WAR POWERS ACT Search Warrant? THINK America, THINK.) The PLAGUE and Anthrax—EXACTLY what this veteran (and others that Peter Kawaja was helping) has on his paperwork that they did not think he had a copy of, and THAT again, dear friends, is WHY all of a sudden, after he was THANKING ME for all the help I was giving him, within 24 hours of knowing Joyce Riley’s numbers and he told them I was helping him, THEY HAD TO PULL HIM AWAY FROM ME. Every time a vet with any evidence comes forward, the vet DISAPPEARS. Joyce Riley has been ADVERTISING for over two years for vets to SEND HER THEIR EVIDENCE. Where did over TWO YEARS OF EVIDENCE THAT SHE ACCUMULATED GO TO, AND WHO HAS IT? The attorneys representing Gulf Vets Associations in (supposed?) lawsuits against some of the chemical companies, doing the same thing. A disguised—in event anyone kept or got hold of their “VA Hard Files”/Vaccine Records and such—SHADES OF THE MURRAH BUILDING BOMBING!

I WISH TO THANK CONTACT for also printing the additional information, by OTHERS besides Harris, explanations of the timely events to unfold. YES, at least someone else has asked a few questions, like “I have to wonder who tipped of the authorities...”, referring to the supposed arrests in IOWA of women carrying bacteria inside their body cavities. Isn’t it just peachy-keen that we, ACCIDENTALLY, OF COURSE, got hold of that controlled leak? I thought the CONTACT article said that the authorities wouldn’t want the public to know and panic? It certainly couldn’t be something used to solidify/confirm this plan leaked to Harris, for us, would it? Please refer to the [previous] CONTACT articles in their entirety for ALL of the information in original form and content.

The Harris Story Scenario is very real. I am not stating that Harris is not genuinely reporting what was told to him. The FACT that he WAS a CIA operative or contracted person, may not mean anything. However, as you will read in CONTACT, someone else brought up the POINT that Harris may have been fed a line for an ulterior reason. He may very well be another [similar to] Tim McVeigh—being USED UNwittingly, to expose a REAL scenario, but to once again throw the blame elsewhere. The PLAGUE has already been released; you have NOT heard Peter Kawaja—because Joyce Riley and those who promoted “their mouthpiece”—so you do not know the FACTS yet.

These biological-warfare agents (supposedly) which will be used on Americans by Iraqis for me is a Trojan Horse because of what I already know.

I could make MANY further comments and have broken down the entire Harris book. I believe him; he seems sincere and his scenario is REAL. There is just one difference—a MAJOR difference. The PLAGUES of the PALE HORSE have already been released. Gulf veterans have returned to the US, and been living in the civilian communities for YEARS now. This is the RIGHT TIME for people to START DROPPING LIKE FLIES.

Their blood has been distributed to civilian hospitals across America for YEARS, through the blood-donor program of the American Red Cross, by the INCENTIVE PROGRAMS of WALTER REED ARMY MEDICAL. MILLIONS of Americans are ALREADY CARRIERS—WAITING for Part-2 of Part-1. [sic (?)]

What Harris was told is very close. Sure, Iraqis and others may be the ones USED to do the actual “spraying” to ACTIVATE what is already inside the general civilian population. I am sure the CIA/MOSAAD, et al., can find a whole lot of Iraqis (perhaps some of those brought in a long time ago by George Bush) who hate Americans, and like McVeigh, through mind control, through mind-altering drugs, through MK-ULTRA, whatever, convince these few THROW-AWAYS, that here is their chance to get back at America. Always a scapegoat.

There is so much to this story, it cannot be told here. I do not dispute Mr. Harris’s story, nor consider him a fraud. However—there is the however. My days are numbered, but so are yours. No one listened when Peter Kawaja tried to tell his story. Thanks to CONTACT, the very tip of the iceberg was told, and thanks to CONTACT and people like Steve Quayle, another portion is unfolding, BUT it is NOT what

Harris “believes” he has been told is WHO, HOW, or really WHY. It is a done deal. The ENEMY IS WITHIN.

WHO STANDS TO GAIN? WHO IS POINTING THE FINGER?

WHO IS THE INTENDED VICTIM—BUT IS ACTUALLY THE OPPRESSOR OF AMERICANS?

GULF WAR CRIMES—The Conspiracy to Conceal the (REAL) Evidence.

ARCHANGEL MICHAEL: TRUE VALUE IS A MATTER OF THE HEART

Editor's note: The following writing is by Lord Michael of the Archangelic realms. In Phoenix Journal #7, called THE RAINBOW MASTERS, Michael says:

"You ones must always hold within your conscious minds that you are never alone, that it would be impossible for you to be alone. You are attached, for eternity, to the Brotherhood of Service.

"The 'Golden Ones' surround the Earth, ever more, as we all enter into the Great Transition. We are plunging deeper into that which shall be seeming destruction. And yet, it is the necessary 'labor' to allow for the 'birthing'. It is just as each segment of existence is in preparation of the next-and-more-important one, so it is as we move on together into this wondrous experience which is the ultimate of life itself.

"We, too, in all the Higher Realms, are growing and sharing these experiences to the best of our abilities, and so it is. May we all be worthy of the gifts given unto us by those who have gone before and gave so dearly for having passed the physical way....

"You are now approaching a time when it is of vast importance that you speak out so that many souls might be lifted in their final stage of development. Shortly, all secrets shall be revealed in the Light of a New Day when nothing can stand that is hidden, nothing that is dark shall escape being exposed to the Light. It must be done in such a way that man, who has become cynical and superstitious, shall be guided from within, rather than turned away. Some of the secret myths shall wither and fall to decay; others shall spring forth in response to the New Energy, but ALL shall be set to truth....

"There shall shortly come into thy attention a bow stretched across thy heavens such as Earth man has never seen before in all of his memory, for the translation of a planet comes but once from third to fourth perception—but once! The bow across the sky shall be magnificent in color and shall emanate musical sounds that shall come to the ear of all men, and they shall know a calling; they shall know a love; they shall know a duty—and they must be prepared unto that day, chelas of the words of truth. Man must be prepared by these words brought forth for such purpose.

"From this bow of beauty, this bow of duty that calls to its own, it shall first appear as a great violet radiance over the entire world. Thy brothers in the heavens also await this moment of commencement.

"In ages past, these ones have only appeared to Earth in a very few cases, on very special errands for the Infinite Creator. They, WE of the Golden Helmets, shall be known to you as the Archangels by title; we are the mentors of the Angelic Messengers from these realms....

“In great love and peace, I thank you and know that I am ever with you.”

7/19/97 LORD MICHAEL

Good afternoon, my friend, and thank you for sitting this day. This is Michael, of the Archangelic realms, come to briefly commune with you this day so that there may be greater understanding of what it is that you ones are experiencing at this time. I come IN and OF the LIGHT! Thank you for asking and reaffirming the connection.

As Messengers of God’s desires, we of the Hosts will continue to give forth the promised Guidance that is part of the third-dimensional experience. You EACH, prior to entering into this experience, knew that there would be Guidance offered to you along the way. This Guidance has always been part of the third-dimensional experience and shall always be a part.

For many at this time, it is quite a stretch to accept such writings as authentic or “real”. This is fine, for the promise is that they be offered, NOT shoved down anyone’s throat! There are many who are seeking to connect and find that which seems to be lacking in their lives. These ones are hungry for that which gives a sense of genuine value and meaning to their lives.

Each must find their own way through the challenges before them at this time. Each must choose, for themselves, that which is of value and act accordingly. Many place great value on money or a high-paying job. This is fine, if it be your choice. I will, however, ask you to consider the lasting value of a TRUE friend? Or, the value of the smile that comes to the face when you offer ones HONEST praise for that which they have completed. What is the value of these things that make you FEEL alive and connected?

You EACH are part of THE ONENESS that many refer to as God. When you do something for or to another, you are doing same for or to yourself AND God. EVERYTHING in the physical is a result of God’s creative thinking. There is an inner-connectedness of all things in the physical, by way of a non-physical counterpart that is as much a part of your experience as is the chair upon which you sit or the air that you breathe.

This non-physical counterpart is the electromagnetic (Light) energy that animates the body and causes the apparent motion of electrons around the atom. It is the energy that causes all substance to have a frequency and vibration. It is, simply put, GOD expressing Himself!

This is not new information, nor is it brought to you in some sort of mystical manner. Every culture on your planet has ones who will bring forth these messages of Inspired Truth. Each will be unique in style and limited, in some ways, by the language base into which they are translated.

The individual examples may vary, but the general message will never change. For example, it would make very little sense to talk about atoms to a primitive culture that has just discovered fire. However, when you talk about the “warmth” of the fire, they can understand the concept and may be able, on a FEELING level, to relate it to the idea that it is of God—as are the trees that grow around these primitive ones, or the food that is taken within for nourishment.

Look to the messages of ancient philosophies and you will see the same ideas recurring over and over again. Whether the concept, for instance, be “angels” or “spirit guides”, there is little difference except for terminology of translation into the physical. Learn to let go of the prejudices and conceptual frameworks that limit you to so-called “modern” ideas.

There are many ANCIENT teachings that are again being brought forth to you ones. Some of these were written many hundreds of thousands of years ago, yet they state the same basic message.

You have the tools and information before you at this time to discern what has value and what does not. There is that which will fill the void within or fuel the desire to FEEL an inner sense of worth or value. Inner fulfillment comes from understanding who you really are and why you are here at this time.

The answers are simple. However, there are ones (especially in positions of authority, and most especially in your churches) who would keep you from recognizing this fact. You are led to believe that these questions cannot be readily answered, especially by “lowly” YOU, and certainly not from such a personal and direct process as going within.

REMEMBER: YOU ARE INFINITE BEINGS EXPERIENCING WITHIN A BODY. THAT BODY IS BUT A SHELL THAT YOU UTILIZE SO THAT YOU CAN COME INTO A MORE FOCUSED STATE OF AWARENESS, AND THUS CONCENTRATE UPON CHALLENGING SITUATIONS SO THAT YOU CAN GROW IN UNDERSTANDING OF WHAT IT MEANS TO BE A CO-CREATOR WITH GOD!

You are in a schoolroom called Earth. The overall purpose is so that you can have opportunity to expand your awareness and ability to RESPONSIBLY create. The value comes in an ability to handle more and more of the Infinite Creative Potential that is within.

This only comes when you prove your understanding of the Laws of Cause and Effect. This is to say that you must learn to be RESPONSIBLE for the effects of that which YOU create. This goes for any and all creations, regardless of size or magnitude. If you create an unbalanced situation in your home life by lying to your family members, and then denying same when confronted by them later, then how can you be trusted with the responsibility of creating a third-dimensional solar system, let alone a universe, yourself?!

We are talking here of INFINITE CREATIVE POTENTIAL! That is why you ones have chosen to come into the physical and go through the challenges of life with only a limited conscious connection to that with which you are connected—ALL (everything, everywhere)!

You are efforting to expand your awareness of WHO you are, as well as become more skilled in the utilization of your abilities to manifest and create. Now, while you will only be given that which you can handle, you can be assured that it will be a challenge to you, so that if you so choose, you can maximize the rate at which you grow.

Notice also that you always have the option to quit. However, it is then far more difficult to be responsible for that which you have set in motion in the first place. And, though you can always run away from a situation when it gets uncomfortable, it is quite another thing to see a challenge through to completion.

Each time you are faced with a choice to continue or to quit, you must examine what it is upon which you place value, and what it is that will fulfill, within you, the desires of the heart. The heart is given to know what is right and what is wrong. The mind is given to reason all data and evaluate and place importance upon things.

It is often the case that the mind and heart are in conflict because the reactionary impulse of the mind is to avoid pain while the Innate Knowing of the heart is to seek out growth, which often leads to—PAIN (that is, growing pains!).

This is where discernment of value comes into play. You each must decide for yourselves what has personal value to you. Is the emotional pressure so great that you cannot persist another moment? Do you HAVE to run away? Is there NO other choice? Would being homeless on the street be better than going to work just one more day? These are questions of value and balance.

While there are no wrong choices, there ARE better choices! And be assured that, when you run away from a challenge, it will be coming back around to impact your experience again. It may not be in this lifetime, or even on this particular planet, but you WILL have to again face that which you could not presently overcome—if you are ever to get through the third-dimensional schoolroom. Though you may not be able to see it from your current vantage point, there is great value in ALL—EACH AND EVERY ONE—of the experiences that you are now faced with at this time.

We, of the Hosts, know quite well what it is that you are faced with, for we have walked the physical path MANY times while we too learned our lessons and earned our current positions of responsibility—as eventually shall YOU, too! If you feel as though no one could possibly understand what it is that you are going through in your life, then go back and read this message again, for you surely missed the fact that ALL IS CONNECTED TO ALL! What YOU experience is the experience of ALL, for we all exist within the ONE who created us.

These are the ideas that the “holy” men of your world would rather you not listen to, for such are the ideas that make these ones unnecessary and thus they would be out of a job.

You have within you a direct connection to God. You do not need another to tell you what YOU feel in your heart. Learn to trust your Inner Guidance and learn to follow your heart, and such will guide you to the experiences that will cause you to grow in awareness, and thus in ability to create better SOUL-UTIONS!

I am Lord Michael, of the Archangelic Realms. I am your Elder Brother, just a bit farther along the path that you are now walking. I come as Messenger of Truth, within the Light of the One who is ALL! SALU!

CHAPTER 3

ONLY SUCKERS FALL FOR BRITISH LINE ON GOLD WILL YOU DODGE POTHOLES?

by Richard Freeman 7/25/97

Editor's note: Recently the Federal Reserve Board Chairman, Alan Greenspan, blew yet another mesmerizing and all-engulfing cloud of smoke-screen through one of his many active ori-faces in the process of delivering his "State Of The Economy" address before the House Banking Subcommittee. Such smoothly double-edged and calculatingly silky-fine words of deception are typically reserved for just such a spokesman among the front-men of the Elite crooks as this bankster represents. This is the New World Order at its "finest".

But this time it is possible that (maybe as practice makes perfect?) Mr. Greenspan outperformed even his usual oratory. The acting was superb; the jestures perfectly timed; the words often tugged at the heartstrings; the rhetoric was buoyant with optimism yet tempered with that cautious pseudo-wisdom the Fed hairman is known for—that frankly elevates the concept of doublespeak "up" into the rarified heights usually reserved for presidential campaigning and children's excuses for not doing their homework. Indeed, this is the Big League in action.

More to the point of our Front Page story this week, when the "Reverend" Mr. Greenspan, after delivering his "sermon on the mount", was asked point blank (or as directly as any member of the House dared to confront him) about the recent gold devaluation and rumored sell-off situation, without hesitation (hint: an expected question) he said that, rather than gold's devaluation being due to any excessive sell-off activities by such as the major banking houses, the decline in the price of gold recently is due much more overwhelmingly to "an increasing sense of the purchasing power of money"—that is, worthless PAPER money instruments!

Oh yeah? Then I have several bridges for sale—but please pay in that ol' worthless gold stuff. OK? I'm sure you won't miss it!

The following is a reprint of an insightful recent article by Richard Freeman in the July 25, 1997 issue of Executive Intelligence Review (EIR). We thank EIR for their gracious permission to share this most timely and superbly researched article with our CONTACT readers.

One important reason for its critical Front Page placement is the fact that so many are falling for this hoax, and thus could likely find themselves in just the compromised financial position that the New World Order Banksters would like to see.

Let us hope that some Truth on this subject will help the more en-Light-ened student avoid some potholes along this most shrewdly planned obstacle course.

—Dr. Edwin M. Young, Editor-In-Chief

The rumor trumpeted by the British-controlled press, that gold is being phased out as a significant force in the financial system, is a giant hoax, intended to hoodwink the suckers in America and elsewhere into getting out of gold and other hard commodities, and into bloated financial paper. The precious metals section of the British Commonwealth raw materials cartel has developed this hoax.

The cartel has organized dumping of gold in a controlled fashion, which has sharply reduced its price, from $365 per troy ounce on Jan. 1, 1997, to $320 per ounce at the close of trading July 17 (Figure 1 on p.13). The fall is bankrupting weaker gold-producing companies, while the kingpins of the British Commonwealth cartel—such as Sir George Bush’s Barrick Gold and Anglo American Corporation—are snapping them up.

The cartel anticipates a seismic collapse of all stock, bond, and other paper values in the months ahead, with another major collapse phase expected most likely in September-October—concurring with the forecast of economist Lyndon LaRouche, who has demonstrated that the speculative world financial bubble has outstripped the loot it can extract from the underlying physical economy, and will now implode.

The world’s press now contains reports daily from political leaders and financiers warning of such a crash, following which, the oligarchy intends to reverse the fall of the price of gold, and to place the world on a British Commonwealth-controlled deflationary gold standard. Gold will be pegged to as much as $800 per troy ounce. Such an arrangement is meant to shrink the world economy and genocidally slash population. This will repeat, but on a global scale, the experience following the U.S. Specie Resumption Act, a piece of treason enacted by the U.S. Congress in 1875 and implemented in 1879, which virtually bankrupted the United States during 1879-1907.

The tempo of this process is fed by the disintegration of the financial system.

CENTRAL BANK SALE OF GOLD

As the first step in its plan, the Commonwealth cartel rigged a fall in the price of gold. As Figure 1 shows, for the last several years, gold has traded in a stable band defined by a lower level of $385 per troy ounce and an upper level of $410 per troy ounce. During 1996, for example, the average price of gold was $388 per ounce.

The total existing world supply of gold is 5.858 billion troy ounces, or 182,203 metric tons (there are 2.283 billion ounces, though this estimate varies, depending on mining technology) is unmined; 42% (or 2.468 billion ounces) is in private, aboveground stocks, i.e., jewelry, industrial gold, and private individuals' holding of bars, coins, and medals; and 19% (1.107 billion ounces) is held by governments, mostly central banks (with a little held by the International Monetary Fund).

However, of the gold that is aboveground, i.e., in private and government stocks, government-held gold constitutes 31% of the world supply, giving central banks tremendous leverage: Should they choose to unload even a tiny fraction of the gold they hold, they could depress the price. And this is exactly what they are doing. In parallel, some of the gold-mining companies, and more often the gold banks allied to them—such as N.M. Rothschild, Sharpe Pixely, and Macotta Goldschmidt—as well as some hedge funds, appear to have shorted gold (taken out positions that its value will go down), forcing its price down.

Among identified central banks, for the last several years, the largest net sellers have been the central banks of Canada, Belgium, and the Netherlands. In 1996, the central bank of the Netherlands sold a substantial amount—9.6 million troy ounces; the central bank of Belgium sold 6.5 million ounces. Other central banks bought 9.4 million ounces, so, in 1996, net central bank sales of gold totalled 6.7 million ounces, not an incidental sum.

In 1997, the central banks of Switzerland and Australia, two banks that one would not suspect would sell gold, carried out or announced sales: Switzerland was pressured to sell gold by Anti-Defamation League mob-connected Edgar Bronfman, of the Bronfman liquor empire, head of the World Jewish Congress. This was ostensibly to compensate representatives of Jewish families from whom the Nazis confiscated gold 60 years ago. Switzerland announced in March, that it has scheduled the sale of 12.86 million ounces of gold over ten years, or 1.286 million ounces per year. When completed, this will represent approximately one-sixth of the Swiss National Bank's gold reserves of 83.0 million ounces. A U.S. gold expert told EIR on July 7, "The Swiss announcement is critical in the fall of the price of gold. The Swiss are identified with gold; their selling is unheard of."

Then, on July 4, the British Commonwealth member-country Australia, announced that its central bank, the Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA), had sold, over the previous months, 5.369 million ounces of gold, which represented 60% of its gold holdings. The Treasurer of Australia, Peter Costello, announced that the purpose of the sale was to take the money from the sale and invest it in bonds, earning a higher yield. But Australia is the world's third-largest gold-mining country, and the sale of this gold devalues the value of its mines. Further indicating the rigged nature of Australia's actions is that one of the RBA's board members, Hugh Morgan, is chairman of one of the world's biggest gold-mining concerns, Western Mining Corporation of Australia. Morgan would condone the RBA's actions, sacrificing seemingly short-term interests, only were it conducive to a global, subsuming commonwealth strategy: the gold trap.

Swiss and Australian central banks' combines sales alone represent 6% of 1997 projected world gold consumption, or 9% of world gold production, an important sum. But, if in 1997, other central banks sell gold, on a net basis, as indications seem to suggest, then central bank gold sales could total an amount equal to 8-12% of world consumption, or 12-15% of world production. This is a large amount to be dumped on the market.

This enhances even further the effect of critical cartel gold-shortening operations, which have collapsed the price of gold 14% in the last seven months, and brought it down nearly 25% from its February 1996 level.

A 'DARWINIAN' SHAKEOUT

The plummeting gold price has created havoc in the gold market, pulverizing those unprepared for the price drop. But the top instruments of the House of Windsor's raw materials cartel—Anglo American Corporation and Barrick Gold, respectively, the first and second largest gold-mining companies in the world—were completely prepared and are executing a preconceived smash and grab strategy.

Peter Munk, a personal friend of England's Prince Charles, is chairman of Barrick Gold; crack cocaine kingpin George Bush is head of Barrick's international advisory board, a post created specifically for him in 1995, so that he could help direct Barrick's global strategy. In the 1980s, Barrick, through its dominant owner, Adnan Khashoggi, was involved in financing Iran-Contra and other dirty intelligence affairs. In 1996, in return for 10,000 hectares of gold concessions in Zaire-Congo, Barrick helped clear the way for Luarent Kabila's Nazi dictatorship.

Barely able to contain his glee, Barrick Chairman Munk told the July 10 New York Times that the benefit of the gold price drop is that it "would breed a darwinian consolidation in the industry, much like an earlier shakeout in the steel industry." He added, "There is going to be a period of rapid consolidation. And it will end with a couple of really good producers," at the top. Munk also boasted to the July 8 Wall Street Journal, "For the next six to 12 months, there will be tremendous opportunities for companies to strengthen themselves, and there will also be a tremendous amount of losers.... We can carry on with our policy of acquisitions at decent prices." He asserted to the July 9 Wall Street Journal that he "wouldn't be surprised if gold dropped another $40 and ounce," that is, to $280 per troy ounce, lower than it has been in decades.

The talk in the press indicated that the theme of a price-war-induced shakeout-consolidation had already been making the rounds. On July 8, in an article entitled "Plummeting Prices Dig Into Gold Shares", the Wall Street Journal wrote, "Those investors who can stomach the possibility of lower gold prices in the coming months may reap the benefits of expected consolidation in the industry." It emphasized that the process would be "painful".

The British Commonwealth Elite already had control over 59% of world gold production, but seeks control where it doesn't have it yet—in Russia and in places in Ibero-America and Africa—and to take over weaker Commonwealth producers.

FUTURES CONTRACTS

To show the level of preparation for the assault, Barrick and other top Commonwealth gold firms have shielded themselves against the adverse effects of the price drop. Through futures contracts, Barrick has sold future production of its gold for $420 an ounce. Thus, regardless of whether gold falls to $320 per ounce or even $50 per ounce, Barrick is guaranteed, at the other end of the futures contract, to receive $420 an ounce for all of its 1997 gold production. It has hedged its gold production through the year 2000.

Anglo American Corporation of South Africa has also hedged its future gold production. Anglo American, which is merged through cross-share ownership with DeBeers Diamonds and Minorco mineral company, is owned and run by the Oppenheimer family. The Oppenheims are members of the elite 1001 Club and integrated into the House of Windsor apparatus. Anglo American is the world's largest gold and raw materials producer, and a key cog in the raw materials cartel. In addition to hedging its gold production, Anglo American has been buying into the huge Ashanti Gold Company of Ghana, which gives it two advantages: Ashanti has a low cost of production for mining gold, which makes it profitable, even with a low gold price, and it has also hedged on future sales.

But many gold-producing companies report that they didn't hedge their forward sales, because they figured that the price would bottom out at about $340 an ounce (the dumping of gold by central banks undid this calculation): now, they are vulnerable to being crushed. Leon Esterhuizen, a gold stock analyst with Société Générale Frankel Pollak in Johannesburg, South Africa, said that at $320 per troy ounce, more than half of South Africa's top gold mines are unprofitable, and at $305 per ounce, only five could stay open. Russia, the world's fifth largest producer, with the world's third largest reserves, would have to shut down most of its mines at the current gold price.

The British Commonwealth mining elites are poised to swallow up gold properties around the world, at fire-sale prices.

This extension of its control of global gold-mining properties and bullion supplies, sold by panicked investors, will give the House of Windsor raw materials cartel the power to erect a global Species Resumption Act gold standard. An engineered short-term fall in the price of gold is a useful start, but a collapse in financial markets is required for the full strategy to be advanced.

THE SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER CRASH

Oblivious to reality, the ignorant sucker buys deeper into the U.S. stock market, with the illusion that he will get rich quick. But those in the know warn of an impending financial breakdown, confirming the forecast of economist LaRouche.

On July 11, a European banking source commented to EIR on the impending "financial earthquake". At present, the questions whether "the earthquake will precipitate an implosion of systemic dimension during the September-October period," or whether there will be an intermezzo of "feverish volatility" which will last into early 1998.

During the week of July 14, the Group of 30, a private bankers' group, issued a memorandum worked out by Lord Alexander of Weedon from London's National Westminster Bank, and John Heimann of Merrill Lynch, the world's largest stock brokerage. The memo concentrates on the problem of 60 "core" banks and global investment firms, whose failure could trigger a systemic crisis. It states, "The objective must be to eliminate systemic risk...to devise an international financial system that can withstand shocks without failures cascading through the system."

This warning was echoed by the July 15 lead editorial of the London Financial Times, the British oligarchy's mouthpiece, titled "Global Risks in Banking". It states that steps must be taken immediately to handle burgeoning risks in the international banking system, and that if governments delay needed actions, "tax-payers of the world are heavily at risk."

THE U.S. STOCK MARKET BUBBLE

The senior European banker cited above, reported that a big problem is that the Japanese and other central banks are lending money at cheap interest rates—the Japanese discount rate for lending to its commercial banks is 0.75%. A sizable chunk of that money is being invested in stock markets around the world, and is one of the forces pushing them upward. However, he reported, were the U.S. Federal Reserve Board or the Bank of Japan to raise interest rates soon, and other central banks to follow, that game would be finished.

A major intersection point of the crisis is the U.S. stock market. The capitalization of the stocks traded on all U.S. stock exchanges (that is, the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange, the NASDAQ, and so on) now exceeds $10 trillion—almost half the capitalization of all stocks in the world, and greater than the nominal U.S. Gross Domestic Product of nearly $8 trillion (capitalization is equal to the price of a share of the company's stock times the number of all shares outstanding, in this case for all stocks) (see Figure 2 on p.13).

The price-to-earnings ratio of all U.S. stock averages almost 20:1, and for some stocks it is 30:1 to 40:1. But where are the earnings to sustain the stock price? They don't exist. Since 1970, the U.S. physical economy has been contracting at the rate of approximately 2% per year. The stock market's capitalization has grown nearly fivefold since 1985, but is based on a physical economy that has contracted.

What has sustained stock prices up to now are international hot-money flows; huge pools of mutual fund money gathered from suckers—the total valuation of all "mutual fund equity funds" surpassed $2 trillion in June of this year; and derivatives. In 1996, more than 1 billion stock-market-related derivatives contracts traded, each contract worth several thousands, up to several million dollars each, consisting of forwards, futures, options, etc., on both stocks and stock indices. These contracts have leverage of up to 50:1, each pyramided one upon another. Thus, at a point of crisis, this stock market, based on hot air and leverage, will be the victim of reverse leverage, and disintegrate literally overnight.

It will be a toss-up as to whether the stock market or the derivatives-soaked banking system goes first.

The British oligarchy has readied its deflationary gold standard for the blowout. The 1875-79 Specie Resumption Act, which ravaged production, is a model. This should prompt the uninformed man in the street to evaluate what is going on, and ask himself: Why is it that he flees gold and hard commodities, going into bloated stocks, while the oligarchy, with cool deliberation, moves in the opposite direction?

ANOTHER OPINION

FROM A VETERAN:

[About Biological Warfare]

From the INTERNET, 7/7/97, [quoting:]

These reports of biological warfare against Americans, using aerosol methods, planes, and exhaust pipes, are plausible, but if our government was behind it they would be speeding up the inoculation program for our forces. [Not necessarily, because they are trying to deactivate our own forces so the foreign forces are in control in the U.S. And, furthermore, do you have proof of whether they are or are not inoculating our troops?] I sincerely believe that the possibility of some future attack is real. I believe that the main purpose is to instigate the National ID Card for citizens in order [to have] treatment.

I don't believe in emerging-viruses, but engineered-viruses, especially the ones where bacteria are encased with 40% of the HIV 1 envelope gene.

I don't put much faith in colloidal silver products, or antibiotics that are incapable of eradicating these germ warfare agents. [See information on pgs. 7, 9, 10 and 23 for products.]

We have been bombarded by news releases of an Iraqi threat, yet we have laws which state our own government can unleash these organisms upon an unknowing population. I fear the government more than Iraq. [AMEN, to that]

I am not stating to not be prepared, but I believe they will unleash a class-level-five organism that has no known treatment. My 2 pennies' worth. Dannie [End quoting]

Dannie presents some excellent thoughts.

IN THE NEWS TODAY WE HAVE A REPORT FROM CHICKEN LITTLE

Opposing views. You decide—I am sorry it's so confusing.

From the INTERNET, update June 11, 1997, [quoting:]

Date for biological attack in July is leaning toward July 20th as D-day which means the Anthrax/plague would be dispersed around the 17th.

Another 27 cities will probably be hit along with NYC according to our Intel [intelligence?] report.

SAC base—upstate NY—abandoned SAC base was the object of a major clean-up/refurbishing beginning three weeks ago. Concrete bunkers were refurbished along with underground fuel tanks at the site. The railroad spur at the site was also cleaned up.

Presently located at the site are six C-130s. Also being stored at the site are several hypobarometric bombs. The bombs will be dropped out of the C-130s in the case of the Anthrax/plague attack. Intel states the bombs are dropped slowly, by parachute, out the rear of the C-130s; a tremendous mist disperses, an ignition charge detonates and blows [fuel/air bombs?].

Intense heat of around 2700 degrees is also dispersed. The bomb consumes all oxygen in the area and burns everything in sight. Casualty management teams consider this a defense measure to contain the biologicals.

The bombs were brought in by railway and are approximately 15-20 feet in diameter and 25-30 feet long. C-130s have been modified with racks or rollers to guide the bomb for a more accurate drop.

Folks, the news is this: The Scoundrels In Charge (SIC) have figured out the best way to discredit the patriot movement. They just release some preposterous NEWS, by way of some official sounding “official” or “officer”, knowing that there will be some “Chicken Littles” who will squawk to high heaven and declare that either the sky is falling or the government is going to Anthrax the US population.

Then after they have spread the “news”, and the 17th and the 20th come and go with no fallen sky and no Anthrax release—well, consider the source.

And the next time they “cry wolf”? Well, fool me once, shame on you. Fool me twice, shame on me. And for the general public which hears that the patriot movement insisted that there was going to be an Anthrax attack by the government, well, goodbye credibility. [End quoting]

Sounds like he may be right on target.

BRONFMAN PROMOTES SATAN’S MARILYN MANSON

From FLASHPOINT newsletter, July 1997, [quoting:]

Which high-ranking member of the global Elite is financially involved in satanic rock music? The answer is: Edgar Bronfman, head of the World Jewish Congress. Bronfman is sponsor of possibly the Earth’s most wicked rock group, Marilyn Manson.

Marilyn Manson is the newest satanic, heavy metal rock band for youth. The band’s name honors the late Hollywood starlet, Marilyn Monroe, who committed suicide, and mass killer Charles Manson. The group makes plain its satanic goal of destroying Christianity and Christ. Its newest album production is titled, Antichrist Superstar.

Asked by a rock magazine interviewer about their connection with the Church of Satan and its leader,

Anton LaVey, the band's leader responded:

“Yeah, I always mention LaVey as being an influence to my way of thinking. What I have to say turns a lot of people on to his ideals. LaVey and other satanists, like Nietzsche and Aleister Crowley, have all been great influences on the way that I think. They've all been antichrists in their own right, and I think I'm just kind of filling their shoes. Each age has to have at least one brave individual that tried to bring an end to Christianity, which no one has managed to succeed yet, but maybe through music we can finally do it.” [emphasis mine]

Just what kind of music company would give this demented group a fat contract worth millions of dollars and help promote their satanic philosophies? An evil one, that's for sure. In fact, Marilyn Manson's CDs and tapes are produced and sold by Interscope, a company owned by Edgar Bronfman, the Canadian billionaire who also owns Seagram's, the world's largest distillery. The Bronfman dynasty is exposed in my [Texe Marrs'] book, Circle of Intrigue. [End quoting]

And the churches think rock music is good for their congregants, as more and more of them include it in their services.

UN TROOPS IN U.S.A. UPDATE

From FLASHPOINT newsletter, July 1997, [quoting:]

An article published recently in Der Spiegel, the influential and popular German news magazine, matter of factly reported that German soldiers would be participating with other nations' armed forces in the “Roving Sands” military war games at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Our own U.S.A. Today newspaper, in its April 8, 1997 edition, also reported on the Roving Sands war games exercise, announcing that, according to Fort Bliss officials, “More than 30,000 soldiers, airmen, and Marines from the United States, Germany, the Netherlands, and Canada” would be participating.

Meanwhile, Living Truth Ministries has received many photographs and eye-witness reports of UN troops operating throughout North America. Amazingly, the average American citizen is totally ignorant of this sell-out of American sovereignty. [End quoting]

We invite the foreign troops in—house them and train them to turn us into their slaves—or worse, to kill us. WAKE UP, AMERICA!!

THE IMPORTANCE OF MOTHERS AND FATHERS

From IMPRIMIS newsletter, June 1997, [quoting:]

No matter what the advocates of “gender-free parenting” may say, mothers and fathers do parent differently. Mothers tend to be more verbal, whereas fathers are more physical. Mothers also tend to encourage personal safety and caution, whereas fathers are more challenging when it comes to achievement, independence, and risk-taking. And mothers tend to be stronger comforting figures than fathers who are more intent upon establishing and enforcing rules governing the behavior of their children.

The fact that mothers and fathers parent differently is not to say that one group does it “right” or “better” than the other. What children need to develop good character is the combination of what mothers and fathers bring to the parenting equation. Take the fact that mothers tend to be nurturers and fathers tend to be disciplinarians. Parenting experts used to believe that families socialize children best when both parents adopt a nurturing but permissive role, demonstrating high levels of love and low levels of control. Decades of research have shown, however, that when children are reared this way they act out through chronic bad behavior. Permissiveness as a “parenting style” simply doesn’t work. Boys and girls need a high level of nurturing balanced by a high level of control. Those who are reared in families that exhibit this combination are friendlier, more energetic, and better behaved. Those who are reared by single mothers, therefore, are warm and affectionate but have difficulty learning self-discipline. Conversely, those who are reared by single fathers are obedient but often plagued by anxiety and insecurity.

It has also been fashionable for those pushing for gender-free parenting to assert that the physical play of fathers has no beneficial impact on child rearing. Many self-proclaimed child experts exhort fathers to stop playing with the kids and do more housework. Some even claim that the rough and tumble play of fathers teaches aggression and should be avoided. But new clinical studies reveal that the physical play of fathers actually gives children much-needed practice in regulating their emotions and behavior and helps them develop the capacity to recognize the emotional cues of others.

The point is not to force a choice between the parenting role of mothers or fathers but to suggest that they work best when they work together. This view contrasts sharply with the “two pair of hands” argument, which holds that when it comes to parenting, two people are better than one and it makes no difference whether they are mothers or fathers. In reality it matters greatly to whom the “two pairs of hands” are attached. Kids don’t need impersonal “caregivers”; they need loving moms and dads.

Fathers are also critical to the proper socialization of children because they teach by example how to keep negative impulses in check. It is through boys’ observation of the way their fathers deal with frustration, anger, and sadness that they learn how men should cope with such emotions. It is also through the observation of how fathers treat mothers that boys learn how men should treat women. If fathers treat mothers with dignity and respect, then it is likely that their sons will grow up to treat women with dignity and respect. If fathers treat mothers with contempt and cruelty, then it is likely that their son will, too. Fathers are also critical for the healthy emotional development of girls. If girls experience the love, attention, and protection of fathers, then they are likely to resist the temptations of seeking such things elsewhere—often through casual sexual relations at a very young age. Finally, fathers are important in helping children make the difficult transition to the adult world. Boys require an affirmation that they are “man enough”. Girls require an affirmation that they are “worthy enough”.

Given this understanding, what should we expect when fatherlessness becomes the norm? We don’t need a crystal ball to find the answer. As I indicated earlier, nearly four out of every ten children are being raised absent their fathers right now. The result is that juveniles are the fastest-growing segment of the criminal population in the United States. Between 1982 and 1991, the rate at which children were arrested for murder increased 93 percent; for aggravated assault, 72 percent; for rape, 24 percent; and for automobile theft, 97 percent. Although homicide rates have increased for all ages, those for teenagers have increased more rapidly than for adults.

The teen population is expected to grow by 20 percent over the next decade, and this is precisely the generation most likely to be reared without fathers. The prospect has led many sociologists, criminologists, and law enforcement agencies to conclude that shortly after the turn of the century we will see an adolescent crime wave the likes of which has never been seen before in this country. As if that were not enough, we know that each and every day:

7,700 children become sexually active;

1,100 children have abortions;

2,500 children are born out of wedlock;

600 children contract syphilis or gonorrhea; and six children commit suicide.

Fatherlessness is not solely responsible for these tragedies, but it certainly is a major cause. Indeed, all the available evidence suggests that improving the well-being of our children—and ultimately our nation—depends upon finding ways to bring fathers back into the home. The question is: How? [End quoting]

Occasionally, ones in the general media try to give us some truth. THANK GOD!

THE FATHERHOOD SOLUTION

From IMPRIMIS newsletter, June 1997, [quoting:]

First, our culture needs to replace the idea of the superfluous father with a more compelling understanding of the critical role fathers play in the lives of their children, not just as “paycheck”, but as disciplinarians, teachers, and moral guides. And fathers must be physically present in the home. They can’t simply show up on weekends or for prearranged “quality time”. Children need to know that their fathers are literally there for them.

Second, we need to convey the importance and sanctity of marriage. While most boys and girls expect that they will eventually get married and have children, they no longer believe that there needs to be a chronology to these two events. They should be taught that marriage comes first and that it is not a trial arrangement that can be abandoned whenever conflicts arise. Here’s where religious and moral instruction can make a huge difference, because children need to know that marriage is far more than a state-approved contract between two parties or a box to check on an income tax return.

Third, we must make restoring the rights and responsibilities of parents a national priority. Over the past century, child rearing has increasingly come to be viewed as a public rather than a private matter. As early as 1901, the Supreme Court of Indiana upheld a compulsory education law by arrogantly declaring, “The natural rights of a parent to custody and control of his children are subordinate to the power of the state.” The assault on parental authority gradually extended to all other areas of life. By 1960, one social worker writing in the prestigious journal, Child Welfare, felt free to note that “day care can offer something valuable to children because they are separated from their parents.” [Emphasis added.] School-based condom distribution, “witch hunts” against parents suspected of abuse without sufficient cause, abortion on demand without parental consent, these are all contemporary examples of how the state has chosen to wage war against parents and convince children that the very people they count on most in this world are out to hurt them. In essence, the state is saying to today’s children, “Do not trust your parents—we don’t.” [emphasis mine]

The tide is turning, however. Even many diehard critics of the traditional family have finally been forced to admit that their ivory tower theories are wrong; in the real world, children need to be raised by two parents. And parents need the freedom to decide what is in the best interest of their own children. An-other positive development is the “pro family movement” that has grown tremendously in the last few years. [emphasis mine] There are now dozens of national and regional organizations dedicated to championing parental initiatives. And pro family rallies have attracted stadium-size crowds around the country.

What can you do right now in your own home and your own community? You can start by pledging, “I will be a good wife and mother,” or, “I will be a good husband and father.” It is a simple promise, to be sure. But it is a promise upon which a good, just, and civil society depends. [End quoting]

It’s about time parents start kicking the government out of their homes.

EPA SCIENTISTS TAKE STAND AGAINST FLUORIDATION

From the INTERNET, 7/13/97, [quoting:]

Contact: Jeff Green, Citizens For Safe Drinking Water, (800) 728-3833, (619) 222-6981 (fax).

AMAZING: Scientists take stand against Fluoridation. Folks, this is truly incredible. The EPA and its protectors finally realize that fluoride is a deadly chemical? I can’t figure it out.

The EPA scientists, engineers and attorneys who assess the scientific data for Safe Drinking Water Act standards and other EPA regulations have gone on record against the practice of adding fluoride to public drinking water.

On Wednesday, July 2, 1997, National Federation of Federal Employees, Local 2050, which consists of professionals at EPA headquarters in Washington, D.C., voted unanimously to co-sponsor the California Safe Drinking Water Initiative that would reverse the State Legislature’s 1995 law mandating fluoridation.

Both proponents of fluoridation and the sponsors of this initiative consider the result of the fluoridation battle in California to be crucial to the federal government’s plan to fluoridate the entire United States by the year 2000.

Citizens for Safe Drinking Water and their sponsors are circulating petitions to gather 500,000 signatures by October to place the initiative prohibiting fluoridation in California on the June 1998 statewide ballot.

In its endorsement of the initiative, the EPA professional's union states, "It is our hope that our co-sponsorship of the Safe Drinking Water Initiative to prohibit fluoridation will have a beneficial effect on the health and welfare of all Californians by helping to keep their water free of a chemical substance for which there is substantial evidence of adverse health effects and, contrary to public perception, virtually no evidence of significant benefits."

The statement from NFFE Local 2050 continues, "Our members' review of the body of evidence over the last eleven years, including animal and human epidemiology studies, indicate a causal link between fluoride/fluoridation and cancer, genetic damage, neurological impairment, and bone pathology. Of particular concern are recent epidemiology studies linking fluoride exposure to lowered IQ in children.

"As the professionals who are charged with assessing the safety of drinking water, we conclude that the health and welfare of the public is not served by the addition of this substance to the public water supply."

After numerous attempts to correct EPA management conclusions that were not supported by the available facts, the union attempted to join a lawsuit against their own employer in 1986, citing "fraudulent alterations of data and negligent omission of fact to arrive at predetermined Agency political positions regarding fluoride".

Dr. Wm. L. Marcus, Senior Science Advisor in EPA's Office of Drinking Water, was fired for a 1990 whistle-blowing memo calling for a review of the cover-up of the National Toxicology Program study that shows fluoride is a "probable human carcinogen [cancer causing agent]".

Under the Safe Drinking Water Act, that finding alone prohibits the addition of fluoride to the public water supply. Although Dr. Marcus won his whistle-blower lawsuit, with punitive damages, and returned to work at the EPA, the classifications were never reviewed.

Historically, fluoridation is mandated by government and rejected by citizens. Communities all over the U.S. are currently fighting for their right to choose. Japan and nearly all of Europe have rejected fluoridation.

The California Safe Drinking Water Initiative reads:

"The public water supply should be safe for all to drink.

"In order to protect the public health from increased risk of hip fracture, cancer, dental fluorosis and other harmful effects which have been linked to fluoride in the scientific literature, and whereas data from the U.S. Public Health Service and the State of California show no significant difference in decay rates of permanent teeth and dental costs in fluoridated and non fluoridated areas in California;"

Section 116410 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read: "No fluoride or fluorine-containing substance may be added to public water systems. All laws to the contrary are hereby repealed."

AMAZING: SCIENTISTS TAKE STAND AGAINST FLUORIDATION

From the INTERNET, 7/10/97, [quoting:]

Treason's Peace, by Senator Armbruster, talked about this very issue!

The government has known for years, including the AMA and the Dental Association who finally went along with corporate America in 1947, that it is a poison, but they (corporations) had to find a way to make money on their waste product. They sold tons of it to Russia to use in the water for their political prisoners to drink.

It is a known fact that it lowers the IQ of students and causes more cavities than it helps.

Studies in Phoenix, AZ, prove this. In China they fluoridated the water for school children and used a control group of students who did not use the fluoride and those that didn't scored higher on IQ tests.

Another fact is that the Nazis used it on their prisoners because it makes individuals complacent, docile! When W.W.II was over, the Netherlands outlawed the use of fluorides in the water because they knew why it was used on the population.

Just thought I would let you know a few facts on this subject. [End quoting]

The fluoride in toothpaste is a poison and there have been millions of words used in debating why it is added to it. Supposedly it will help keep down decay, but it can have other deleterious effects which the Elite desire.

However, Commander Hatonn has said that anybody who has metal fillings in their mouth will benefit from the small amount of fluoride used in brushing because it will want to combine with any stray metal particles as they are worn off. This will help the body to dispose of them. The heavy metal particles are a worse threat than this small amount of fluoride.

EARTHWATCH: A DIARY OF THE PLANET

Excerpted from LOS ANGELES TIMES, July 10, 1997, [quoting:]

Eruptions: Mexico's Popocatepetl Volcano erupted, spewing clouds of hot ash five miles into the air, and forced the evacuation of thousands of people from around the mountain. Mexican army troops stood by to assist. The eruption, the largest since 1925, dropped ash, soot and sand on Mexico City, 33 miles away.

Montserrat's Soufriere Hills volcano erupted again after last week's explosion flattened seven villages and killed nine people. A report from the Montserrat Volcano Observatory said gas and hot ash flows are not expected to end any time soon.

Indonesia issued an alert because of increased activity at the Mount Ijen volcano. Jakarta's Kompas daily quoted a volcanologist as saying: "The situation at the moment is very dangerous for visitors. Everyone is strictly barred from climbing the volcano."

World Floods: Rain, floods and landslides forced the closure of Hong Kong schools, government offices and businesses in what were described as the worst rainstorms in 50 years. Some festivities to mark the handover of the colony to China were canceled. Rescue workers reported more than 70 landslides. More than 12,000 people were forced to take ferries when landslides closed the main Tuen Mun Highway. During three days, more than 16 inches of rain fell on parts of the former British colony.

Taiwan's southern counties were badly hit by torrential rains, which killed 5 people.

Lake Como overflowed its banks as northern Italy was lashed by torrential rains. The flooding killed at least two people. Brenner pass, Europe's major north-south Alpine link, was temporarily closed by the storms. Flooding also occurred in England and Scotland.

Alaska Fires: Major fires burned through parts of central Alaska, where summer temperatures neared 90 degrees Fahrenheit. In some areas near McGrath and Fairbanks, smoke cut visibility to one mile. Two major fires, one covering more than 167,000 acres and the other 40,000, burned in the Innoko National Wildlife Refuge. At least 39 other blazes burned throughout the state.

Magnetic Death: A "magnetic front" is blamed for disorienting tens of thousands of racing pigeons that flew the English Channel to France to mark the British Racing Pigeon Society's centenary. Laurent Toussaint, responsible for monitoring the race, told the Times of London, "There was a magnetic front south of the release point, over the Loire... which would certainly have disoriented them." Dead pigeons were seen strewn along roadsides in France. [End quoting]

And the hurricane in along the Gulf Coast this past week has poured down 30+ inches of rain in 1-2 days in some areas, and as of July 23 it was still flooding areas of the Southeast.

Mother Earth's storms and rumblings, as well as the Elite's toying with the natural forces, are warnings of bigger and bigger catastrophes to come.

I hope and pray ALL are prepared!!

THE UNTOUCHABLES

Excerpted from FAX sent by John Ray, 5/15/97, [quoting:]

How many people perished in the WW II Jewish Holocaust?

Pick a number—is basically what the enclosed excerpt from a British newsletter, Final Conflict, is suggesting.

Meanwhile, there were 20 million Russians and other Soviet Slavs who were killed during WW II, along with the Jews; there were two million Poles who died, along with the Jews; there were 1.5 million Yugoslavs who perished, along with (a smattering) of the Jews...

Yet the world only remembers the holocaust as a “Jewish event”.

Get the point?

Making the Holocaust a “Jewish event” had been the best marketing job.

To: Final Conflict (a British newsletter)

Since 1954 there have been many conflicting claims concerning the number of Jewish people (and others) who died at Auschwitz-Birkenau (Oswiecim) concentration camp. However, it is only [with] recent research and access to hitherto unavailable documents, that these numbers have drastically lowered, possibly indicating that more of our people survived. Perhaps the 6 million often publicised (though our best figure is 4.5 million) may also need to be revised lower, we hope.

(Signed) Dr. Nathan Nussbaum

Centre for Jewish Holocaust Studies.

According to official documents in the French Republic (Institute for the Examination of War-criminals) the number that died in Auschwitz was: 8,000,000

According to the French daily newspaper Le Monde (20 April, 1978): 5,000,000

According to the memorial plaque on the gas-chamber monument at Auschwitz-Birkenau (later removed in 1990 by the Polish Government): 4,000,000

According to the “confession” of Rudolf Hoess, the last commandant of Auschwitz, q.v. interrogation record and written statement before his ‘suicide’: 3,000,000

According to a statement by Yeduha Bauer, Director of the Institute for Contemporary Jewry at the Hebrew University, Jerusalem: 1,600,000

According to La Monde [sic] (1 September, 1989): 1,433,000

According to Prof. Raul Hilberg (professor for Holocaust Research, and author of the book, The Annihilation of European Jewry, 2nd.ed., 1968: 1,250,000

According to Polish historians, q.v. DPA—Report of July 1990 and corresponding public announcements: 1,000,000

According to Gerald Reitlinger, author of Die Endlosung: 850,000

In the Autumn of 1989 the Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev opened Soviet archives, and the public saw for the first time, the complete register of deaths at Auschwitz—which speaks as a key document of 74,000 dead!

(And these are not all Jews, as stated above.)

TRUTH IN MEDIA [End quoting]

This sounds much more realistic than the 6 million number the Elite Khazarian Jews have been touting all over this globe.

I read in the paper today that the Elite Jews are now going after the Austrian banks as well as the Swiss banks. They are attempting to extort huge sums from them also.

THOUGHTS

Excerpted from THE SEEKERS, Jul/Aug 1997, [quoting:]

It is the beginning of Summer 1997. The atmosphere all around is shaky. People everywhere seem to feel that something is “going to happen”. The weather is the topic of conversation on everyone’s lips. There are so many things to cause a person to be sad and disillusioned.

“Look up for when ye see things come to pass know that the end is nigh.” End of an era? End of time as we know it? End of the world? If this be true then why are we so sad? After all, most reading this say they are ready to meet their Creator; we should be happy and looking forward to that glorious day. I know that there are many hard and unhappy days ahead whatever the end might be. Life will be lots easier if we have a positive attitude toward life in general and work (for the night cometh when no man can work) to help those around us who are less fortunate than us.

“Do all you can and God will always lend a helping hand; but first, you must do all you can.”

So many people believe that God will take care of all their needs and that they need not exert themselves in any way. I believe this is a distortion of truth. Our Creator will take care of our needs—if we work by living in accordance to His laws. We must not be passive “watchers”. To have a garden we must till the soil and plant the seeds. Even broken bones are healed by God, but it works lots better if they are first properly set in place. An old Chinese proverb says, “A man grows most tired by standing still.” Let’s not let grass grow under our feet. [End quoting]

Shouldn’t we consider this “the quickening”, as Art Bell calls it—or, the “handwriting on the wall” according to the Bible?

I think we’re almost out of time for preparation for some BIG changes.

CHAPTER 5

THE NEWS DESK A SPECIAL REPORT

by Dr. Al Overholt 12/24/96

“NOT WITH MY CHILD YOU WON’T”— HILLARY CLINTON’S RENEWED ASSAULT ON PARENTAL RIGHTS:

From INSIDER’S REPORT, newsletter of the American Policy Center, by John Meredith, June 1997, [quoting:]

The recent dog-and-pony show in the East Room of the White House marks the second attempt of Hillary Clinton to socialize America. Now the First Lady wants to pick on those who cannot defend themselves from her radical experimentation—children.

Disguised as a caring response to “new scientific findings”, the White House Conference on Early Childhood Development and Learning laid the foundation to terminate your parental rights. Why would she want to deny parents their most basic of human rights? To pave the way for parental licensing which would give the Government total control over your children—from womb to tomb.

“We hope to spur lawmakers, educators and business leaders to recognize the role this information about early childhood development must play in policy-making,” Hillary Clinton declared. In other words, your children’s medical coverage, child care, education, and safety will all be dictated by the federal government. If you do not agree to raise your children according to the Liberal establishment’s edicts, you will be unable to obtain a parental license.

The scientific findings the First Lady is exploiting simply state, “spoken language has an astonishing impact on an infant’s brain development.” That is all the science has to say. Everything else the parade of doctors, educators, entertainers, and bureaucrats presented as science was simply self-serving rhetoric to aid Hillary Clinton in her attempt to socialize this great country.

And where did this “science” come from? A two-and-a-half-year study of 42 children who were observed for one hour a month by Dr. Betty Hart and Dr. Todd Ridley. That’s right, America, Hillary Clinton wants to license parents on the conclusions of two doctors who spent 30 hours with 42 different children.

THE “PRESIDENTIAL” SHOW OF CONCERN?

Her health care scam, overwhelmingly rejected by the American people during her husband’s first term, has been revamped as part of a four-point Presidential initiative to show his concern for the nation’s children. This back-door attack on our country’s health care system seeks to extend medical coverage through expanding Medicaid, block grants to states and COBRA [Sounds like a program to poison people—MENTALLY??] funding. The cost to the American taxpayer for this bold show of concern is $17 billion, a “modest investment”, according to Hillary Clinton.

According to the First Lady’s Washington Times column of April 17, doctors “will prescribe reading aloud to young patients and their parents during every visit.” Are we supposed to give doctors $17 billion for telling us to read to our children? No wonder the Association of American Medical Colleges supports this health care initiative.

The First Lady of socialism also wants to dictate the type of child-care facilities available to parents in the future. Citing the military’s child-care program as the best in the country, her husband has issued an executive memorandum instructing the Secretary of Defense to launch an invasion on domestic child-care providers.

This military offensive is not the “singing, playing games, reading, story telling, just talking and listening” program Hillary Clinton touts as ideal child care. The battle plan calls for creating “partnerships” with civilian child-care centers. Through these one-sided partnerships, non-military providers will be trained, accredited, and evaluated. Their quality will be improved, according to the administration, despite being on-the-job training centers for welfare recipients and depositories for their children.

What makes the military child-care system so great? The fact that everything they do is paid for with an unending supply of tax dollars. The only child-care program America needs is one that cuts the American families’ taxes to the point where one parent can afford to stay home. The last thing child care in America needs is a military assault led by a draft dodger.

Early Head Start is the third step of Hillary Clinton’s socialization process for America. Quietly contrived by the Clinton’s in 1994 and administered by the Department of Health and Human Services, Early Head Start is supposed to bring nutritional, educational, and “other Head Start services” to expectant mothers as well as children up to three years of age. In reality, all it brings is the federal government into the lives of your children from the moment they are born.

Consider the words of Mr. Clinton, “(as) part of our constant effort to give our children the opportunity to make the most of their God-given potential...(I) remind everyone in America that this must always be part of the public’s business.”

Notice he claims your children as his own (“our children”). If you disagree with the government’s nutritional, educational, or social agenda for your children, will they be ripped from your bosom in the name of public good?

The final proposal presented at Hillary Clinton’s East Room fiasco concerns child safety. This program will provide early childhood-development training to police officers, prosecutors, probation and parole officers, mental health workers, and school officials. The program is intended to better enable law enforcement to respond to young children who are victims or witnesses of violence.

This program is in response to the appalling number of letters Mr. Clinton claims to get from “five- and six-year-olds who simply want me to make their lives safe; who don’t want to worry about being shot... who want their schools and the streets they walk on to be free of terror.”

Would these concerns not be better addressed if law enforcement focused on such basic principles as ending paroles and plea bargains, getting policemen out of cars and walking a beat, and locking up child molesters instead of counseling them? If the legal system would start focusing its attention on criminals instead of harassing victims, our children would be far better served.

Mr. Clinton’s initiatives are not the result of concern attributable to new scientific findings. They are the carefully orchestrated manipulations of presidential power for the benefit of Hillary Clinton’s global-village agenda.

Extending child health care, military controlled child-care centers, Early Head Start programs, and child-safety projects are all tools to replace parents with governmental policy. No longer will Hillary Clinton’s New World Order bureaucrats have to wait until your child starts school to begin their assault on traditional American freedoms. These initiatives will start that process from the day your child is born.

PARENTAL LICENSING: THE NEXT SHOW OF CONCERN?

Parental licensing sounds utterly ridiculous to the majority of Americans. After all, “a democratic society does not license basic freedoms,” Don Feder of the Boston Herald reminds us. However, since 1994, parental rights have been assaulted with a voracity not seen since the 1920s.

The best example of this assault are the “guidelines” for suitable parenting developed by county officials in Durham, NC. These guidelines include defining as abuse sending a child to his room and dictating to parents what time they must be home if they leave their children in the care of a trusted baby-sitter. [emphasis mine]

What has happened in Durham can happen in your town too because of the cavalier attitudes of state legislators like New Jersey Assemblyman Arline Frischa. Citing standards for adoptive and foster parents, Frischa has appeared on New York television to support the licensing of parents. [emphasis mine] If the Clinton initiatives become policy, she will be but the first in a long line of politicians to go on record as supporting such licensing.

American parents do not want an army of government bureaucrats invading their homes and telling them how to raise their children. That is precisely what will happen if they do not take time now to speak out against the Clintons’ proposed initiatives. [emphasis mine]

In the eye of the storm is the Republican party—long-time defenders of individual rights, family values, and limited government. Their leader, Senator Trent Lott, should be a reliable ally in the fight for parental rights but parents must not count on that. Trent Lott will only lead Republicans in the right direction if he hears the roar of concerned parents. [End quoting]

When are we going to say, “We’re mad as hell, and we’re not going to take it any longer”??

CHAPTER 6

WHAT IS N.A.S.A.'S REAL AGENDA ON MARS?

by Ray Bilger 7/27/97

Remember the panoramic view of the surface of Mars shown to us recently on television by N.A.S.A.? Remember the twin peaks that could be seen apparently about half-a-mile in the distance? And, do you recall N.A.S.A. telling us that the area where the Pathfinder lander and the Sojourner rover are located is a former floodplain? Well, would you believe that those twin peaks are actually the tops of two very ancient pyramids? This is the very serious scientific contention of former N.A.S.A. consultant and former Science Advisor to Walter Cronkite, Richard Hoagland, and two of his associates, Ken Johnston and Marvin Zarnick, both former N.A.S.A. scientists, and of Ron Nicks, a noted geologist.

mars ancient flood cartoon

On Friday night, July 25, 1997, Richard Hoagland took the opportunity to expose this latest information on Art Bell's radio talk-show. Richard's two associates, who shared the podium with him, are not without their own rather notable credentials to qualify them for commenting on this topic. Marvin Zarnick worked with McDonnell Douglas for 37 years and worked on the manned space craft program through Mercury, Gemini, Sky Lab, Apollo and Space Shuttles. He did a lot of mission planning and writing of mission rules for several Gemini missions. Ken Johnston's background is as distinguished as Marvin's and also includes involvement in many N.A.S.A. missions. Ken has appeared before on Art Bell's program with Richard Hoagland.

Richard now believes, from all of the research he and his team at the Enterprise Mission have been able to do, that it appears we have landed on Mars at the area N.A.S.A. claims we are at, but that the agenda and program being pursued are not what we are being told through the media. As Richard puts it, there are really two missions going on simultaneously; the one we are being shown through the media, and the real mission where there has now been a major leak of information allowing Richard to know what Pathfinder is really doing on Mars.

What has recently appeared publicly, and which is central to an understanding of the real mission, is a super-resolution view of the twin peak on the right, originally shown in the Mars panorama. This photograph was made public at a N.A.S.A. press conference on Tuesday, July 22, 1997, when Mission Control supposedly regained communications with the lander.

At the conference, Dr. Peter Smith of the University of Arizona, who is the principle scientific investigator on the lander imaging system, laid out the new images of the right peak. The images were apparently taken on July 20th. But that alone raises questions—as communications were supposed to be down on that day?

C.N.N. had announced that N.A.S.A. had missed a communications window by ten minutes. To understand this, one needs to first understand a communications window. Mars is currently about 50 million miles away from us. Mars rotates on its axis once in every 24 hours, 37 minutes. This period is one Martian day. Since there must be a direct and unobstructed path for radio communications with Pathfinder, we are only able to communicate with it when it is on the side of Mars which is facing Earth, just as here on Earth we can only see the Sun when we are on the side of the planet facing the Sun.

Anyway, according to Ken Johnston, when N.A.S.A. was doing the lunar orbits over 30 years ago, with the old computers they had then, they could predict within fractions of a second when the astronauts orbiting the Moon would be losing signal with Earth and when they would regain it. Then Art Bell asked if it was “possible that they missed it by ten minutes, or is that some sort of [cover-up] story?” Marvin responded, “In my estimation it has to be a story. It can’t be an oversight unless we’ve thrown away 35 years of experience in running missions... There isn’t just one person involved, there are several, and each one is monitoring the other... They’re looking at data on screens and everybody knows what the next action is and who’s got it and when he’s got to have it ready.”

To the above, Richard added the fact that these teams have had the last seven months, while waiting for arrival at Mars, to practice all of this. As well, the programs that are running this are computer programs timed to fractions of seconds. “The idea that (they) missed it by 10 minutes... These people must think we’re all out to lunch! So, that raises the specter of a hidden agenda.”

Art then said, “All right. That’s where I wanted to go. What would you suspect the motivation would be for missing the communication time, publicly anyway?” Richard’s telling response was: “Because then you don’t have to report to the press what you found out when you didn’t miss communication and you got the data you really wanted... And this occurred on the 20th (of July).”

According to Richard, and as maps we now have of the Martian surface should corroborate, the twin peaks we have been shown are the only objects which rise above the surface for hundreds of miles around. “It seems to be that what we’ve landed in is the middle of an ancient city, another counterpart to Cydonia.”

Art said, “I don’t see a city?” Richard responded, “Well... because it’s underneath. It’s buried under the floodplain... And these floods, 10,000 times the volume of the water of the Amazon (River)... flowed down across this plain... What was left sticking up out of this flood... a half-a-mile away, apparently, are the tips of two Cydonia-type archeology pyramids...”

In addition to these two peaks southwest of the lander, there is another small peak to the north, about one-and-a-half miles away, which appears to be another pyramid. Richard claims his calculations show that if you draw a line through the two pyramids and continuing through the one farther away to the north, that line, if you followed it, would take you right to Cydonia! Of the twin peaks, he notes the pointed top on the peak on the left. This should mean it is intact. The right one is flattened on top as though it was lopped off, perhaps in the flood, exposing the interior.

Going back now for a moment, to put some accurate verification on all of this, on Tuesday, July 22, 1997, at the official N.A.S.A. press conference, Dr. Peter Smith said, in describing the new photos: “This is a close-up of the hill, the northern hill of the twin peaks, and you can see in this view an enhanced super-resolution, taken with something like 25 frames that have been shifted slightly, one to the next, so that we can actually get sub-pixel resolution. Now, this has been done by a very competent team from the Ames Research Center headed by Dr. Carol Stoker who is one of our participating scientists...

“In this picture you can see that the hill has almost a prow, like a ship... and here’s some of the layering that we could just barely make out in the previous pictures and, unfortunately, the rest of the layers are just below the frame. We may have to go back and take another picture of this... to explore the details.” Or, is this the only part of the photo they want us to see?

What was especially troubling about this was the fact that those photos were soon removed from N.A.S.A.’s main website and then put on their mirror site, out of the way, and none of Dr. Smith’s comments appeared in any of the mainstream media!

Let’s stop here and examine something not discussed by Richard. All of this makes one wonder, if, indeed, what Richard is saying is true, does the Pathfinder lander perhaps have on board some miniaturized super-sophisticated-technology equipment that would enable it to tell what is beneath the surface and then beam this detailed information back to scientists here on Earth? If so, do N.A.S.A. scientists already have in their hands the data on this buried city?

Richard and Marvin and Ken all agreed that what we are being told are the capabilities of the Sojourner rover are not the true capabilities. We are being told that it can only travel 500 meters; not far enough to go to these pyramids. Richard contends that if we believe this, then, when they do go to examine the Martian pyramids, they don’t have to tell us what data they have uncovered because the rover is not supposed to be able to travel that far.

Richard suggests that N.A.S.A. is being less than forthright with the American people, and that what we need to do, to answer these very interesting questions as to what we are seeing, is to bring some pressure to bear on N.A.S.A. to use the rover to go see what’s there to see.

Richard then said, “Here’s the key thing. You don’t have to get to the pyramid itself... to get into interesting debris, because if this right-hand peak was torn apart... and the inner guts of the rooms and... God knows what would be in there, flowed down with the water, it basically has clustered as a debris apron... around the base. And that debris apron extends almost to the lander sight itself...”

In the next hour of Art’s program, Richard brought on another expert, geologist Ron Nicks (with 30 years experience). Mr. Nicks is a former Parsons Engineering Geologist, a consultant to the Environmental Protection Agency and a veteran of the Nuclear Regulatory Agency (tasked with locating geologically safe sights for accumulating nuclear waste).

Richard had contacted Mr. Nicks about the photos in almost a double-blind situation. He told Ron to look at the pictures and tell me what you see. “And, Ron, what did you say to me?”

Ron said: “After only a few moments of looking at that photo I called Richard back up and said, ‘Richard, on the right peak, or the flat-topped peak, if you look right at the middle of that, face on, there’s a pattern in there that’s very clear. It’s almost oval and it looks like three terraces with a ramp up the middle...’

“My first words to ‘Richard were, Richard, this feature on the right, this peak on the right, looks like a stepped pyramid...’ The words I used were ‘Pyramid of the Sun’. It looks like a Mexican pyramid...”

Geologist Ron Nicks continued for an hour with an extremely interesting discussion of very plausible “hows” and “whys” to explain what we can see in the photos. He explained that a highly-possible reason why some of the rocks we can see are not rounded, as one might expect from rocks in a floodplain, is because they could be part of what was knocked off of the right peak (or pyramid) toward the end of the flood cycle, as the depth of deposited material reached the level where Pathfinder landed. This could mean that the flat or squared rocks are part of the pyramid debris. We might ask if Scooby-doo is a rock that was once part of a pyramid?

Ron Nicks, whose perception of this matter showed a high level of intelligence and understanding and whose comments were very specific and measured, summed up his impressions by saying, “I see something that is difficult for me to explain with only natural phenomenon. That doesn’t mean that it can’t be explained. I’m saying I can’t explain it... If this is natural... I don’t see terrestrial equivalents of that natural phenomenon...” He believes there is debris that can be seen that looks nothing like natural rocks, and he speculated that these may be material from the right peak (or pyramid).

Richard concluded by saying all of this explains why we landed where we landed. He believes that Dr. Peter Smith is aware of exactly what is going on and that he is part of the cover-up.

Richard believes that if enough pressure can be brought to bear on N.A.S.A. by the American public, then they may be forced to send the rover to investigate these twin peaks close-up. He implored all of Art’s listeners to fax N.A.S.A. Administrator Dan Goldin and demand that we investigate all of this, publicly. Dan Goldin’s fax number is 202-358-2810. Be cordial, but be firm.

Richard then said that we also need to put the pressure on the media. He said you should also send a copy of the fax you send to Dan Goldin, to John Holloman at C.N.N. in Atlanta. His fax number is 404-681-3578. And also send a copy of your fax to Ted Koppel at ABC news. His fax number is 202-222-7976.

Have we really landed on the planet Mars, or have we landed on the planet Saskatchewan? We shall investigate until we know the truth. In any event, it would appear that we need to continue to pressure those in positions of power until they at last do what they are supposed to do, that is, represent We The People and our best interests. Send those faxes.

THE SKILL OF LYING THE ART OF DECEIT

Deeper Insights Into The Illuminati Formula
by Fritz Springmeier

Editor's note: We would like to thank Fritz Springmeier for sharing a chapter from his new book Deeper Insights Into The Illuminati Formula. See Page 20 for ordering information.

CHAPTER 5 SCIENCE NO. 5

THE SKILL OF LYING THE ART OF DECEIT

The Illuminati have refined the art of deception far beyond what the common man has imagined. The very life and liberty of humanity requires the unmasking of their deceptions. That is what this book is about. Honesty is a necessary ingredient for any society to function successfully. Deception has become a national pastime, starting with our business and political leaders and cascading down to the grass roots. The deceptions of the Illuminati's mind-control [program] may be hidden, but in their wake they are leaving tidal waves of distrust that are destroying America.

While the CIA pretends to have our nation's best interest at heart, anyone who has seriously studied the consequences of deception on a society will tell you that deception will seriously damage any society until it collapses. Lies seriously damage a community, because trust and honesty are essential to communication and productivity.

Trust in some form is a foundation upon which humans build relationships. When trust is shattered human institutions collapse. If a person distrusts the words of another person, he will have difficulty also trusting that the person will treat him fairly, have his best interests at heart, and refrain from harming him. With such fears, an atmosphere of death is created that will eventually work to destroy or wear down the cooperation that people need. The millions of victims of total mind control are stripped of all trust, and they quietly spread their fears and distrust on a subconscious level throughout society.

One problem about lies is that one lie will call for another and then another. It's hard to keep lies single. They seem to want to breed more of their kind to protect themselves. Soon the liar becomes a victim of his own lies, trapped in a dishonest web that demands lots of energy to protect his false fronts. This is the sad fate that the intelligence agencies have painted themselves into. They must maintain groups that oversee their double-agents' lies to insure that the lies that they have disseminated don't contradict themselves. Finally, they have put out so much disinformation, they lose track of reality themselves. Far from saving this nation, the intelligence agencies have spread the cancer of deception into all walks of life, so that this cancer is contaminating and killing anything of value in the United States. The soon-to-come death of this nation's sovereignty, as well as the destruction of this nation's morals are the results of this cancer.

People who have attended high-level Illuminati meetings were instructed in how the Illuminati plan to bring in the NWO AntiChrist reign by making everything appear as if it has happened naturally. The Illuminati have decided to camouflage their actions with the creation of normalcy to avert any suspicions. An example of something which appears to have happened naturally is the O.J. Simpson case, which was planned based on previous murder scenarios which had been successfully covered up. O.J. Simpson was a CIA mind-controlled slave, and the entire Simpson case was concocted as an elaborate effort to cause racial tensions. The Mishpucka, the CIA, the Mob and the Illuminati have all had their dirty hands involved in the entire affair. The entire affair reeks of manipulation and planning. It is not the goal of this paragraph to go into the case, but just to drop a couple details. Joey Ippolito, Jr. is both CIA and Mob. Ippolito at one time lived in Hallandale, FL, a mob housing subdivision which was protected by a police force run by the Mob. He has helped run drugs and wet ops for "the Combination" which interconnects with the Illuminati. O.J. Simpson's friend Cowlings worked for Joey Ippolito, as well as O.J. Simpson. Simpson distributed cocaine for Joey Ippolito and the Combination. Simpson's lawyer also is tied to the Illuminati, the CIA, and the Mob. One of his lawyers on TV said the trial reeked of government corruption. Nicole Simpson lived next door to Carl Colby (former CIA director Bill Colby's son). Colby's wife and kids have been subjected to mind control. Colby's wife testified in O.J. Simpson's trial, but was addressed as "Miss Boe" rather than by her name. O.J. Simpson's mother worked for a California State Mental Hospital in San Francisco for 30 years. Many State Mental Hospital workers have children who have been programmed. When one of the jurors in Simpson's case, Tracy Hampton, had her mind-control programming go haywire, she began staring for long periods at a blank TV and hearing voices. She had to be dismissed. During the Simpson trial, Judge Ito gave Joe McGinniss the best front-row seat that a journalist could have. Joe McGinniss was the coverup author who wrote a book covering up about the McDonald-Fort Bragg Drug Smuggling Case. The McDonald-Fort Bragg Drug Smuggling Case involved the Illuminati drug smuggling operation within the U.S. military during the Vietnam War. On and on the stink goes.

The manipulation of history by those in power has been well covered over. An example of how mind control and its role in manipulation of events has been covered up by the perpetrators is an article written in the Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA) in the Sept. 11, 1967, Vol. 201, No. 11 issue. The article, which was submitted to the magazine from three CIA doctors (Mark, Sweet, and Ervin), claims that riots are caused by brain disease. While the article is correct in the subpoint that only a small percentage of underprivileged urban dwellers participate in many of the riots, the article's thesis is obviously a slide to prevent people from catching on that the small number of deviants who create riots might be under mind control or might have some other motivation beyond simply being brain-diseased.

Any deception, whether it is an exaggeration or an understatement of the NWO's capabilities is considered a useful deception for the Illuminati's double-agents to spread. The German battleship Bismarck was sunk due to a little lie sent to Germany by a double-agent which underestimated the range of British radar. The Germans, thinking they were out of British radar range, made some bad decisions that cost them the colossal battleship.

DECEPTION DIMINISHES POWER

Knowledge is power, and lies diminish the knowledge of deceived dupes and therefore diminishes the power of the deceived.

Deception obscures the alternatives that people have. It also clouds up various objectives people would work toward. Some people give up certain objectives due to their mis-perceptions that the objective is undesirable or unattainable.

PROGRAMMING DECEPTIONS

In the programming, colors and directions are used. Be prepared to find out that sometime programmers use their creative imaginations such as using the color “octarine”, or the direction “TURNWISE” or perhaps “WIDDERSHINS”.

During the most fundamental programming which is done via LSD trips in a sensory deprivation tank to lay in the foundations of the Alpha, Beta, Delta, Omega and Theta programs, each programming memory will be given a code. Where one popular programming deception takes place is that the programmer knows ahead of time how to sequence his memory codes so that for instance, the fifth memory is coded as the first trip, and strenuous methods are used to cover up the memories of the first four trips. The victim’s mind will be told to forget the first four trips. The memory codes are deceptively designed to fool the deprogrammer and the victim alike. Part of the reason the programmer does this, is that they know that IF a therapist should stumble onto these first memories, the backup programming to protect these memories is so severe that the therapist will shatter the victim’s mind. Backup programs such as Atom bombs and vegetable programming are locked into place to protect the fundamental programs.

BE WISE AS SERPENTS

The Holy Spirit moved an apostle to write, “We are not ignorant of Satan’s devices. Christ warned his disciples to ‘be wise as serpents and harmless as doves.’” The Israelites sent out spies before entering the promised land. Within the text of The Art of War by Sun-Tzu (a book studied today by men in intelligence), he discusses “hidden provocation agents” in Book 13. Sun-Tzu was born in 534 B.C. and lived most likely until after the year 453 B. C.

In 500 B.C., some men were farmers and some were agent provocateurs. Today both occupations still exist. The modern American farmer is vastly superior to the ancient farmer of 500 B.C., so how does the modern agent provocateur compare? He is vastly superior also. It appears the Word of God is accurate, for it warns that God’s people will be destroyed for lack of knowledge.

The difficulty in obtaining honest information in today’s Big Brother world is aptly described by an intelligence asset over the Internet, “If you are lucky and work hard, you will find some of the truth. If you are lucky and work REALLY hard, you might find the WHOLE truth...as someone wants you to know it. If you are PHENOMENALLY lucky and really work your tail off, you might even go on to find the REAL truth. But no outsiders...and in fact, very few insiders ever...EVER...learn the WHOLE REAL truth.”

This book and our two previous books on mind control are the result of extremely hard work and numerous miracles of God, and what non-Christians would call lots of “luck”. The story behind the books is amazing. This book's two authors have had to "swim upstream" for years in search for the real truth.

One thing is very clear to this author: during the last seven years of exposing the NWO, almost every person who is believed to be a leader against the NWO has tried to impede the work this author has been doing. People need to be aware that the New World Order created their own "opposition" long before some of us began sincerely trying to expose it. This author's informed opinion is that essentially all (about 98%) of the people leading the opposition to the NWO are double agents, and no less than 50% of the therapists are double agents. In this state, this author knows as a fact that 50% of the licensed therapists working with programmed DID (MPD) patients are programmed DID slaves themselves. Recently, one of the therapists in this area, who the False Memory "Spin"-drome and the Illuminati took down, was a therapist who had also been on a local TV talk show revealing that she was a multiple and an SRA victim.

DISINFORMATION TO MAKE THEIR DOUBLE-AGENTS LOOK GOOD

"A Force" was MI-6's group that carried out deception. They would have their double agents pass out CHICKEN FEED (which is what they call classified information that can be thrown out to the public) to establish their double agents' credentials (BONA FIDES) as agents against the British. Today, there are numerous "anti-NWO" people who are actually double agents. They are distributing chicken feed to make people think they are legitimate. By the way, it is interesting to note, for those who realize how important carousels are to programming, that MI-6 (HQ in Vauxhall Cross, Eng., with a training center at Ft. Monckton, near Gosport, So. Eng.) is nicknamed (actually its cryptonym) "Carousel" by its daughter organization Mossad (officially aka Central Intelligence Collection Agency).

An example of a double agent who is popular among Christians is an Illuminati witch named Gretchen Passantino, who tours around to Christian conferences belittling the idea of mind control.

Dr. Loreda Fox reports in The Spiritual and Clinical Dimensions of MPD that 74% of women abused by SRA come from "Christian homes". The Christian churches are heavily infiltrated.

SLEEPER AGENTS

In the Vol. 2 book, a number of references were made to sleeper agents. The idea of placing someone somewhere in society and letting them lead a normal life for years without ever being used is designed to provide a legitimate smokescreen about what they are all about. Mind-controlled slaves make excellent sleepers. The concept of making sleeper agents is not a secret. The CIA has publicly admitted that they tried to discover long-range sleeper agents in the Los Niños children of Republican Spain who were the descendants of communist Spaniards who returned to Spain in the 1950s. They also have admitted to having tried to weed out long range sleepers in the Trebizond Greeks who lived near the USSR in Turkey and returned in the 1950s to Greece. As the CIA and KGB mirror-imaged each other in their manufactured Hegelian Dialectic mock dual (which was very real for the "little" person) you can well imagine that the CIA sent sleeper agents against the KGB.

NAMES OF TYPES OF DISINFORMATION AGENTS

The intelligence agencies have their own lingo for the types of disinformation agents they send against everyone else. So far, we have named only double and sleeper agents. Here are some more of their [types of] disinformation agents:

AGENT OF INFLUENCE—These agents can be unwitting, under mind control, or ideologically motivated to use their positions of influence to sway the minds of others. Examples of Agents of Influence are anchor men on TV, journalists, labor leaders, TV commentators, academics quoted by the media, and some politicians CONFUSION AGENT—An agent whose job is to produce confusion by disseminating confounding information.

CONTRACT AGENT—These are the rogue agents, such as the Mob, who the CIA get to do particular jobs on contract. Their connections can be denied.

DEEP COVER AGENT—A sleeper agent (often a programmed multiple or person with mind-control programming) who has been a long-term sleeper agent.

DISINFORMATION AGENT—This is a highly-placed agent who passes disinformation to other governments.

NOTIONAL AGENT—A fictitious non-existent “agent” which is created with a real-looking identity to mislead.

PROVOCATION AGENT—An agent sent in to provoke and destabilize the target group to do foolish things.

SPOON-FEEDER AGENT—Someone who dribbles out legitimate information; this is often done to build up a person’s credentials (bona fides). Lots of the people who are pretending to expose the NWO are spoon-feeder agents who provide a little new information, tons of already-known secrets, and sprinkle in a measure of disinformation for added fun. Generally spoon-feeders increase their percentage of disinformation once they gain respectability. There are very few people really exposing anything of consequence about the NWO. This author has endured the loss of several of the really legitimate whistleblowers who were friends [by their] being assassinated since he began writing exposés.

What this means is that agents for groups that do mind control may: have been sleepers for many years and look very legitimately innocent; they may give good correct information to our side; they may say all the right things and try to get us motivated to do more than we would want; they may talk about other friends who are giving them information, who do not even exist. It takes discernment to spot people who are not on our side. Unfortunately, such discernment seems to be fundamentally lacking within the public at large. For instance, I have seen people choose obvious NWO agents over this author as a source of “information” (which is in reality disinformation). Most people have bought so much disinformation during their lifetime, perhaps it’s unrealistic to expect them to purge out all the junk they’ve accepted. Just as people in the world need to toss out their worldly thinking, people in the church need to toss out all the indoctrination they’ve gotten from the numerous kinds of harlot churches. At the moment, the system is set up so that the perpetrators of the mind control are in control of the credentialing process, so that they can provide their stooges and agents with the best credentials. As the reader can see, the roots of power behind the mind control go deep.

TRICKING SUSPECTS

One trick (or variations of it) that has been used with suspects is to arrest them, place the suspect in a situation where the police are in two groups—one group looks like police, the other group looks like the group the suspect has come from. After the suspect arrives, the group pretending to be arrested group members overpowers the police contingent and escapes to another setting where another police group, pretending to be even more of the suspect's group, ask him who he is and to explain his credentials. Letting his guard down, the original suspect explains what he is all about, thereby giving them the information they needed in the first place. Variations of this script can be run. English intelligence calls this basic script CACKLEBLADDER because chicken blood is used on the police actors that are overpowered to make them look injured.

NAMES OF DECEPTION TRICKS

FOUR FACES refers to pretexts used by agents to get interviews.

DANGLE is the craft word for luring a victim into a provocation. A dangle operation would be an operation to provoke a group or individual into a particular action. This was done with Elohim City and many other groups that the NWO is trying to set up as patsies.

STANDARD DECEPTION DEVICES

Agents use BLEEP-BOXES to tap telephones and in other instances to make free-of-cost telephone calls. A CABMAN is a device to remotely activate a telephone with a radio beam. It can be used without entering the building where the telephone is located.

MASKS

The use of masks in the occult world is ancient. For centuries, the gypsies have used them for their hypnotic powers. Special healing masks for their people are kept secret and never shown to the public. Masks have a shock value and fascination value. Gypsy and other occult groups have special rituals to create the masks, including using hair clippings from the person who will wear the mask. Gypsy healing masks are destroyed after the patient gets well. Illuminati programming masks may or may not be destroyed after their use. The Illuminati's mask-making abilities (according to deprogrammed victims of their mind control) are very high quality. Sometimes the programmers simply wear Halloween cartoon-character masks that anyone can obtain, to fulfill their role in the programming script that they are involved in during the time.

COVERS

Some beginners who have just started into studying the New World Order question why the Illuminati would use legitimate religious covers. Why would the Illuminati want to create a slave who is an evangelist? Why? Because those new converts will go to some establishment church where other programmed multiples in leadership positions will demand obedience (and then support those demands by quoting scriptures that make them seem like they are God's authority over that new convert). Because the evangelist or missionary and the bishop or pastor are controlled puppets, the convert will never get the full truth, just enough truth to keep him working hard for their organization. Even though the convert "got God in my life", the Illuminati never lose control over him.

The Christians have as much vested interest in preventing the exposure of the Illuminati programmed multiples who are big name Christian ministers running Christendom, as the Illuminati has. Imagine what would happen if the world found out that most of Christianity was run by the human-sacrificing, slave-making Illuminati? This is one of the sad effects of the infiltration.

Perhaps the subject of covers can be explained from another angle. The reader knows that the elite like monopolies. They play monopoly for real—for us it's only a board game! To establish a monopoly, you find a good product that everyone wants or needs, and then you eliminate all the competition by either destroying them, or owning the competition yourself. In the U.S., the Illuminati can't have a one-religion monopoly. In Russia, they had communism with Marx, and Lenin as the Father-God and God-the-son figure. Communism had a monopoly on worship. In the U. S. they have established a monopoly by controlling all the various religious groups. (This author wrote an 800-page, heavily documented book, Be Wise As Serpents, to show the details of how this is done.) It's not a matter of what they teach, it's a matter of control, so that the Elite have a monopoly. And when you, as a mover and shaker in the world, control all these various religions via money, blackmail, and programmed multiples under your leadership, etc.—which religion would you pick to emphasize the most? You will pick the one that sells the best, i.e., the best product.

And which brand of Christianity will sell the best? The televised charismatic brand will sell the best.

Covers that slaves use to explain what they do in life are almost always "legitimate". A missionary, a military officer, a salesperson, etc., will usually actually do their cover job most of the time. Their cover is their occupation, their service as a mind-controlled slave is almost an unwitting avocation.

Organizations are used as covers. The Illuminati use military, social, intelligence, education, banking and other organizations as covers. (See my Be Wise As Serpents book for many of these.) Moriah's front organizations, such as the CIAs, in turn use other organizations. Here is just a sampling of CIA fronts, to show the variety of fronts used:

- Asia Foundation was an academic organization created by the CIA.
- Castle Bank & Trust co. has been a bank in the Caribbean that is a CIA front.
- Forum World Features has been a front created for CIA propaganda purposes and based in London, UK.
- Geschicter Foundation for Medical Research (as well as the Josiah Macy Foundation) was used as an intelligence front to launder money used for mind control.

· Air-Sea Forwarders, Inc. was the legal corporation name of a CIA front in North Hollywood, CA. The company was involved in moving freight. In the last few years, this corporation sued E-Systems, the company which builds the CIA's and the NWO's electronic systems such as their communications satellites. In court, the company proved that it was a CIA front, in spite of CIA denials. As this chapter provides information about some of the Illuminati/intelligence connections to Hollywood, bear in mind that this CIA front was proven in court to be a CIA front in Hollywood. A feat that rarely occurs.

ONE OF THE GREATEST DECEPTIONS OF ALL TIME: DISNEY

INTRODUCTION

For years, I have heard many Americans say that something is terribly wrong in this country and that things are “going to pot”, and yet Americans can't put their finger on what exactly is wrong.

When I first began to receive reports from victims of Illuminati mind control about Disney's involvement in their mind control, I kept an open ear, but I wanted some tangible proof. After investigating for myself, there is now no doubt in my mind that Disney (the man, the movies, and the entertainment parks) has been a major contributor to the demise of America, while maintaining a very well constructed front of wholesomeness. In this chapter, you will learn why Disney is one of the best deceptions of the Illuminati.

This author has read a good portion of what is available to the public concerning Disney. This exposé is undoubtedly the deepest on Disney that has ever been done. Perhaps part of my motivation is that I've tired of Christians talking and acting like Disney stands for sainthood. Christians, who should have known better, are some of the ones who have swallowed “hook, line and sinker” the enormous deception that entails Disney. They feed their children a steady diet of occultism and witchcraft because they have been programmed to think of Disney as wholesomeness and everything that is good about America.

PERSPECTIVE

BECOMING AWARE OF THE POWER OF THE MIND

From THE EARTH CHANGES REPORT, Vol. 47 August 1995, Tel. 1-603-363-4916, [quoting:]

Nothing happens in the world of matter without it first being conceived in the world of thought—the mind. First comes the idea and then what follows is a series of steps that take the concept through to completion. An architect, for instance, has the idea of a building first in her mind. That may be followed by some informal sketches of it until the idea is more firmly gelled. At that time a rendering may be created, followed by a model. At each step of the way, the idea becomes more and more focused and refined until, finally, the actual building is constructed. Artists, writers, entrepreneurs, builders, etc., all begin their endeavors with a thought. These people create in full consciousness, totally aware of what they are doing. They direct the progress from mind to fruition at every step of the way until the project is complete. Great inventions, important discoveries, space travel, and ideals such as freedom and justice have all been accomplished through a similar process. Nothing can be created without it first happening in the mind. Yet, that which is created through unaware thought is far more prevalent and far more dangerous than anything created through awareness. We can call it creation by default because it happens when our thoughts are focused on that which we do not want. And the results of those thoughts are usually the very things that we don't want to happen.

Fortunately our thoughts of dissatisfaction are more often than not random and unfocused, so they usually dissolve before they can gain enough strength to do us harm—except for the time wasted thinking about them. But, if these negative thoughts are clear and focused enough, and if there is a strong emotion attached to them, the very thing we want the least may become reality. Without being consciously aware of it, we may be setting the stage for the accomplishment of what we don't want.

The world of mind cannot tell the difference between “want” and “don't want”. It only recognizes energy, particularly focused energy. Scattered, disorganized thoughts become dissipated, eventually dissolving into nothingness. But focused, clear thought, particularly when it has an emotion attached to it, has a power in and of itself—a magnetic resonance. Emotion is a key element in that it gives the focused thought the necessary charge to keep it intact long enough to draw to it what it needs for completion. It acts like a magnet; the stronger the emotion, the greater the charge. Focused thought charged with emotion is what survives in the world of mind. For your thought to survive in the world of mind it must first be clear and focused. Then you must care enough about it to give it the necessary emotional charge to keep it together. It must stay intact long enough to draw what you need to see it to fruition.

We are capable of creating or destroying and it starts with a mere-thought. Knowing how powerful our thoughts can be, it is vital that we learn to use them wisely. It is important that we become aware of what goes on in our minds. How much time do we spend dredging up everything wrong about our lives? How many thoughts of anger, resentment, and even revenge, do we harbor towards people we think wronged us in some way or another? How much time do we spend focusing on the kind of world we would like for ourselves? The first step to changing the way we think is to develop an acute awareness of the kinds of thoughts that move through our minds. If you would like to become more conscious of your thoughts, note each time you find yourself thinking about something you don't like. Note also the times you think about the way you'd like things to be. Keep track of your thoughts in a journal—creative thoughts on one page—destructive thoughts on another. Also note if the thoughts seem more inclined to be random and unfocused, or if they are clear and focused. But do it as an observer—without judgement. Plan on doing this for 21 days before you look at your results. At the end of that time, examine your journal to determine whether or not the thoughts you have recorded conjure up any emotion as you review them. At the end of that time you should be able to determine if more of your time is spent on random, unfocused thought or emotionally-charged focused thought. You should also begin to see a pattern emerge that will tell you whether or not your thoughts are creative or destructive. If your thoughts tend to more in the negative range, you might find that events in your life happen more by default than with purpose. By becoming aware of the way you use your mind, you have just completed the first step to improving or changing your thought pattern and ultimately your life.

THE NEWS DESK

Dr. Al Overholt 8/2/97

SWISS BANK LOSSES GROW AS FOREIGN FUNDS DRY UP

From THE STRATEGY (an Australian newspaper), June 1997, [quoting:]

When, in 1992 it was plain that financial madness was going to overtake the world, the “developed” world chose to ignore it. And now, there it is, particularly in Europe—real estate prices collapsed, 20% currency devaluation, stock market crashes, and now the latest, something not even dreamt possible. There are those who believe it to be a “scam”—it is well known that the Swiss have 50% to 60% of all gold bullion in the world stored in their mountain vaults. But for what it is worth here is the item out of 8-160597 BUSINESS BRIEFS:

SWISS BANK LOSSES...

Swiss banks lost more than 42 billion Swiss francs (about US$30 billion, Aus$40 billion) during 1991-96, according to an official report released in late April by the Swiss Banking Commission. Most of the losses came in Swiss real estate since the mid-1980s speculative bubble burst in 1991. The Commission noted that despite such huge losses, at no time was the Swiss National Bank called upon to bail out a bank.

In separate reports from other European bankers, however, it is reported that in the past three to four months, since the escalation of the call for restitution by Union Bank of Switzerland and other Swiss banks for alleged Nazi gold dealings, that the banks have suffered a dramatic fall in cash inflows from abroad, as concern of possible disclosures in bank secrecy could come as a result of the pressure for disclosures on gold accounts. If these reports are accurate, the Swiss banks could be in a situation similar to the French bank Crédit Lyonnais, which has been given a series of bail-outs to keep it afloat. (End of item).

It was reasoned from other news reports that “it was doubtful that Switzerland would continue to be a haven”. “Business Briefs” is part of a publication of one of the world’s premier private intelligence services, available to the public (sufficiently perceptive of the need for such intelligence in the first place). Most people caught in the [controlled] media web, are having their heads filled with garbage.

The game now is perhaps worse than it ever was. The media instill fears and conflict in people and the end result is “infantile mental paralysis”. It has been achieved gradually and very deliberately.

From the nuclear threat of the 1950s, the Cuban missile crisis in the 1960s, Mutual Assured Destruction & the Oil Crisis Hoaxes of the 1970s, the Cambodian “Killing Fields”. Interest hikes of the 1980s causing massive de-industrialisation and unemployment, Balkan and Gulf Wars, Maastricht Economic Contraction of the 1990s, all producing destabilisation and panic. As Pavlov found with his conditioned dogs, it tends to clear people’s minds of their moral and ethical values. With each of the “critical shocks”, rock & roll, sex, sensational reportage of violence, and drugs was “administered” as a “tranquilliser” and “conditioner” in increasing dosages. An “infantile mentality of callous indifference” has been superimposed in the majority of people’s minds. They have little interest to fight against injustice for others, preferring to immerse themselves in the “virtual reality” provided by the mainstream media. When it happens to themselves they are alone and give in with a “What can I do!” The “viewing public” is so attached to TV, that it is to them what a dummy is to the baby, and in a significant proportion, TV addiction is as strong as drug addiction. And yet without it they would not miss a thing, indeed they would be able to notice a lot more. For instance, that the Model Criminal Code Officers Committee propose to lower the age of consent to the age of 10!

While the media represent a powerful instrument for dangerous forms of mental conditioning, in Germany, France, Belgium, Italy, and Greece, gigantic demonstrations are showing that some of this mental conditioning has failed. It cannot be hidden any longer that there are 20,000,000 unemployed in the West, 21,000,000 in the East plus 20,000,000 dead. Maastricht and IMF conditionalities are being seen as causing needless agony and slaughter. An Italian researcher, Prof Guarini, dean of the Statistics Department of Rome University found that unemployment is more than likely higher by 40%. Presumably increased death rates, caused by economic contraction, have also been “massaged”.

With Swiss banks on a knife edge, and its bank secrecy being eroded, things are indeed very tough. Are the Caymans and Bahamas to be the last outposts of bank secrecy? But with the looming crisis, any transfer to those banks is like a pact with the devil.

Who would have thought that Swiss banks, of ALL banks, could ever be in trouble! Things must be really bad. Maybe the Bank of China under the watchful eye of China’s economics “czar” Zhu Rongji, is the “only safe bank in the world”?

The point is, that with US$100 trillion in worthless speculative paper (derivatives) feeding on the economies and national banks of nations, to sell anything: houses, land, whatever... without writing the contract in gold or silver, exposes the seller to the danger of monetary collapse. Sellers could end up losing their property in a settlement with worthless money, as the value of the currency collapses during the period of settlement. [End quoting]

Here’s an example of how the key Elite are gathering in the valuable properties from their own “lesser” Elite bothers and setting them and all of us “peons” up for the final blow of the New World Order.

We’ve been told many times that the Elite would do in their own “brothers” to become the “King”.

AN IMMIGRATION SCANDAL THREATENS THE REPUBLIC

From THE STRATEGY (an Australian newspaper), June 1997, [quoting:]

Pres. Clinton and V.P. Al Gore are implicated in a counterfeit voter scheme by conferring American citizenship on thousands of immigrants who do not meet the legal qualifications of citizenship.

Of the more than one million new citizens, 71,000 have been found to have some criminal record. Clinton and Gore both deserve impeachment! [End quoting]

It appears, according to what's happening with the Ken Starr investigations, that this will be whitewashed also. Clinton and Gore's time will come—that you can bet on. The question is when.

MUDD DOESN'T THINK MUCH OF REPORTING

From UNKNOWN newspaper clip, ??/97, [quoting:]

Retired TV reporter Roger Mudd thinks television news is in a sorry state.

After receiving a Virginia Press Association award Saturday night in Virginia Beach, Va., Mudd took the podium and denounced network news departments for lowering reporting standards and vying with super-market tabloids for gossip and scandal stories.

“My only solution is to bring back Walter Cronkite and start reporting the news again,” Mudd said.

The state press association's Virginian of the Year award winner also decried what he called a blurring of lines separating government and news reporting, noting the regular appearance of politicians on TV talk shows. [End quoting]

Isn't it interesting what some people say when they retire after they play the system for all it's worth during their lives.

Walter Cronkite was a “good ol' boy” himself, so you couldn't expect him to come back and straighten up anything.

CIA UNVEILS
NEW GHETTO DRUGS

From CONSPIRACY NATION, August 1997, [quoting:]

Langley, VA—After months of eager anticipation within the nation's ghetto communities, the Central Intelligence Agency unveiled its 1998 line of addictive drugs Monday.

“The wait is over,” CIA Director John Deutch said at the festive drug launch, simulcast on giant-screen TVs throughout Watts, Cabrini Green, Newark and other urban areas. “Inner-city Americans now have four exciting new ways to narcotize themselves, with the quality of product and wide distribution they've come to expect from the CIA.”

Reaction to the new drugs was overwhelmingly positive. “They had a tough act to follow after crack,” said New York-area Mafia boss Alfonse DiBiasi, Deutch's close friend and former college roommate. “But this new stuff is just as cheap and every bit as addictive. We're all very excited.”

President Clinton praised the CIA as well. “This is a win-win situation for all Americans,” he said. “Inner-city Americans will receive the powerful drugs they love and the CIA will raise the funds they can’t get from Congress to get their Jonestown mind-control experiment up and running again.”

The new drugs are supported by months of CIA testing to ensure maximum potency and addictiveness. Focus groups, consisting primarily of homeless men and street orphans culled from ghettos around the country were housed in an underground research facility beneath CIA headquarters in Langley, VA. Only after six months of exhaustive experimentation on members of this target demograph, who sampled hundreds of drugs, were the final decisions made.

“Everybody loves me because I am so beautiful. Anything is possible. I am going to live a very long and happy life,” said Oakland, CA, native Charles Simmons, who spent 10 weeks testing Blue Glass, the CIA’s new smokeable euphoric drug. Simmons then leapt out a window to his death.

“I think I drugs these are very feel good right,” said Dwayne Woodson of Bronx, NY, another CIA test participant. “Pork chops three for $2.99.”

CIA officials said that testing is necessary in order to avoid releasing potentially dangerous substances into the ghettos. “One initially promising drug was later discontinued due to undesirable side effects, such as increased intelligence and feelings of love for others,” said Dr. Harold Vandermeer, head of the CIA’s narcotics development team.

Initial product rollout began this week in the ghetto neighborhoods of Los Angeles, Detroit and New Orleans, with all residents receiving a special drug-sampler pack in the mail, including a full-color, English-Spanish promotional pamphlet and instructional videotape. If the market response is as favorable as the CIA expects, the drugs should be available in every ghetto in the nation as soon as August 1.

“I thought I’d never say this,” Deutch said, “but put down that crack pipe, ghetto-dwellers: You’re going to love these new drugs.”

Deutch went on to state that none of the above events “ever happened” and categorically denied any CIA connection with the new drugs.

(From The Onion, a satirical publication on Internet.) [End quoting]

It’s a sad, sad state of affairs when we realize that most of the basics of this article are probably true.

CFR AND “CONSENSUS”

From THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY OBSERVER, 6/18/97, [quoting:]

Speaking during a panel discussion in the March 16th edition of ABC This Week, former presidential adviser George Stephanopoulos (CFR) pointed out that the Clinton Administration’s pliancy to Chinese concerns had nothing to do with Chinese campaign contributions; rather it reflected the influence of the “Council on Foreign Relations, Lehman Brothers, [and] Goldman Sachs”—in other words, the American

Establishment, rather than the Chinese politburo. [End quoting]

Doesn't it seem logical that all the above are in this pot together??

FREAKISH HAPPENINGS BEING REPORTED

Excerpted from the ART BELL radio program—during an interview with Native American Robert Ghostwolf, 7/30/97, [quoting:]

* Among the freakish happenings, being observed in the U.S., that were reported last night on the Art Bell program are:

* Many dead fish with open sores are being seen off the coast of the Carolinas, with the report that this is spreading at a fast rate up and down the Eastern Seacoast.

* Many frogs with many legs—as high as 11—have been reported.

* Leaves are turning yellow in July, in parts of Northern California.

* Birds are flying south in July instead of the fall season in parts of the country.

* In Arizona, jackrabbits have been seen with 3 & 4 ears.

* Tremendous fluctuations in the magnetic fields in the U.S. are disrupting airplane flight patterns, and many other situations where a steady magnetic field is critical.

Other interesting tidbits reported were:

* Nuclear waste is being dumped into the water supplies. [Still think the Elite don't have a depopulation plan for the U.S.??]

* The molding of powdered metals in outer space—in zero gravity—allows the perfect alignment of the molecules and gives the metals self-lubricating qualities, which makes them much more durable when used as machine parts.[End quoting]

This also allows the production of metals similar to the tough, very thin metals found at the scene of crashed flying saucers, according to this report.

SUSAN McDOUGAL BEING TORTURED BY STARR

Excerpted from THE NEW FEDERALIST, ?/?/97, [quoting:]

The present “norm” for McDougal is isolation 20 hours a day in solitary confinement—a treatment that convicted murderers would rarely experience....Susan's life is one of shackles, strip searches, difficulty communicating with lawyers to help them help her, the denial of basic penal amenities available to other prisoners (including denial of a Bible and the right to attend religious services), and being subject to constant irrational special treatment, special deprivations and indignities, including inter alia:

- * being moved to and from court in shackles inside a cage in the middle of a bus that includes male prisoners who expose their genitalia and hurl unspeakable obscenities at her;

- * every night she is subjected to what are euphemistically called "visuals", where a guard shines a flashlight into her face every twenty minutes;

- * being chained to a toilet for hours on end;

- * witnessing the horrible sounds of the gang rape of young male prisoners;

- * deprivation of potable water and palatable food;

- * being left alone with angry, crazy and highly contagious prisoners, one of whom attempted to stab McDougal with a pencil....

THE DEVIL INCARNATE

Susan McDougal believes Kenneth Starr is the devil incarnate and his staff are mean-spirited, evil people, who have no interest in the truth but only in getting the President and First lady. To Susan McDougal, assisting Mr. Starr and his minions would be to do the devil's work. Susan McDougal will not do the "devil's bidding". [End quoting]

Maybe Susan figures no matter which way she plays this game she's in deep trouble. Neither side is going to play their game like mister nice guy.

She made her bed and I venture to say she's doing some serious thinking about ever repeating playing with the Elite again. Play with them and sooner or later they'll burn you good.

P.S. Are the Elite reading my mind—or tapping my computer?? This article was entered into my computer on 7/28/97—this morning, 7/31, I heard the news on the radio that Susan was being moved to another prison. She is being given some choice as to where she will go.

"WHO IS A JEW" QUESTION AGAIN VEXES NETANYAHU

From THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY OBSERVER, 6/18/97, [quoting:]

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu turned his attention to a potentially disastrous confrontation with American Jews who are furious at a new [Israeli] bill restricting conversions.

The latest who-is-a-Jew controversy threatens to tear apart Israel's relations with its most important supporters abroad. It has become as severe a crisis for Mr. Netanyahu as his diplomatic problems with the Palestinians.

Those who are converted by Reform and Conservative rabbis, who represent the overwhelming majority of American Jews, would not be given Jewish identity cards. In a country where Orthodox rabbis control personal law, such converts already face immense troubles marrying Jews in Israel or even being buried in a Jewish cemetery.

Sunday he met leaders of the Reform and Conservative movements who arrived in Jerusalem warning him of a huge rift opening between Israel and the diaspora if the conversion bill is passed.

Hours earlier, Israel's Supreme Court turned down a petition to prosecute Mr. Netanyahu over his rule in the failed appointment of a new attorney general earlier this year but declined to describe its action as complete exoneration.

Israeli officials in Washington have been sending home anguished messages describing how wealthy Jews are cutting off the flow of donations to Israel in anger. Even AIPAC, the powerful pro-Israeli lobby, is being starved of funds. [End quoting]

Another indication of things heating up in the Middle East??

PLEADING FOR A REDIAL

Excerpted from THE WASHINGTON POST, 7/28/97, [quoting:]

WIRELESS TELEPHONE FIRMS ARE TELLING THE F.C.C. THEY BID SOME WRONG NUMBERS.

Suppose you got a letter from Christie's auction house inviting you to bid on a Van Gogh painting. To encourage broader ownership of rare art, the super-wealthy would be barred from the bidding. And to sweeten the deal, Christie's would let winners pay by installment at low interest rates.

You go to New York and bid, but prices are sky-high and you go home empty-handed. Months later you learn the winning bidder can't pay what he promised and wants the auctioneer to accept 25 cents on the dollar.

Christie's would never run an auction this way, people there say, nor would it entertain such pleas from the winning bidders. But, strange as it seems, the scenario sums up what's facing the Federal Communications Commission, the government's biggest auction house.

Dozens of entrepreneurial companies that one year ago collectively bid $10.2 billion for licenses to provide wireless telephone services, and won, now are seeking a government bailout in the form of delayed payments or forgiveness of part of the debt.

Many of the companies say they face bankruptcy because the market for digital pocket phones is too glutted with competitors and banks won't lend them the money to pay for their licenses or build their networks.

The outcome also will have major budgetary impact because the government has been counting on the money to reduce the federal deficit. Any shortfall to the U.S. Treasury will have to be made up from somewhere else.

And lawmakers already are ignoring signs of a flooded market for communications licenses by formally projecting in budget documents that future auctions will raise another $20 billion over the next five years. "This speaks volumes about how we shouldn't look at spectrum auctions as a bottomless piggy bank," says Republican Rep. W.J. "Billy" Tauzin of Louisiana, chairman of the House Commerce telecommunications subcommittee.

Critics say the F.C.C. shouldn't violate the golden rule of auctions: After the auctioneer shouts "sold!" and bangs down the gavel, the winner must pay up. Any decision to give some relief would permanently damage what generally has been a successful auction program at the F.C.C., they say.

"A bailout is absolutely the wrong thing to do," says Daniel Akerson, Chief Executive of wireless carrier Nextel Communications Inc. in McLean, Va. "The whole concept of auctioning licenses would go down the toilet. Anybody that bids from now on would say [after they win], I'm not paying that much. Why should I pay top dollar?"

For now, the F.C.C. isn't saying which direction it's headed. "Our guiding principle is that we want these people out there in the market as soon as possible, because competition is good for the consumer," says a spokesman for F.C.C. Chairman Reed Hundt.

THE TALE BEGINS IN 1994, When the F.C.C. decided to put on the block 493 licenses to provide new digital pocket telephone services.

This auction was special: It was supposed to carry out Congress's mandate to give entrepreneurs with few resources a chance to compete against the telecom giants in providing cellular phone service. Most bidders qualified for 25 percent discounts off their winning bids and also were promised six years of interest-only payments at low rates before paying off the principal on their debt.

After numerous delays, the auctions finally got underway in December 1995. Five months and 184 rounds of vigorous bidding later, the auction closed at prices far beyond what most analysts said the licenses were worth.

And though the winners technically qualified as small businesses, the top five were flush with money commitments from such wealthy backers as Sony Corp. and East Asian banks. These five accounted for 80 percent of the $10.2 billion pledged.

The winners bid an average of $40 per potential customer for their licenses—several times more than the $10 to $15 paid by established players in the industry in a different auction less than a year earlier.

WHY SO MUCH ? Bidders say being able to pay in installments encouraged them to raise their bids 20 percent to 40 percent. They also were encouraged by the excellent stock performance, at the time, of Omnipoint Corp. of Arlington, Va., one of the few small wireless service providers whose shares were traded publicly.

The bidders and their bankers also widely believed the value of radio spectrum would only rise in the future.

But they were wrong. Between May 1996 and May 1997, the four publicly traded small wireless stocks, including Omnipoint, lost 71 percent of their value. All of a sudden, friendly bankers turned cold, telling the license holders they had paid too much. Equipment makers also backed away from agreements to help finance building networks for the winners.

“At the current levels of debt that they owe the government, the financial markets are closed to them,” says John Bensché, vice president and senior wireless analyst for the Lehman Brothers Inc. securities firm in New York.

The second-highest bidder, Pocket Communications Inc. of Washington, D.C., filed for bankruptcy reorganization in late March. At the same time the F.C.C. lifted its requirement that license holders meet their first interest payments.

Now NextWave Telecom Inc., the biggest license winner by far, having promised to pay $4.2 billion for 63 licenses, is leading the effort to persuade the F.C.C. to restructure the debts owed by the winners.

Since the downturn in the market, NextWave has laid off hundreds of employees, delayed construction of its network and canceled planned debt and equity offerings. “This market is dead in the water,” says NextWave Vice Chairman Janice Obuchowski.

F.C.C. officials say license owners and bankers are hyping the severity of the problem to extract the best deal possible from the agency. “Every licensee, when they smell a restructuring, has an incentive to paint as dire a picture as possible,” one staffer laments. “It’s not as bad as many make it seem.”

There are a range of options before the agency:

- It could do nothing, which probably would lead to massive defaults of licenses and put them up for auction again. The problem is, companies could file for bankruptcy protection, which would tie up licenses in court.
- It could grant a longer period to pay. NextWave proposes eight years of no payments at all, with accrued interest due annually after that until 20 years later, when all the principal would be due. MCI Communications Corp., which hopes to market NextWave service under the MCI brand, is making a similar proposal.
- It could grant “amnesty” to license holders, allowing them to turn in all or portions of their licenses, lose their down payments and face no further default penalties.
- It could allow licenses to be paid for immediately, but at a deep discount. This approach is favored by lenders and many license holders, led by General Wireless Inc., which bid $1.1 billion for its licenses.

Such drastic action, they argue, is the only way the F.C.C. can ensure its goal of helping small businesses into the market.

“I don’t see any alternative in which the government is likely to recover anywhere close to $10 billion,” says Gregg Johnson, president of BIA Capital Corp. of Chantilly, Va.

For the license winners to remain viable in business, he says, their debt “needs to get down to close to 25 cents on the dollar.”

Any of those options are certain to produce time-consuming lawsuits. And while the status quo is “still an option”, an F.C.C. source says, allowing license owners to default and then repossessing and re-auctioning their licenses would delay the arrival of new competitors into the market. [End quoting]

It appears to be another big government scam—with big business—to sucker in the little guys, and then pull the rug out from under them by market manipulations—then buying them out or bankrupting them, and getting the properties at pennies on the dollar!

Franklin Roosevelt said (paraphrasing), “Nothing in politics is by chance or accident—it’s all planned.”

MELODY OF LOVE

When you’re carrying a grudge, everything is out of tune.

From GUIDEPOSTS, P.O. Box 1479, Carmel, NY 10512, Sep. 1996, [quoting:]

I watched the salesman carrying box after box of shoes to a teenager and her mother. At each demand made by her daughter, the mother nodded. At first, a feeling of unease tugged at me. Then a vivid scene raced through my mind, an incident from childhood. I could see my mother telling me there was no money for the shoes I needed. “But there’s enough money to buy new strings for your precious violin,” I responded in anger. She turned her face away.

The memory startled me. I was amazed I still resented my mother for that. I gathered my purse and packages and walked out of the store.

Why this anger? I wondered. Why am I still replaying that incident? I love my mother. I understand why she needed those violin strings. I was 43 years old; I thought I had forgiven her long ago.

Irritated and annoyed, I drove home. In our garage, I sat in the car and prayed, Lord, I do not want this childish grudge to continue. Please take this resentment from me.

Feeling calmer, I collected the mail, and saw a letter from my mother. The first thing I noticed as I opened it was a check for one hundred dollars. And then I read:

“My dear daughter... The other day as I was tuning my violin for a concert, I realized I have had it for 65 years. All those years with my violin! Many a time when I thought I could not handle raising you children, I turned to my violin, praying for strength, patience and understanding. When I was happy I played Elgar or Mozart. When I was sad or lonely, I played the old hymns.

“We were so poor some years that playing my violin at church was the only offering we could give. I remember once when we had no money to buy you shoes. The only pair you had gave you blisters. I still feel bad that you had to wear your brother John’s shoes to church. I know how terrible that must have been.

“I am sending a check and want you to buy yourself the prettiest pair of shoes you can find. And mind, you are not to spend it on the children. You’re my very special daughter. I love you, Mother.”

Through my tears, I smiled at the perfect timing of the letter. Thank you, God, for the special delivery. [End quoting]

How nice it is to have a heavenly Father who looks after us—even to the tiniest aspects of our lives.

CROP CIRCLES FOR CONFIRMATION TO GROUND CREW

Excerpt from A LETTER to E.J. & Doris Ekker, 7/19/97, [quoting:]

Dear Ones,

Just a note to catch you up on a few things going on here in our little valley [in Utah].

We have had some interesting crop circles this last month. Our first crop circle was last August. It was a large circle with something like two spread-out wings on each side. A message from the Bird Tribes?

I have enclosed pictures of the last two. The first one was in a field belonging to Gary Hansen in Smithfield [see below]. This was on the Art Bell show, so maybe some of the “crew” heard it. Their daughter Megan woke up in the night and heard a noise but did not get up and investigate.

THIS IS THE PLACE

This is an aerial view of the crop circle that was discovered Sunday morning in Gary Hansen’s wheat field north of Smithfield along U.S. highway 91. The Hansen family said the hundreds of people stopping to look at the circle since it appeared are taking a toll on their crop forcing them to post the land against trespassing in an attempt to avoid further damage.

Now, E.J., you may remember that I called you, maybe two years ago or so, and told you about my friend's daughter who would be getting some money that might help out in some way. My friend's name is ElMarie, her daughter's name is Melody Hansen—you talked with her on the phone.

Well, the Hansens, Gary & Kathy—Kathy is ElMarie's other daughter and Megan is ElMarie's granddaughter—it was Megan's 15th birthday.

So ElMarie went right up to Smithfield when she found out about the crop circle. She had a new friend with her—David, a psychic and very spiritual person. He took his compass into the circle and the needle went wild. He said that the circle was made with electromagnetic power—that it was made by Angels in a spacecraft and that it was made in honor of Megan's birthday. That they had watched over her since she was born and that she is one of the "Light Workers". WOW!!!

The other crop circle was made a week later, a little way north of the first one. I have told about it on the bottom of the picture.

OH NO, NOT ANOTHER

A second crop circle has appeared this month on the north end of Cache Valley, this one on the east side of U.S. 91 south of Richmond. Like a previous crop circle near Smithfield, the sight has attracted a host of curiosity seekers in addition to researchers of the paranormal.

Doris—I do pray that you are feeling better. I send Love and Blessings to you and all the crew.

Thanks for all you do.

LOVE & LIGHT,

Signed: Margaret [End quoting]

Thank you, Margaret, it's nice to have this first-hand report on crop circles.

God sends us confirmation in many ways if we have "eyes to see and ears to hear".

OH NO, NOT ANOTHER ONE!

[Comment by Margaret:] When I looked at this picture it seemed to be upside down, so I turned it around [upside down].

In this position, I instantly recognized the lower part of the crop circle as the ancient symbol or word for God—OM.

I probably would not have recognized it except that the week before I had been re-reading Phoenix Journal #12 and had read about the OM symbol that I had forgotten about.

I then noticed that the “fork” had 5 points—my number. I had forgotten that years ago I had sent for one of those analysis, Astrology or Numerology papers or some such thing, and it had told me that my lucky number was 5. How come that came to me instantly since I hadn’t even thought about it for years?

So, it came to me that this crop circle was for my confirmation that I am a member of the Ground Crew. Thanks, God/Aton and Angels.

CHAPTER 11

BEWARE THE PITFALLS OF FLYING WITHOUT IDENTIFICATION by “Betsy Ross” May, 1997

Editor’s note: The following article is reprinted from the May 1997 issue of the American’s Bulletin. This informative publication can be contacted at: P.O. Box 3096, Central Point, OR 97502; phone: 541-779-7709; send $3.00 for a sample issue.

In the last two years, everyone flying on a commercial airline has stepped up to an airline’s ticket counter and heard the agent recite a familiar litany. The monologue goes, “Has your bag been unattended; have you accepted gifts from a stranger; can I see your identification, please?” The traveler docilely murmurs answers, and produces a driver’s license or some equivalent.

As a die-hard Constitutionalist, I believe that we still have an absolute, unfettered, God-given right to travel from point A to point B—in the air, as well as on land, without permission from the state. This Nazi procedure of “Your papers, please” has never been appropriate for our country.

I have had occasion to travel a good deal in the last several months, and on those trips I decided to research and test this issue about the necessity for producing identification. I have talked with agents, and their supervisors, of several major airlines in cities across America, and have gradually pieced together a rather complete picture of the real legal situation regarding our right to travel.

As a preliminary maneuver, I performed numerous word searches of the US Codes and regulations posted on the Internet, and determined that there are NO federal regulations, or even statutes, mandating the production of a state-issued ID card to board an airplane. Indeed, I could find no regulations requiring the production of ANY identification as a prerequisite for travel by air.

Next, I tested this finding with several airlines. When asked for identification, I produced only my Sam’s Club card, or my travel agent’s ID card, or a Costco card. These are all picture IDs, but they are privately issued, and do not have my signature on them.

The airline agents just freaked out, and demanded to see some state-issued ID. They routinely told me that “IT WAS FEDERAL LAW!” The government absolutely required me to cough up an “official” ID card, without which the agent couldn’t even THINK of letting me on the plane. I politely explained that it was not possible to produce any other identification, and that maybe it wasn’t really necessary, after all.

I told the agents that my word searches had failed to turn up any federal regulation mandating that type of identification, and then asked them to cure my ignorance and please cite the regulation. Now, at this point, individual airline agents have reacted differently. Some called in their supervisor. Alaska Air employees were consistently the most gracious; Northwest agents were the worst—they were rude, belligerent and hostile brats. But they all folded, every time.

A particularly nasty Northwest employee marched me all the way back to the electronic detection equipment, made me pass through it a second time, and had the guard thoroughly search my carry-on bag. The same agent actually made rude and demeaning remarks to me as we trudged back to the counter—and then she let me on the plane.

Alaska Air was much more reasonable—the agent just issued my seat pass, and commented that some people seem tenaciously to hold the thought that they have the right to travel without producing government ID—to which I responded, “Yes, amazing, isn’t it—and I’m one of them.”

In Seattle, an agent said, AS HE HANDED ME MY TICKET, “You know, if you don’t show me any government-issued ID, I can’t let you board the plane.” I replied, “Yes, I understand. But I didn’t, and you are.” With a smile, he just said, “Have a nice trip.” So I have flown several times using only my meager privately issued picture ID cards.

Every time I used this strategy, I noticed that the agent put an orange sticker on my checked bags, and also on my seat pass on the ticket. Several agents divulged that this is the policy they are supposed to follow when a person does not show government ID. The bags simply wait in the baggage room until the person presents the matching seat pass as he/she actually boards the plane; then the bags go on board.

On my next trip, I decided to push the envelope even further. When the Alaska Air agent made the usual perfunctory request for identification, I put on my best face, smiled sweetly, and said, “Gee, I’m so sorry, but I just don’t have any ID I could show you.”

To my speechless astonishment, the agent just said, “No problem—just fill out this simple form, and present it to the counter at the airplane gate.” I watched as the familiar orange sticker again went on my bag. I repeated the same scenario with Horizon Air on another trip. I have now flown three times without producing any identification whatsoever.

Northwest was actually instrumental in advancing my education about this issue. I was so aggravated by the insolent and hostile treatment that their employee gave me (hopefully, former employee, after the letter I sent to the company president), that I demanded to see a supervisor on the spot.

I then insisted that he produce the relevant federal regulations RIGHT NOW, or face personal liability for authorizing an unreasonable search and seizure, dereliction of duty, fraud, conspiracy, civil rights deprivation and any other legal buzz words I could think of at that moment which would justify a lawsuit against him personally, as well as his employer.

Like everyone else, he couldn’t show me any statute or regulations. He even admitted that there are none. However, he did produce a copy of Security Directive 96-05, which the Federal Aviation Agency issued to all airlines in August of 1996.

Its wording is very instructive; it reads as follows:

“1. IDENTIFY THE PASSENGER.

ALL PASSENGERS WHO APPEAR TO BE 18 YEARS OF AGE WILL PRESENT A GOVERN-MENT-ISSUED PICTURE ID, OR TWO OTHER FORMS OF ID, AT LEAST ONE OF WHICH MUST BE ISSUED BY A GOVERNMENT AUTHORITY.

B. THE AGENT MUST RECONCILE THE NAME ON THE ID AND THE NAME ON THE TICKET—EXCEPT AS NOTED BELOW.

C. IF THE PASSENGER CANNOT PRODUCE IDENTIFICATION, OR IT CANNOT BE RECONCILED TO MATCH THE TICKET, THE PASSENGER BECOMES A “SELECTEE”. CLEAR ALL OF THEIR LUGGAGE AS NOTED IN SECTION 6, BELOW.

[no letter] CLEAR SELECTEE’S CHECKED AND CARRY-ON LUGGAGE, AND SUSPICIOUS ARTICLES DISCOVERED BY THE QUESTIONS ASKED:

A. IF THE SELECTEE IS ON A FLIGHT WITHIN THE 48 CONTINENTAL US STATES, OR TO MEXICO, OR TO CANADA, ITEMS CAN BE CLEARED BY EITHER OF THE FOLLOWING METHODS:

1. EMPTY THE LUGGAGE OR ITEM AND PHYSICALLY SEARCH ITS CONTENTS BY A QUALIFIED SCREENER, [remember the actions taken by Northwest] OR;

2. BAGMATCH—ENSURE THE BAG IS NOT TRANSPORTED ON THE AIRCRAFT IF THE PASSENGER DOES NOT BOARD. [Remember all those orange stickers.]

B. IF THE SELECTEE IS ON AN INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT...CHECKED LUGGAGE, CARRY-ON LUGGAGE, AND SUSPECT ITEMS CAN BE CLEARED ONLY BY THE FOLLOWING METHOD: EMPTY THE LUGGAGE OR ITEM AND PHYSICALLY SEARCH ITS CONTENTS BY QUALIFIED SCREENERS.

This document apparently goes on for ten more pages; the Northwest supervisor gave me only the first page, which contains the information printed above. The next time I refused to produce ID and the agent freaked, I told her, “Just tap up SecDec 96-05 on your computer, and go to Paragraph 1, Section C. Designate me as a ‘selectee’, and proceed accordingly.”

She apparently thought I was an FAA undercover employee, because she said that she was “tired of you federal guys coming around” and literally spying on airline agents, “coercing us into lying to people, and essentially being the ‘bag man’ for an activity which has no legal requirement.” I told her that I could not agree more.

Another airline employee later confirmed that FAA agents often engage in such entrapment activities, to make sure that airline agents parrot the government party line about state-issued ID.

I also hit pay dirt in a discussion with another, much nicer Northwest agent on the East Coast. In a candid conversation, he told me that FAA personnel had held training sessions with all airline agents in the fall of 1996. Agents were informed directly by the FAA that they absolutely could not bar an American citizen from boarding a plane, even if a passenger refused to produce any identification at all!

Apparently, however, the FAA has developed a racist-based “profile” which agents also have to follow. If someone has no ID or ID which is not state-issued, the agent can keep a person off the plane—if the would-be passenger fits the FAA “profile”. If a person has a swarthy appearance, speaks English with an accent, and/or appears to be of Middle Eastern origin, “especially Syrian or Iranian or Iraqi,” the agent can deny boarding, even if the person claims to be a U.S. citizen.

I definitely saw this policy in action in Florida, where most of the population is swarthy and speaks English with an accent. Mid-Eastern or Mexican, I suppose all foreigners look alike to Miami airline personnel. The FAA seems to have forgotten that White folk have at times also participated in terrorist actions.

Yet another agent in the Midwest admitted that airline personnel were deliberately and knowingly coercing people into showing government ID by saying “it’s the law”. According to him, the reality is that the companies are simply tired of people selling their free frequent-flyer tickets.

The airlines wanted to stem this practice by checking everyone’s ID, but knew there would be BIG problems if they instituted this procedure as a private corporate policy. It was ever so much more convenient to simply say that it was federal law, and make the government the scapegoat.

But then I had the misfortune to fly Delta, the airline from hell. Delta supervisors didn’t bother with the usual fabrications and disclaimers. They told me quite candidly that they had a private corporate policy, independent of any governmental decrees, that they would allow no one, repeat NO ONE, to fly on their precious airline without government ID. No one, ever, zero, nada, no way, not possible, don’t even try, NO exceptions, canNOT happen, FORGET IT! To make matters even worse, Delta and I were stuck with each other for seven flights in various cities across America.

But I had flown the first portion of this trip on ever-gracious Alaska Air, without producing any ID whatsoever, so I had been spoiled. Delta was my carrier for the subsequent portions of my long trip. Therefore, this company would leave me stranded mid-excursion if they did not make an exception to their engraved-in-stone, hard-and-fast, absolutely-no-changes policy.

They dug their heels in; I dug mine in even harder. Did they have any comprehension of the anguish, the extraordinary emotional distress, to say nothing of the economic loss, AND THE DAMAGES (both punitive and exemplary) which their unreasonable, discriminatory, arbitrary and capricious policy would cause me? In each city, I gave this speech to the counter agent, and then to the agent’s supervisor, and then to the supervisor’s supervisor, and then to someone they had to call on the phone at the company’s central office in another state.

At every level, I demanded the person’s full name and Social Security number, and threatened to sue them in their personal capacity. “I will own your pension,” was the way I explained the extent of their liability. I told the higher-ups that they were also in violation of their corporate charter, and demanded to know the name and address of their surety bond holder, for the lien I intended to file. I let them know that I would consider myself to be damaged in an amount equal to the assets of their corporation.

There is no end of catchy legal phrases like these, which tend to make corporate managers rethink their “no-exception” policies. In the end, we compromised—I showed them my private ID, along with an organ donor card which I have carried around for 17 years. They saved face by saying that the organ donor card “looked sufficiently official” to pass for a state-issued ID (which of course it isn’t—and they clearly knew that).

Delta agents and I repeated variations of this scenario in all seven cities. It became quite an interesting game of strategy and bluff. Actually, on the return legs, my reputation must have preceded me. Some corporate officer had the foresight to log remarks into Delta’s computer to the effect that agents should just ask for my organ donor card, and let it go at that.

Supervisors consistently told me in no uncertain terms that: (A) if I had flown their airline starting in my home city, instead of mid-trip; and/or (B) had refused to produce any ID at all (even though I didn’t fit the FAA “profile”), then they would have bounced me right off their airplane. In that case, I could just stick it where the Sun doesn’t shine, and go ahead and sue them. That is why I consider this corporation [Delta] to be the airline from hell.

However, even these protracted and aggravating encounters increased my knowledge base. Delta agents told me that passports are welcome as ID, as are Social Security cards, (for those of us who still have such pieces of paper). Some other airlines will accept personal Affidavits of Identity, as long as they are officially notarized. A thumbprint alone just will not do.

Delta agents asked anxiously if I could even just produce a library card, or a car insurance card, and they would accept that. Now, I still have all that stuff, mind you; I just didn’t feel like showing it to them as a prerequisite to getting on their idiot airplane.

I understand that Delta Airline is, or soon will be, facing two large lawsuits because employees twice have actually denied boarding to a passenger who had only private ID to show. One instance involved a man who is prominent speaker for one of the most brash, aggressive, in-your-face guerrilla pro se litigation organizations in America. Talk about a disastrous corporate policy! Anyone want to own an airline, courtesy of a judge’s court order?

The take-home message is to call airlines before securing tickets, to see the extent to which a flier will help or hinder you in exercising your right to travel. Be persistent; talk to a supervisor. Many front-line agents I encountered were without a clue about the real legal situation, but the supervisors ALL knew the contents of Security Directive 96-05, just as they ALL knew that there are no FAA regs mandating government-issued ID.

A TWA supervisor, after repeated questioning, finally said, “No ID? None at all? No problem—come fly with us.” American Airlines personnel, on the other hand, indicated that their airline had a private corporate policy which was just as harsh and unyielding as Delta’s. Pick your carrier carefully, and remember the power of a letter to the CEO explaining why you are, or are not, using the services of a particular airline.

In summary, this identification policy meets the airlines’ private financial goals, and also our government’s goal of ever-increasing social control. Each for their own reasons, the airlines and government are colluding to foist a fraudulent scheme on the people. If no one complains or asserts their rights regarding travel, then another freedom is, “poof“, gone.

Our children watch this happen, and grow up thinking that “the state” has both the right to define our identity by issuing documents saying who we are, and also the right to require us to produce them on demand.

CHAPTER 12

THE NEWS DESK A SPECIAL REPORT

LEADED VERSUS UN-LEADED

by Dr. Al Overholt 8/2/97

From the INTERNET, Tim Walrath <warpath@wtp.net>, 7/28/97, [quoting:]

There was a book written years ago called The Simean Factor. It was about the relapsing of man to his primate status. Though I am personally not descended from primates, I am beginning to believe that most government officials are.

I have been asked by a few members of our club about the situation with unleaded petrol and our cars. With the pre-alloy-headed car the octane is low enough so the only modification needed would be to have hardened valve seats fitted into your iron head and away you go. HOWEVER, and this applies to all pre-unleaded cars, because you have not had a dry catalytic converter fitted to your car, the exhaust gasses from your car will be unbelievably poisonous. Let me explain.

FIRSTLY, LEAD IN PETROL

Lead is there to enable [use of] higher octane petrol, so that we can have more efficient engines. Lead, when burnt in the engine, is subjected to 2000-to-3000 degrees and is actually baked like a house brick, and when the particles are emitted from the exhaust they fall to the ground within ten-to-twelve feet (heavier than air). The baked particles have been tested with various acids, and particularly stomach acid, and they have no dissolving effects on the baked lead. Also, it cannot be absorbed into the lungs, unlike lead dust. Lead dust does not come from car exhausts. I cannot find blood-lead levels earlier than 1933 but the graphs from then till 1985 show a steady decline, yet lead began to be added to petrol in 1925 and peaked in 1970. You would have thought that lead levels in the blood would have risen in proportion but they did not even hiccup on the graph. When Germany reduced lead in their petrol again there was no reaction in the lead level in blood samples taken. Tests done on a little island off the coast of Scotland, without a single combustion engine, show a much higher lead level in the population than in tests taken in the centre of London. Much the same results were found when New Guinea Highlanders were compared to people in Melbourne. The actual decrease in lead levels has been traced to the reduced use of pewter (a lead based alloy), the gradual reduction of lead solder in our cans of processed food and replacement of lead water pipes that contain our drinking water. By the way, Asian-source canned foods still use lead solder in a number of their products and there are still plenty of lead pipes around. Where are the Greenies?

Lead was removed from petrol for one reason, and one reason only, and that was that dry catalytic converters became clogged very quickly with lead particles and stopped working. Unfortunately the Green Movement (which then was badly informed), enthusiastically latched on to the lead removal and, ignoring the real reason for its removal, mounted a false emotional campaign for which we are still suffering as more members join and do not investigate what they are screaming for.

Unleaded petrol is a different kettle-of-fish and is much more dangerous, as I will proceed to prove.

More than half a litre of unleaded petrol [sic]. It is actually a brew of aromatics and, if witches had brewed this cauldron it could not be more evil. Note that I have said not, not might. I will quote from one authority, Dr. Warren, who was the advisor to the Government at the time and warned against unleaded and was ignored.

“In fact this stuff appears to be so dangerous, potentially lethal, that I urge you not to use it in any car not fitted with a catalytic converter, don’t use it in your mower, chainsaw, whipper snipper, or outboard motor, and don’t wash parts in it and if any gets on your skin wash it off immediately. Avoid the fumes when refuelling and don’t allow anyone near the exhaust, particularly when the exhaust system is cold. Remember that catalytic converters don’t work until they reach some 400 degrees.”

Professor Maltoni and Morando Soffritti of the Institute of Oncology at Bologna found that exposure to certain fuel additives such as Benzene, Toluene and Xylene caused cancerous tumours when ingested or inhaled. Benzene, in particular, was named a powerful carcinogen that acts on many tissues and organs. The data leaves no room for doubt that additives are thoroughgoing, highly potent carcinogens.

Roger Perry, a professor of environmental control at London’s Imperial College, has conducted tests that show that unleaded petrol used in cars without a catalytic converters produce a great quantity of volatile organic compounds that can be directly linked to cancer. Recently in Britain the National Society for Clean Air has removed all support for ULP [unleaded petrol].

It now turns out, in information from America, that the average car fitted with antipollution gear (both American and imports) is only clean for approximately a year. After that the gear deteriorates rapidly unless completely renewed. Even a single backfire while a mechanic is tuning the car will destroy the catalytic converter. The average lifespan of a “cat.” is about 50,000 kilometres. After that it needs replacing. A Holden cat. is close to a thousand dollars and a Ford costs about two-hundred-and-fifty dollars.

ULP actually costs more to make, so the cost to the country is greater and it uses more oil and creates more pollution because they have to make the aromatics as well. Now another area of pollution is acid rain. It comes from two different sources. One is sulphur dioxide (FROM COAL POWER STATIONS) and the other is hydrogen sulfide. Hydrogen sulfide is that rotten-egg gas smell you get from (yes you guessed it) ULP vehicles. Even when you cannot smell it, it is still there. They had acid rain in Germany for a long time but since the coming of ULP it has reached the stage of the top half of the famous Black Forest now being a dead brown.

Believe me the authorities will use every trick in the book and last year was a good example when two graphs were overlaid and used as evidence in the Lead Roundtable. The lead-level-in-blood graph that has been in a steady decline since the thirties, unaffected by the increase of lead in petrol, was carefully doctored to show a four-year period from 1976 to 1980. So naturally it shows a decline and when the lead usage in petrol was laid over the graph it looked like the reduction in lead in petrol was the reason for the decline. That is really a dirty use of figures.

I cannot understand the authorities. The relevant Federal Minister last year who pushed for banning lead has children and the members of parliament who voted for it must have children and grandchildren. They themselves are breathing the same air as the rest of us. Don't they care or don't they know? Think of a [fuel] dump attendant (not many of them these days, I know) but all day they are breathing the vapours. What about the petrol-tanker driver who fills the underground tanks? He must cop a hell of a dose. He could make a big compensation claim but it is not worth the pain and suffering. I have just today read that in Sweden they have found unexpectedly high levels of leukaemia in petrol-station workers. And us, we are being told yes, yes, yes you can put it in your pre-1986 car. It won't hurt your car. The lack of lead will cause your [cylinder] bores to wear out quicker and unless you have hardened valve seats your valves will slowly settle into your [cylinder] head. Oh by the way, the valve seats in your beaut modern tin box are not always the hardened variety either. But it does not matter with them because you have a use-by date stamped on your modern tin box. You won't find it. It is carefully hidden, but it is there—about four years after you bought it.

What do we do? First fill your own two-stroke container with lead petrol and add oil. Service stations have been caught using unleaded in their take-a-way two-stroke containers. When you fill your outboard tank, fourstroke mower, or anything else you have that has not got a "cat.", make sure it is with leaded fuel. It is a hell of a lot safer. When filling your car, try to be in such a position that the breeze is blowing away from you, and that includes someone else filling beside you. Don't let any get on your skin. The aromatics will absorb into your body through the pores of your skin. Don't drive a ULP car on short journeys???? Not much choice, really. Pester your Federal MP and Senator with the facts and ask him what happens if he or his children or his grandchildren get cancer and the blame can be laid on something we did not need but was forced on us.

UPDATE ON KELLY

by Cathy And Mark 8/1/97

Notice to all of our CONTACTs,

Jabneel, Kelly's Tennessee placement [institution] that chose to stand by her rather than succumb to State cover-up and intervention, has now been closed down. Despite this untimely event, Kelly remains safe while she awaits physical and mental freedom from her continued Political Prisoner status. She has asked that her CONTACTs be notified of her address change, and requested that her mail will be forwarded directly to her through our family address: Post office box 158352, Nashville, Tennessee 37215. Cards and notes of encouragement are deeply appreciated at this potentially volatile time.

Mark and I need your help in keeping the proverbial spotlight of Truth on Kelly's immediate situation by [your] asking Governor Don Sundquist: "What does National Security have to do with the documented and proven rape and molestation of a child's mind and body?" Letters can be sent to Governor Sundquist's attention via the Tennessee State Capital, Nashville, Tennessee 37243. Thank you!

As many of you have heard on your favorite talk-radio stations, singer/songwriter Carl Klang's latest release includes the song he wrote for Kelly using our family motto "It's not over 'til we win". This upbeat, positive message has provided Kelly a ray of encouragement when she needed it most, and is one that certainly applies to US all. Carl sings the heart and soul of real America, and we applaud him for this timely release. To those of you who have yet to hear Kelly's song, request The News Behind the News audio tape which is available now by sending $12 to Carl Klang, P.O. Box 217 Colton, Oregon 97017.

HILARION: JUST BEING AWARE IS NOT BEING PREPARED!

Editor's note: The following writing is by the Ascended Master known as Hilarion of the Fifth Ray, the Emerald (green) Ray of Healing, among the seven great "Rainbow Masters" communicating at this time to help us through Earth-Shan's planetary transition and rebalancing. See Journal #7 called THE RAINBOW MASTERS for more background on this important group of Teachers, plus earlier writings by them. Refer to the Back Page for Journal ordering information.

8/2/97 MASTER HILARION

Good Morning and be at PEACE! It is I, Master Hilarion, come to briefly commune with you this day so that you who ask with sincerity will have a greater understanding of that which is flowing into your experience.

Yes! I do come within the Light of Aton, the One Light. Thank you for asking. I represent the Emerald Ray of His spectral desire. This is to say that I have chosen to specialize in one aspect or area of Creation's infinite frequency spectrum. Emerald is but a harmonic correlate to a particular area of specialization—an area that you would recognize as "heart energy". I utilize this term so that you, in the third-dimensional experience, can more closely relate to that which is my focus.

The heart of mankind on your planet is in for quite a jolt. There are actually far fewer ones who are truly prepared for the great change, that is in the process of unfolding, than most realize.

We, of the Lighted Hosts of God, are working ever diligently to awaken any and all who will hear. We come through in many forms and in many ways. We work with and through ANY who will allow—whether they be scientist or politician, medicine man or priest. We WILL get the message through! That is indeed God's very promise to mankind.

Our concern at this time is the impact that the upcoming events will have upon many of you who consider yourselves prepared. Being aware of an event is NOT the same as being prepared for an event—though it surely helps and is indeed the first step to true preparation.

Let us consider several points of action and attention that should be a part of your mental and spiritual preparation effort.

First and foremost—BE NOT AFRAID!

Fear will only serve to limit the creative energies that would otherwise naturally flow through you. This is why ones will become "paralyzed with fear". In a technical sense, it is because they have shifted their frequency and vibration down to such a low level that they have disconnected almost completely from the creative flow of Source—or at least choked it down so that it is but a mere trickle of what it could or should be.

This is also why the adversary exploits your fears—because in a state of fear you become less and less connected with who you really are, and thus you are much more easily controlled and manipulated.

The upcoming events will indeed be shocking, for they are designed to cause this fear reaction within you. We will not be more specific as to how, exactly, the events will unfold, for there are always variables that will change as more and more of you awaken and speak out, or take up a pen and voice your awareness of the games that your Elite controllers are playing. For now, just keep in mind that your connection to Source is most worrisome to the Elite. Thus these events are designed to induce fear and get you off balance so that you can be more reliably controlled by them.

Remember this most important point: These dark ones cower in the Light of exposure of any kind and, in response, they will simply change their plans if they think that they cannot get away with any particular scenario.

However, as more doors close on their plans, these ones are also becoming more and more desperate. Thus, like trapped animals, they are becoming more and more aware that they cannot win. Therefore, they will eventually arrange for “all hell to break loose” regardless of the amount of prior exposure. And this is the dangerous situation that warrants our work with you toward becoming truly prepared.

Look back upon that which has been offered prior, through this information source and others, and you will find sufficient clues as to that which these ones are attempting to “pull off”. But do keep in mind that there are as many variations on the main themes as there are avenues of possibilities to keep you guessing.

So, the first important point to keep in mind at this time is to NOT become overwhelmed by fear—and thus become disconnected from Source—else chaos rules the scene.

And speaking of chaos, the second important point is to get centered and balanced—that is, firmly connected with your Higher Consciousness. This is a very powerful position of stability.

This centering and balancing is not necessarily as difficult as it may at first appear. Any of you who are drawn to (and implementing the lessons within) these messages are already connecting and will continue to do so—as long as you can maintain the intent and desire to be centered and balanced.

As the fear-inducing events begin to unfold more and more in the physical awareness of your experience, you may begin to feel a sense of overwhelm as the reality breaks through as to what is happening. This is natural, but it is also within your abilities to control the emotional currents that result.

Let us use for example, again, a possible scenario of horrendous intent. Let us say that New York City has just been bombed by a thermonuclear device.

If this announcement was to come across your news media TODAY, what would you do?

How would you respond?

How would such affect your priorities?

Will you simply sit there in disbelief or denial, in a state of being “frozen with fear”?

Will you check to see that your shelter is in a state of readiness?

Do you even have a shelter?

Will you just give up?

OR—will you stop and take a moment to get centered within the Light, and find peace in recognizing that even an event such as this can serve as an opportunity for growth?

Preparation is done AHEAD OF TIME so that you can more effectively maintain a God-connection-fostering state of “peace of mind” by releasing such considerations or worries as whether or not your family will have food and shelter.

With preparation comes peace of mind, so you can go about your days without carrying around the crippling burden of worrying about whatever does happen, for you have that which will enable you to survive and rebuild if necessary. Recognize that in eliminating this worry drain, you strengthen your God connection and thus intensify your flow of creative solutions.

All preparation begins first with mental desire for safety and well being. Those who are prepared will NOT likely be the ones who are overwhelmed with fear or grief.

While compassion about tragic events is a natural reaction for Lighted Beings, those who are TRULY prepared will likely also experience an emotional response similar to that of exhilaration as they, especially if they are Ground Crew, realize that their life’s challenge is unfolding. These ones will be the ones who will step-in to organize those, who do not just give up, into the working parties that will enable whole communities to survive in the event that ones are cut off from usual food supplies, utilities, and such. These social units can mean the difference between survival or perishment for many as tumultuous events unfold.

Learn to recognize what your heart is telling you, when you read messages such as this, and you will have your first clue as to whether or not you are prepared.

Does this message annoy you?

Is your response: “Yeah! Yeah! I’ve heard it before, and nothing ever happens!”?

Do you find yourself making excuses such as “I don’t have enough money” or “It is too expensive”?

Or, do you feel clear and connected with the intent of the message and say, “I better go check my supplies and make sure they are still in a state of readiness!”?

This is how you know whether or not you are prepared. As always, actions speak louder than words.

In a state of balance, your heart will give you clear messages of guidance as to what is the right decision for you. When you follow your heart, you will never regret the experiences of your life and you will find that you will be fulfilling your purpose, either directly or indirectly, at all times.

Your heart does NOT know fear! Yet, it will offer you a sensation of discomfort when your ego-self re-acts (and thus vibrates) in a state of fear. Fear is not your purpose! Fear is not of God! You are a Lighted Fragment of God!

Likewise, your heart will let you know when you are off course—if you pay attention!

When you feel discomfort regarding such as the discourses which have comprised this ongoing series of messages, but you do not really know why, it would be of great benefit to take the opportunity to look at what it is that you are resisting, for the discomfort only comes when you are going against that which would otherwise be the “natural flow”.

When you continually ignore these feelings, the manifestation of discomfort will continue to grow and grow, and this negative accumulation will begin manifesting more and more in the physical, until you make yourself sick. And if you are still resisting the message, eventually your vibration will sink so low that you will not be able to sustain a functioning body.

What is it that you are resisting?

What is it that you are pushing against that causes you “stress”?

Does it really matter to you so much what the rest of the world thinks about you, that it is worth walking around, year after year, in a state of depression or anxiety?

Let go of the past and focus on the joyous experiences that you are wanting—and THEY WILL COME! This is the natural process of creating. This is God working through you!

The vibrations within you are the energy signals you send out to ALL of Creation. These will cause, through resonance, more of those vibrations to circle around and manifest back in your life.

Changing your vibration will bring about change in your life. FEEL the joy that you want and it WILL come! Expect it!

Words are empty without the FEELING that the heart gives to them! So, mouthing your desires is not enough; you must FEEL the joy and radiate that feeling to the universe and it (ALL OF CREATION) will send back to you, AMPLIFIED, the joy that you are radiating. Likewise, if you radiate boredom or anger, then all of Creation will return to you more of the same.

You can know what it is that you are radiating at any given moment by taking a moment to see how it is that you are feeling. What you are feeling is what you are radiating, and thus creating.

For those of you who have not enough money, then be aware it is because you are radiating lack! Those of you who have plenty of money or resources, have same because you are radiating abundance!

GOD IS ABUNDANCE!

God is NOT lack!

Where are you radiating?

Ponder these words, for they are in response to the call of the heart for the answers that can help you to heal and help you to survive. As always, it is YOUR choice to do that which you will with the information that is offered, and it is YOUR choice as to what you radiate out into the universe and thus to all of Creation.

I am Master Hilarion, Cohan (Teacher) of the Emerald Ray, sent forth to help you find the answers that your heart calls out for. In Light, and in service to Creator and Creation, I bid you the Joy of creating that which your heart truly desires.

SALU!

VOLCKER: INVESTORS UNPREPARED

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 7/28/97, [quoting:]

Paul Volcker, the former Federal Reserve chairman who tamed inflation in the 1980s, says investors are arrogantly unprepared for when the stock market boom eventually slows or stops.

In an interview with Forbes magazine released Sunday, Volcker was sharply critical of the mindset driving Wall Street's bull market.

"All you young people think this great boom in the stock market is normal, that you're entitled to 15 percent a year. These expectations cannot be met over the next 15 years," Volcker is quoted as saying in the Aug. 11 Forbes. [End quoting]

Who's he trying to fool? He's one of the big players who set up this market scam!!

FLUSH WITH ANGER; WE SHOULDN'T STAND FOR TOILET LAW

From THE DAILY NEWS, by Dave Barry, 7/20/97, [quoting:]

If you call yourself an American, you need to know about a crucial issue that is now confronting the U.S. Congress (motto: "Remaining Firmly in Office Since 1798"). This is an issue that affects every American, regardless of race or gender or religion or briefs or boxers; this is an issue that is fundamental to the whole entire Cherished American Way of Life.

This issue is toilets.

I'm talking about the toilets now being manufactured for home use. They stink. Literally. You have to flush them two or three times to get the job done. It has become very embarrassing to be a guest at a party in a newer home, because if you need to use the toilet, you then have to lurk in the bathroom for what seems (to you) like several presidential administrations, flushing, checking, waiting, flushing, checking, while the other guests are whispering: "What is (your name) DOING in there? The laundry?"

I know this because I live in a home with three new toilets, and I estimate that I spend 23 percent of my waking hours flushing them. This is going on all over America, and it's causing a serious loss in national productivity that could really hurt us as we try to compete in the global economy against nations such as Japan, where top commode scientists are developing super-efficient, totally automated household models so high-tech that they make the Space Shuttle look like a doorstep.

The weird thing is, the old American toilets flushed just fine. So why did we change? What force would cause an entire nation to do something so stupid? Here's a hint: It's the same force that from time to time gets a bee in its gigantic federal bonnet and decides to spend millions of dollars on some scheme to convert us all to the metric system, or give us all Swine Flu shots, or outlaw tricycles, or whatever. You guessed it! Our government!

What happened was, in 1992, Congress passed the Energy Policy and Conservation Act, which declared that, to save water, all U.S. consumer toilets would henceforth use 1.6 gallons of water per flush. That is WAY less water than was used by the older 3.5-gallon models—the toilets that made this nation great; the toilets that our Founding Fathers fought and died for—which are now prohibited for new installations. The public was not consulted about the toilet change, of course; the public has to go to work, so it never gets consulted about anything going on in Washington.

But it's the public that has been stuck with these new toilets, which are saving water by requiring everybody to flush them enough times to drain Lake Erie on an hourly basis. The new toilets are so bad that there is now—I am not making this up—a black market in 3.5-gallon toilets. People are sneaking them into new homes, despite the fact that the Energy Policy and Conservation Act provides for—I am not making this up, either—a $2,500 fine for procuring and installing an illegal toilet.

I checked this out with my local plumber, who told me that people are always asking him for 3.5-gallon toilets, but he refuses to provide them, because of the law. The irony is that I live in Miami; you can buy drugs here simply by opening your front door and yelling: "Hey! I need some crack!"

Here's another irony: The federal toilet law is administered by the U.S. Department of Energy. According to a Washington Post article sent in by many alert readers, the DOE recently had to close several men's rooms in the Forrestall Building because—I am STILL not making this up—overpressurized air in the plumbing lines was CAUSING URINALS TO EXPLODE. That's correct: These people are operating the Urinals of Death, and they're threatening to fine us if we procure working toilets.

The public—and this is why I love this nation—is not taking this sitting down. There has been a grassroots campaign, led by commode activists, to change the toilet law, and a bill that would do that (H.R. 859—the Plumbing Standards Act) has been introduced in Congress by Rep. Joe Knollenberg of Michigan. I talked to Rep. Knollenberg's press secretary, Frank Maisano, who told me that the public response has been very positive. But the bill has two strikes against it:

1. It makes sense.
2. People want it.

These are huge liabilities in Washington. The toilet bill will probably face lengthy hearings and organized opposition from paid lobbyists; for all we know it will get linked to Whitewater and wind up being investigated by up to four special prosecutors. So it may not be passed in your lifetime. But I urge you to do what you can. Write to your congresshumans [humans?? isn't the writer being extra-kind??], and tell them you support Rep. Knollenberg's bill. While you're at it, tell them you'd like to see a constitutional amendment stating that if any federal agency has so much spare time that it's regulating toilets, that agency will immediately be eliminated, and its building will be used for some activity that has some measurable public benefit, such as laser tag.

So come on, America! This is your chance to make a difference! Stand up to these morons! Join the movement!

Speaking of which, I have to go flush. [End quoting]

This should be pushed as an ecology and environmental issue—think of all the water and time we would be saving.

TAX BILL TARRED

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 8/3/97, [quoting:]

Congress should restrain its cheering over the new tax-cut bill. As often is the case when lawmakers tinker with tax laws, some shenanigans occurred.

Unbeknownst to the public and apparently most members of Congress, a last-minute change was made in the bill to give the tobacco industry a big tax break—and undercut the settlement reached in June between the industry, state attorneys general and lawyers representing smokers and their families.

The settlement required the tobacco industry to pay about $18 billion a year for 25 years into a fund for victims.

But the change approved Thursday could reduce the payout by as much as $2.5 billion a year—the amount of money that is expected to be raised by the newly approved 15-cent-a-pack increase in the federal cigarette tax.

This in effect shifts more of the burden of the effort to fight smoking from the companies that profit from their dangerous products to the people who are hooked on them.

The sneaky provision also provides more evidence of the clout of the tobacco industry in Congress. Current House members reportedly received $1.3 million from industry political action committees for their last campaigns, with nearly $1 million going to Republicans.

Rep. John Spratt, D-S.C., one of the budget negotiators, said: "I'm surprised to see this in the final agreement, because the meetings I was at, the administration dismissed it out of hand. But stuff happens.”

Sen. Richard Durbin, D-ILL., tried to reopen the tax bill for debate in order to challenge the last-minute favor to the tobacco industry. His move, however, was rejected on a 78-22 procedural vote.

The tobacco deal was handled so secretly that most of the opponents didn’t get wind of it until they saw a copy of the bill on an Internet home page controlled by House Speaker Newt Gingrich. That was the only copy of the measure available to outsiders, because Congress’ bill-printing process couldn’t keep up with the legislative railroad.

Fortunately, what transpired last week isn’t necessarily a done deal. The settlement of the tobacco litigation will require separate congressional approval, giving lawmakers an opportunity to right this wrong.

Further, the windfall for the tobacco industry—it was among about 80 special provisions in the tax bill—would seem to be an ideal candidate for a line-item veto under the new powers granted the president by Congress.

The tax cuts on the whole should be good for the people and the economy. But members of Congress should be careful about slapping themselves on the back. Their hands are stained with tobacco tar.

Better they should come clean and admit the error of their ways. [End quoting]

If you’re not one of the Elite, woe to anyone the politicians promise to give something to—hold on to your wallet because you can be sure it will be lighter than before.

The politicians aren’t for giving anything back to the people (the givers) without getting more in return.

They also believe in getting theirs before giving—180 degrees out-of-phase with God’s law.

APPEALS COURT HAS REVERSAL OF FORTUNE

From THE LOS ANGELES TIMES, 7/13/97, [quoting:]

Sometimes it is hard to believe that the judges of the U.S. 9th Circuit Court of Appeals and the justices of the U.S. Supreme Court are working from the same laws.

During the past year, the high court reviewed 29 cases from the appeals court for California and eight other Western states—and reversed 28 of them. And in nearly two-thirds of these cases, the reversal was unanimous. [emphasis mine]

With its reputation as a liberal-learning court, the 9th Circuit usually fares poorly before the more conservative high court. [End quoting]

What does that say about the justice rendered in all of the other multitude of thousands of cases that never make it to the high court?

Need we further proof than this of what is going on in our court system??

FRESH WORRY:
DEVASTATING TOMATO VIRUS

It has shown up for the first time in the country in South Florida.
It stops plants from producing marketable tomatoes.

Excerpted from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 7/30/97, [quoting:]

A virus that devastates tomato production has been found in South Florida—the first such discovery of the disease anywhere in the United States.

Tomatoes are Florida’s leading commercial vegetable crop, and the timing of the find is particularly bad because the state is already battling citrus canker and Mediterranean fruit flies.

“We have a potential epidemic on our hands,” said Jane Polston, a plant pathologist with the University of Florida’s Gulf Coast Research and Education Center in Bradenton.

Polston discovered the tomato yellow leaf curl virus a week ago on small tomato plants being sold to consumers at nursery stores in Charlotte, Collier, Dade and Sarasota counties.

The virus does not affect humans or animals but prevents tomato plants from producing large, marketable tomatoes.

Polston, who met Tuesday with other scientists and growers in Bradenton, said the disease wiped out 90 percent of the tomato crop in the Dominican Republic in 1992.

Florida tomato growers said it’s too early to determine the extent of the threat to their $400-million-a-year industry. There are no tomato fields in production at this time of year in Florida, but fall planting will begin soon.

“We don’t have the facts yet,” said Wayne Hawkins, executive director of the Florida Tomato Committee in Orlando. Hawkins said growers fear that consumers may misunderstand the nature of the threat and stop buying tomatoes.

“A big red flag has been raised, but so far that’s all,” Hawkins said.

Any tomatoes in stores have not been affected by the virus, and the disease does not harm humans in any way.

A number of different viruses and fungi organisms attack tomatoes, and resistant plants are produced regularly by scientists for sale to farmers as well as home gardeners. But Polston said a tomato variety resistant to the leaf curl virus is at least three or four years away.

Ernest Hiebert, a professor of plant pathology with the University of Florida in Gainesville, said the infestation appears to be in the early stages and could be contained during the next two months—before the fall tomato growing season begins.

Hiebert said home gardeners can help by destroying any potentially affected plants they may have bought at garden centers. Another way they could help, Hiebert said, is in controlling whiteflies more vigorously with pesticides.

Whiteflies pick up the disease while feeding on infected tomato vines and spread it to other plants, including many kinds of weeds and other foliage. [End quoting]

This is probably another one of the Elite's "planted bugs"—and it may well do more than "just" damage a tomato industry.

CAN YOU READ THIS?

From MEDIA BYPASS MAGAZINE, July 1997, [quoting:]

A new program funded by a charitable foundation will award university honorees on the basis of their commitment to teaching the interdependence [emphasis mine] of political freedom [If you are forced to be dependent how can you be free?], the market economy and the moral principles that sustain a free society.

The John Templeton Foundation on May 21 kicked off the "Templeton Honor Rolls for Education in a Free Society" at a ceremony in the Russell Senate office building. The program is chaired by former U.S. Treasury Secretary William E. Simon and administered by the Wilmington, Del.-based Intercollegiate Studies Institute. More than 100 awards will be given to outstanding universities, departments, scholarly books and individual professors, including a $25,000 Lifetime Achievement Award.

The program is intended in part to demonstrate that "reports of academia's pending demise are both premature and exaggerated," Simon said. Those reports would include:

* A study by Michigan State University Professor L. Patrick Sheetz finds that too few college graduates have the ability to write, speak and reason coherently in order to keep a job.

* Newsweek columnist John Leo recently reported that half of college graduates cannot read a bus schedule.

* Arguing against knowledge of grammar and logic, Professor Jay Robinson of the University of Michigan says that "the myth of basic skills" helps sustain rigid and evil class structures; what college kids really need is reaffirmation as members of "racial, social and linguistic minorities".

* The National Association of Scholars' devastating report on the dumbing-down of college curricula, which includes courses for credit like "queer theory" and the works of Pee Wee Herman. [End quoting]

More proof that our education system is failing disastrously, part of the New World Order agenda.

NO FREEDOM

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 7/28/97, [quoting:]

Doug Collins, a popular columnist for the North Shore News in Vancouver, British Columbia, has been ordered to appear before a British Columbia human-rights tribunal to face charges that he has exposed his readers to hate by writing articles about events of World War II. Collins is charged under a law that would discipline journalists and/or newspapers for publishing anything "likely to expose a person or a group or class of persons to hatred or contempt". Roger McConchie, a lawyer representing the British Columbia Press Council, says that this is "an extraordinary attempt to control the press". Even the normally liberal Toronto Globe and Mail editorialized on May 12 that this was a "gag law" that "should be struck down by the courts." [End quoting]

Sometimes the Elite's own disguised control mechanisms get in the way of their own shenanigans. This would be humorous if it weren't so sad.

LENIN TWIST CAUSING SOUR FACES

statue of lenin

Excerpted from THE CHRONICLE, Willimantic, Conn. 7/3/97, [quoting:]

Bernard Shilberg of Schilberg Integrated Metals Corp. stands next to a statue of Valdimir Lenin, which was purchased with an assortment of scrap metals several years ago. The statue of the former Soviet Union dictator will be featured in the Boom Box Parade—decked out in red, white and blue, of course. [End quoting]

Why didn't they glorify a statue of Manson? Probably because he didn't kill many millions of people.

COMMUNIST CHRISTIANITY?

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 7/7/97, [quoting:]

Ned Graham, son of famed evangelist Billy Graham, thinks that Christians are wrong to get involved in the debate over MFN status for Red China. The younger Graham is associated with a Red Chinese government-sanctioned "missionary" organization, and he has objected to what he called "Christian organizations that operate illegally in China". Young Graham's position rankles many Christian evangelicals, much as did his father's endorsement of President Bill Clinton's morality [emphasis mine]. [End quoting]

Why didn't they glorify a statue of Manson? Probably because he didn't kill many millions of people.

"The end justifies the means" for the Grahams.

BONDING FOR STRENGTH

From POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, August 1997, [quoting:]

Talk about getting together! The United States and Russia are collaborating to commercialize a process that could produce stronger bonds for cars, planes, and orthopedic components by squeezing together microscopic nanopowders.

The new technique, invented in Russia, is called severe plastic deformation. It subjects ceramics, metals, and alloys to stresses—using loads as heavy as 400 tons per square inch—that break down the materials' grains into microparticles less than four-millionths of an inch in diameter. The result: materials of exceptional strength and resistance to wear. Otherwise brittle ceramics can become malleable, and parts derived from nanopowders of copper, iron, aluminum, and titanium are as much as 10 times as strong as their conventional counterparts.

The technique is the first practical way to fashion high-strength biomechanical and industrial components from ultrafine powders, says Emil Strumban, general manager of Synmatix Corp. in Southfield, Michigan. Synmatix is working with researchers from Los Alamos National Laboratory and three Russian scientific facilities to refine and market the process, which is already being used to manufacture titanium bone implants in Russia. [End quoting]

Slowly, the Elite are letting we-the-people in on some high-tech knowledge—but notice how they still benefit financially by allowing it.

IMPORTED FOOD IS MAKING US SICK

And a newly identified germ—a hardy parasite called cyclospora—is stumping health officials.

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 7/28/97, [quoting:]

It's Montezuma's revenge—right in your own kitchen.

More Americans are getting sick from fresh fruits and salads imported from developing countries, and at least one of the newly identified germs is stumping health officials.

So far this year, about 1,400 cases of cyclospora infection have been reported nationwide, although health officials think the numbers are much higher. Symptoms include diarrhea, fatigue, dramatic weight loss and despair, which can go on for weeks if unchecked.

“We think only the tip of the iceberg is reported on cyclospora sickness,” said Dr. Barbara Herwaldt of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Many people do not report their illness, and the problem is so new doctors have not been primed to look for it, she said.

Scientists are unsure how the parasite is transmitted and whether it infects animals other than humans. They do know it is hardy and highly resistant to chlorine, so washing produce in the kitchen sink may provide no prevention.

Herwaldt and dozens of other doctors, scientists and food-safety experts gathered in Washington last week to pool information on the parasite. The meeting was called by the Food and Drug Administration, responsible for safeguarding much of the U.S. food supply.

Most of the outbreaks of cyclospora sickness this year and last have been linked to fresh raspberries from Guatemala. In May, the FDA suspended raspberry imports from that country and now is weighing whether to lift the ban this fall, when seasonally the risk of the cyclospora disappears.

But in the past few months Americans also have caught the parasite after eating imported mesclun—a mix of various types of baby lettuce leaves—or fresh basil. [End quoting]

Every week it seems we are bombarded by a new “bug scare”. Is this one step at a time toward incapacitation of we “useless eaters”?

BANK OF ENGLAND IS OFF THE HOOK ON BCCI CLAIMS

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 7/31/97, [quoting:]

LONDON—The bank of England was widely accused of lax supervision of rogue bank BCCI, but a judge ruled Wednesday that the central bank doesn’t have to worry about paying any money to BCCI’s creditors. The judge threw out a lawsuit in which BCCI liquidators sought about $900 million from the Bank of England, saying there were no grounds for a court battle because banking regulators did not “dishonestly” mismanage the BCCI affair. International banking regulators closed the Bank of Credit and Commerce International in July 1991 in what has been described as history’s biggest banking fraud. [End quoting]

Another scam game won—temporarily—by the perpetrators.

MAVERICK FINANCIER GOLDSMITH DIES

His political party helped Britain’s Liberals win landslide victory

Excerpted from THE STAR-TELEGRAM, 7/20/97, [quoting:]

james goldsmith

SIR JAMES GOLDSMITH:
Was opposed to European unification

Sir James Goldsmith, the cosmopolitan billionaire who formed his own political party to crusade against European unification, has died after a long battle with cancer. He was 64.

Mr. Gold-smith's loved ones—his wife, ex-wife, mistress and eight children—are “united in grief,” said his British spokesman, Patrick Robertson.

The son of a British Jewish father and French Roman Catholic mother, Mr. Goldsmith was a citizen of both countries and lived a life without borders. But he abhorred the European Union as a German-dominated threat to British sovereignty.

Mr. Goldsmith's fortune—including millions made during the 1980s when he was a corporate raider in the United States—is estimated at between $1.7 billion and $2.4 billion.

He turned to politics after retiring from the business world in 1990, having built a fortune in food processing, retailing and stock dealing.

Mr. Goldsmith's cause was opposition to the Maastricht Treaty, which calls for creation of a single currency as well as common foreign and security policies among the 15-member European Union.

As a financier, Mr. Goldsmith was renowned for his sense of market timing. His investment motto: “If you see a bandwagon, it's too late.” [End quoting]

Sir James Goldsmith was also one of the “Committee of 17” made famous by Ronn Jackson.

This is a puzzle for me. Why do people like him die when, supposedly, people in his category have a cure for almost anything including cancer. Is there more to this story that we're not being told??

DISCOVERIES DURING THE NEXT TEN YEARS

Excerpted from THE INTERNET, 7/26/97, [quoting:]

The barriers of race, religious doctrine, politics and philosophy will completely shatter in the next ten years. That's 2004 [sic]. By then, things will be well on their way. You'll be sitting by your televisions wanting to see the news, just to find out the discovery of the day. The discoveries that we will become part of are as follows. Now, these are some of the things that the Andromedans say we will be part of in the next 10 years, that we're going to discover, or that we are going to find out about (or someone will leak the information out):

Scientific proof of dimensions and higher selves, as well as spiritual consciousness. I don't know how they are going to prove it.

Reincarnation will be scientifically proven and demonstrated.

The acknowledgement of other life in the galaxy and our universe. Ample proof already exists on the Moon, Mars and on Earth, and will be shared with humanity. It could be that we have a renegade group of scientists who will say "enough is enough".

Face-to-face contact with other extraterrestrial races will occur. It will actually happen a lot sooner than in ten years, but within the next 10 years we will have contact with at least nine different races.

The introduction of three clean-energy devices, based on magnetic fields of energy that permeate all of existence.

The Earth is in fact hollow and capable of sustaining human life very comfortably.

The re-discovery of the lost land that used to be Atlantis in the Atlantic. In the Pacific, a very large temple complex, still intact, once belonging to Lemuria will also be discovered.

The reality that all we perceive in the physical is a holographic imprint that is directed and created from a higher portion of ourselves.

Human consciousness is not in the brain, but is located in its entirety in the energy field around the body.

Our past and present educational processes have not prepared us to be completely conscious and creative thinkers, but more like robots that can be shaped by peer pressure.

Organic and plant forms do exist on seven planets and fifteen moons in our solar system.

The rediscovery that each of us is a part of the whole of the universe. We are a significant part of that idea we call God, and God is the idea of love.

That this accelerating self-discovery being experienced throughout the universe was created and activated by all of us in the universe.

That we, as a by-product of extraterrestrial genetic manipulation, are possessors of a vast gene pool that has many different racial memory banks of at least 22 extraterrestrial races in our DNA. Because of our genetic heritage, of having these 22 different races, we are all considered "royalty". All we need do is acknowledge it, acknowledge ourselves, and seize our true history. In other words, the only fear we have is the fear of that which we are. After we accomplish this, we can free ourselves from the conditioning and programming. We need to learn to accept our uniqueness, and planetary adulthood, and know that we are our own inheritance. Only then can we honestly and maturely create our future the way we want it to be.

What is that future? Here is their definition:

“Responsible freedom of self-determination, becoming truly self-confident and free to unconditionally be responsible for one’s self, without being coerced to accept some higher authority.”

The reason our planet has not had mass contact as a race, is because AS a race, we don’t remember who and what we are. In other words, we are having a severe identity crisis. It also means that there are few walking this Earth who remember other planetary existences or even previous life forms, let alone previous lifetimes. Some have sought spiritual development through various healing methodologies and meditation in the hopes of enlightenment. The Andromedans have taught, and are teaching, that judgements (both present life and past life) must be cleared from the cellular imprint of the soul. As one does achieve this, one becomes aware of other planetary existences, and one’s true planetary heritage.

We have limitless possibilities to be, and find, satisfaction, joy and fulfillment in our lives and in our relationships with one another. By discovering direct contact with our own essence of being, we can remember freedom—a freedom that is not only freedom from external restraints, but also one that embodies free expression. The meaning and value of what it is to truly be a human being. Most of us have been walking around thinking “this is it”. Apparently, our perception of this gift we have (according to the Andromedans), means that we are “severely tuning-out”. Apparently, we are truly blessed to have the forms we have, and the genetics we have. This lack of self-knowledge and understanding is itself the root of our problems on many different levels. Once relearned, this intrinsic freedom becomes a lived and practiced reality. All the other freedoms will naturally follow after that, once we have learned to take responsibility for ourselves, not only on third density, but on other levels as well. [End quoting]

TO SOW AND REAP

From GUIDEPOSTS, October 1996, P.O. Box 1479, Carmel, NY 10512, [quoting:]

As a single mom I moved with my two teenage children into a run-down farmhouse. On our tight budget, selling vegetables would help make ends meet. We planted corn and tomatoes near the house and pumpkin seeds in the lower field, and set up a produce stand. But a drought came in August. I put a sign on our produce stand: Pray for Rain. And pray we did.

But no rain came. One October morning I walked through the fields and saw the tomatoes bowed down on dry spines and the corn brown and wilted. Clearly God hasn’t heard our prayers, I thought. I hated to think what condition the pumpkin patch would be in. But as I came over a rise, I saw an amazing sight: a bumper crop of bright-orange pumpkins. Throughout the drought I had prayed for rain. But all along God had made sure we would reap. —Anne Marie Christodoro [End quoting]

Many times, God answers prayers differently than we expect Him to.

THE NEWS DESK A SPECIAL REPORT

by Dr. Al Overholt 8/9/97

EXTREMELY URGENT IMMEDIATE ATTENTION REQUIRED!

GOALS 2000, THE EDUCATE AMERICA ACT

From the INTERNET, 7/97, [quoting:]

Goals 2000, The Educate America Act, is an oppressive movement that has all but taken over the entire system of education in this country. In summary, the objectives of this movement include:

Through the deliberate “dumbing-down” of America’s school children, the forcing of a planned economy and industry to this country can be accomplished by providing the job market with low-wage earners, who “can be easily trained and managed”, instead of creative individuals who will take initiative.

The forced “therapy and treatment” of children medically and psychologically, without parental knowledge or consent, is in therapy units located in every school in the nation. Due to various changes in parental rights and related laws, if parents object, they could face abuse charges or loss of custody of their children. This treatment is paid for by Medicaid, formerly a federal Medical Care program for the poor. Another legal move has already removed poverty guidelines for children 0-21 and, therefore, allows tax dollars to go toward this federally-mandated treatment for anyone under 21 years of age.

To fully achieve “the goals”, further legislation must be passed, in order to secure complete control of all necessary aspects and related issues. Additional bills, currently before our lawmakers in Washington, will allow the government to do the following:

1. Establish a network of state “superintendents” and corporations which will dictate to the schools what occupations children will be forced to train in.
2. Puts in place a massive computer database which tracks every child from their entry into school to adulthood.
3. Ensures that every child will be indoctrinated into the “proper attitudes” which include accepting whatever career path is chosen for him or her “for the good of the company, the state, the country, etc.”
4. Places any child who does not “fit” into, or go along with the program, into a “juvenile camp” (these camps already exist). If the child does not get his Certificate of Initial Mastery (CIM) in the job area which is dictated for him or her—he or she will end up in camp.

These bills are as follows:

HR 1385—The Employment, Training and Literacy Act of 1997 has ALREADY PASSED the House. It mandates further details and funding for all the “parents as teachers” psychological training, and intrusive “visits” to “monitor” how children are being raised. It also mandates that businesses in every community will dictate to the schools which types of jobs children will be trained for. It also gives huge funding to labor unions for “research and demonstration projects”. Psychiatry is now moving into the unions as well. This same bill authorizes funds to establish computer input of students’ personal data as part of the “Labor Market Information Forms”. This is part of a nationwide program for getting all of a student’s medical, personal, family, behavioral and school data into computers, so that it can be accessed by any one of several federal, state, and bwal [sic] agencies.

HR 1853—The Vocational Education Bill. This was introduced June 11, 1997. It is on a very fast track to be passed. It is a “Clinton pet” project, and will mandate an apprenticeship program which is an EXACT duplicate of the one in use in Germany, which has been a dismal failure by any standard.

HR 1803—This is the adult program for retraining and further implements the School-To-Work law.

HR 1818—A Juvenile Justice resolution. This bill authorizes funds for intensive federal mandates for psychiatric treatment of ALL juvenile offenders.

All of these bills, together with the three (3) laws passed in 1994 (the Educate America Act, et al.), allow the federal government to do the following:

1. Establish a network of state superintendents and corporations which will dictate to the schools which occupations children will be forced to train in.
2. Puts in place a massive computer database which tracks every child from cradle to the grave.
3. Ensures that every child will be indoctrinated in accepting whatever career path is chosen for him or her, and brainwashes the child into doing it for the good of the company, the state and the country.
4. Places any child, who does not “fit” into or go along with the program, into a juvenile camp (these camps already exist). If the child does not get his Certificate of Initial Mastery (CIM) in the job area which is dictated for him or her—he or she will end up in a camp.

So as you can see, we have a lot of work to do, and quickly, if we are to keep these bills from being approved.

Please help us by taking the following actions immediately:

1. Call the Capitol Building at 1-202-225-3121. Tell the receptionist, “I want to oppose some bills.” The switchboard operator will ask you what state you are from, and then connect you with the correct Representative or Senator. When the office answers, tell the person in that office that you want your Senator to vote against The Employment, Training and Literacy Act, and your Congressman to vote against bills numbered 1853, 1803, and 1818.

2. Pass this information on to everyone you can and ask them to make the call (this sheet can be refaxed to anyone you want!). We need 20,000 calls going into Washington ASAP.

3. Please contact me and let me know you have made the calls, and I will let you know how it's going.

My direct line is (310) 764-2090. My fax number is (310) 764-5417. Barbara Ayash [End quoting]

It might be wise to check with her before doing anything.

CHAPTER 17

NOTICE TO THE PEOPLE (THE BRITISH CONNECTION) by Gary Wean 7/14/97

Washington, D.C., is right now conducting the most important Senate investigation of all times.

The U.S. Senate Governmental Affairs Committee is investigating the massive, evil invasion of foreign government money into the American political and judicial bloodstream where it has bought and paid for the President, the Senate, the House of Representatives and the Federal Judges. Through this evil operation, total control of America has been seized by an alien government.

This Senate committee holds in its hands, most assuredly, the last hope for the freedom and safety of the American people and the Constitution. Never again will these evil usurpers of our government be so careless as to allow the Senate or House to convene such a powerful committee out in public view which could expose and endanger their organization and its horrendous crimes against America.

Not only is there sneaky opposition to the Committee's investigation, but the evil specter of 'sabotage' by committee members John Glenn, Arlen Specter, Joseph Lieberman and Carl Levin etc., etc., raises its vile head. (The American people will never forget that this sabotage by these evil people is treason against our country.)

However, this 'sabotage and cover-up' is not Senator Thompson's only problem. The Chairman is also plagued by 'confusion' created by the FBI holding back information as to the exact identities of the Asian fiends responsible for this subversion of America.

4 pages of documents (2)

The FBI information, heavily censored and filtered by treasonous Justice Dept. lawyers before it is dished out to Senator Thompson, leads him straight to the Bank of China (BOC), and they provide him with evidence that the Chinese government has funneled money to America to buy President Clinton, Senators and Congressmen. But why is the Senator being handed such an easy trail to follow and leading to just a few obvious suspects?

The BOC is a genuine Chinese government bank with China's interests their only concern. It was started by President Sun Yat-sen in 1923 shortly before his death. And yes, every bit of the crimes and evidence turned over by the FBI regarding the BOC is true, and the Bank of China should be exposed and the guilty parties prosecuted to the fullest extent.

BUT!! There is another bank located in China: however, it is not owned by Asian fiends; it is owned by Jew fiends, knighted Jews integrated into the Royal British Family aristocracy. The Justice Dept. lawyers withholding and censoring this evidence from the Committee are also Jews.

The Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, HSBC Group, was started over a hundred years before the Bank of China by Jew global traders who became fantastically rich when they perpetrated the Chinese Opium-Wars trade. This drug operation by the evil Opium financiers was the money foundation for the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corp., HSBC Group. Their drug operation has never ceased over all the years and is now the World's largest conglomeration, with tentacles reaching into every crevice of every government in the World. It is now known as the Cocaine-Heroin business.

At the present time the BOC assets are $125 billion and they handle foreign exchange and overseas transactions for the Chinese government.

But, the knighted Jews of the British Royalty who own the HSBC presently have assets of over $500 billion and operate 5000 offices in 78 countries, with over 100,000 regular employees and an army of secret paid agents. These super-active agents arrange and conduct everything from political sabotage and chaos, riots and revolution, bribery and blackmail, to murder and assassination of politicians and governmental leaders who get in their way.

With four times the assets and coupling their influence, power, expertise and control over world-wide foreign exchange and overseas transactions in 78 countries, including the United States, the HSBC Group could shut down the entire Chinese country and destroy their government overnight. The HSBC Group, constructed by and steeped in Colonial tradition, also acts as the “Central Banker” to the government.

Back many years ago China seriously began anticipating when they would be taking over Hong Kong. They prepared explicit plans for world-wide expansion of the BOC and the strategy for overtaking the financial and political power of their harsh competitor the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corp. So, Senator Fred Thompson has two banking behemoths to investigate, not just one.

The HSBC knew that BOC was beginning to flex their muscles so they went into their “espionage-sabotage” mode, their dirty-tricks business that these “drug-smugglers” had learned and honed from experience and practiced evilly for two hundred years. This banking rivalry entered into a duel for the political and financial control of the world. In 1985 the HSBC moved into their new 43-story building of glass and aluminum with its worldwide-acclaimed suspension design.

The BOC at the same time broke ground for a new, amazing 72-story glass tower which was completed in 1988 and would be the tallest building in Asia. It is across the street from the new HSBC bank. For the BOC's new building, a famed architect, Chinese-American I.M. Pei, was chosen. It had been his father who had opened Hong Kong's BOC branch 60 years before.

To stay in line with its British Colonial owners and controllers, HSBC enlisted a prominent British architect, Norman Foster.

The HSBC in 1977 under Chairman Michael Sandberg, a British Jew, was steadily branching out into the world politically as well as financially. Sandberg acquired the prestigious American bank, the Marine Midland Bank in Buffalo, New York. This bank had powerful connections with both the Democratic National Committee and the Republican National Committee organizations and their election campaign financial setups. The HSBC Group moved right in.

At this time in 1977 the Chinese Government Bank, BOC, activated its espionage and saboteur operational agents into the banking-political scene in California and Arkansas and connected with politician William Clinton and Arkansas financial companies. This is the Chinese Connection that Senator Fred Thompson's Governmental Affairs Committee is concentrating on right now, the one that the Justice Dept. lawyers and FBI have led him to. Anyone in their right mind can see what this is doing to the BOC, while the HSBC and their operations continue merrily on their way.

In this International game of sinister intrigue and secret power, the BOC is a rank amateur, a piker compared to the HSBC octopus and their biggest connection, the New York Marine Midland Bank drug-money laundering operation. And what better, more opportune place to launder these fantastic sums of money could there be than right into the veins of the American political scene—and every bit of these clandestine dollars are returned to them ten thousandfold in strategic Congressional votes and Federal Judicial decisions. The Michael Milken, Ivan Boesky ("greed is great," Jew predator) junk bonds.

HSBC Holdings Plc, is headed by a British Jew—despite their name of Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, which leads ordinary people to believe it is a Chinese institution, it is strictly a Jewish-British (behemoth-colossal beast) financial conglomeration.

Sir William Purves is CBE, DSO, Group Chairman of The Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited, and HSBC Americas, Inc., and Chairman of the British Bank of the Middle East. Purves has been with the HSBC for 45 years and served in Germany, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Singapore, Sri Lanka and Japan. In 1991 Sir Purves returned to the United Kingdom and built new HSBC headquarters at 10 Lower Thames Street, London EC3R GAE, United Kingdom. HSBC is incorporated in England with limited liability—Registered in England: Number 617987.

HSBC is a global, international network linked by advanced technology. This British United Empire link of power flows directly into the United States through their New York bank, the Marine Midland Bank. Marine Midland Bank is a New York State regional banking institution and the principal subsidiary of HSBC Americas, Inc., an indirectly-held, wholly-owned subsidiary of HSBC Holdings Plc.

The HSBC is the World's largest banking organization and was founded on their Chinese Opium trade. These International-Trade operators and their drug operations have never ceased and have evolved and grown into the World's greatest Cocaine-Heroin smuggling operation, with America its "Most Favored" customer.

John R.H. Bond is President and Chief Executive Officer of Marine Midland Banks Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of HSBC Holdings. Bond is on the board of many HSBC Group companies, where he has been for 37 years. He is with the Banking Advisory Group of the International Finance Corp., a member of the World Bank Group. Marine Midland Bank has over 400 branches statewide with more than $32 billion in assets. New York Governor Cuomo, a Democrat, and Republican Senator Alfonse D'Amato, Chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, are the main conduit for illegal money funneled through the Marine Midland Bank by HSBC in London to the Senators and House members for their election campaigns.

Federal Judge Harry Pregerson and his son Dean Pregerson, also a Federal Judge, control all of HSBC's Cocaine-Heroin profits in the geographic Ninth Circuit Court, which is run through HSBC Banks in the Micronesian Islands which Judge Harry Pregerson and Judge Dean Pregerson control.

From Micronesian banks the drug money is laundered through the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corp. The laundering process continues on to the HSBC Bank headquarters in London—by then the bankers consider the drug money as being sufficiently cleansed and they ship it to their Marine Midland Bank in Buffalo, New York.

The Marine Midland Bank funnels these huge amounts of foreign money into the coffers of our Senators, Congressmen and Federal Judges and they vote and make decisions exactly as the orders come down from the HSBC's World-Wide Headquarters in London, Great Britain.

Everybody thinks the British became a second-class nation with the loss of all their overseas colonies upon which the sun never sets, but they still own and control them financially and materially just the same as they did with their military—only now they don't have the great expense of their military and administration—the United Nations takes care of that and uses American military forces paid by American taxpayers.

And look who we have handling and manipulating all our money and our treasury dept.—two Jew aristocrats, Robert Rubin and Alan Greenspan. Who says these knighted, Jew Aristocrats with Headquarters in London, Britain, ain't smart??? Well, they are experienced enough at it—they have been at it a long, long time, ever since before they killed “Jesus” Christ two thousand years ago for interfering in their evil usury and money dealings.

The following is an alphabetical list of all the countries that HSBC controls through their banks' power over the governments and their politicians. After the names of some of the countries is the number of HSBC banks in that country.

Angola; Argentina, 31; Armenia; Austria; Australia, 42; Azerbaijan; Bahamas, 6; Bahrain, 6; Bangladesh; Bermuda; Brazil, 2004; Brunei Darussalam, 12; Canada, 122; Cayman Islands, 4; Channel Islands, 26; Chile; China, 14; Colombia; Cook Islands; Cyprus, 136; Czech Republic; Egypt, 6; England; France; Germany, 14; Ghana; Greece; Guam; Hong Kong, 433; Hungary; India, 29; Indonesia, 8; Ireland; Isle of Man; Italy; Japan, 8; Jordan, 5; Kenya; Korea, Republic of; Lebanon, 5; Luxembourg; Macau, 7; Malaysia, 50; Malta; Mauritius, 14; Mexico; Mozambique; Myanmar (Burma); Namibia; Netherlands; New Zealand, 7; Oman, 5; Pakistan, 4; Palestinian Autonomous area; Panama, 4; Peru, 47; Philippines, 7; Poland; Qatar; Russia; Saipan; Saudi Arabia, 63; Scotland; Singapore, 31; South Africa; Spain; Sri Lanka, 6; Sweden; Switzerland, 4; Taiwan, 7; Thailand, 9; Turkey; Uganda; United Arab Emirates, 15; United Kingdom, 1,792; United States of America, 452; Venezuela; Vietnam; Wales; Zambia; Zimbabwe.

1996. The Federal Reserve Bank approved Marine Midland Bank's acquisition of River Bank America, Valley Stream, New York, and all its branches.

1996. Marine Midland Bank acquired First Federal Savings based in Rochester, N.Y., and $7.2 billion in assets with 79 branches in New York and 15 mortgage offices in nine states. It has 1,600 employees. With these acquisitions the Marine Midland Bank now has assets of over $100 billion.

Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan has the power to approve and allow Marine Midland Bank, a foreign country-owned bank with its headquarters in Hong Kong and London, to acquire these banks with over a hundred branches. This will allow Marine Midland Bank to funnel much more drug-money through HSBC channels into America, where they can continue buying the President, Senators and Congressmen and Federal Judges.

The HSBC is getting prepared to pour billions of dollars more into the political election campaigns, and the Democrats and Republicans are getting prepared to grab great chunks of this free drug-money to fill their pockets.

The Republican National Committee just had a big meeting and is promoting their new Theme, an “anything goes” when it comes to being bribed and bought.

GOP Chairman Jim Nicholson publicly proclaims that he doesn’t want the government to interfere with this conduit of money into their election campaigns and Clifford May, the GOP Communications Director, gleefully states that they are taking the position of a “Free Market” approach to the financing of election campaigns. Their inside info tells them that the Demos and Repos aren’t about to pass any new legislation to stop drug money from flowing.

Sir William Purves, the knighted Jew from Britain, a so-called aristocrat financier and the head of HSBC Group, is the most powerful man in the world—at his beckoning President Clinton, Senators, Congressmen and Federal Judges leap to act out his orders.

Sir James Goldsmith, another knighted Jew aristocrat, conducts his sleazy lifestyle, flaunting it arrogantly before Americans’ eyes.

In London, Sir James Michael Goldsmith is described as a flamboyant British financier. In America he is viewed more as a pervert who openly maintains three families—sometimes he spends the weekend with his former wife, Ginette, a French woman who lives with their two children in Paris. Laura Bouley de la Meurthe is a French journalist who, with their two children, might spend some weekdays with him somewhere; and during the week the knighted Jew, Sir James Michael Goldsmith, spends time with his British spouse who is also British Royalty, Lady Annabel Birley, in London with their three children.

Sir James has homes in Bordeaux, London, Paris, and Spain, and also an 18,000 acre (compound) estate on the Pacific Coast of Mexico, where he conducts further family carrying-ons among the Mexicans.

Although Sir James was born into Jew banking wealth, he claims he alone with his genius amassed a personal fortune of $3 billion. He was a highly successful corporate raider (thief). By the early 1970s Sir James had put together a huge sum of money to begin his take-overs. He was adept at identifying weak companies, then raiding the employees pension funds and quickly selling off the stock and reaping the profits.

In the 1980s Sir James took over Crown Zellerbach Corp. and broke it into pieces—another ‘old-line’ American company, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. was voraciously raided and looted by the British-Jew Royal financier. And here in America the people are wondering what is happening to them: they can’t figure it out.

The American knighted Jews, Sir Robert Rubin, and Sir Alan Greenspan, anointed by King Willy and Queen Hillary, along with Lady Madeleine Albright rule the idiots of America with an iron fist, and up until the time of her anointment Lady Madeleine didn't even know she was an aristocrat-Jew.

America is in the same, identical spot now that it was in 1776 under British Royal rule lead by the knighted Jew aristocracy. America was a British Colony then, and even though we won the Revolution, the United Kingdom never let go or recognized that they had lost it. Two-hundred-and-twenty years later we are still under the iron fist of the mightiest of the Jews—the Lord of the knighted Jew Royalty, Sir William Purves, ensconced in his HSBC Group Headquarters at No. 10 Lower Thames Street, London EC3R GAE, United Kingdom.

America is so important to the knighted Jews of Britain that Sir William Purves, the Chairman of the world's EVIL, sent his next in command, John R.H. Bond, to New York, U.S.A., as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Marine Midland Banks, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of HSBC Holdings. With the Marine Midland Bank's takeover of two New York state banks under Sir Alan Greenspan's Federal Reserve Bank's orders, the Marine Midland Bank now has more than 500 banks and branches and assets far exceeding $100 billion.

Americans in 1776 didn't want to live and die under the corrupt British United Kingdom then and we don't want to live under their rule now.

If we had an American attorney general in the Justice Department, a Grand Jury indictment would be brought down seizing Sir William Purves and his HSBC Group banks and all their assets in the United States, including their Cocaine-Heroin business.

Sir Rubin, Sir Greenspan and Lady Madeleine would be prosecuted for treason for their conspiracy with Sir Purves against America.

King Willy and Queen Hillary would spend the rest of their lives as Royalty without a country, on a ship at sea that never touches shore.

Congress would take back control after removal of all the treasonous politicians and their staffs—America's money and resources would again become the responsibility of Congress under the watchful, vigilant eye of the people. The six-trillion-dollar National Debt and its horrific interest that Americans pay to the British knighted Jews HSBC Group would be vaporized as easily as they conjured it up.

Since I first investigated Los Angeles gangster Mickey Cohen, Abraham Davidian and Harry Pregerson's Cocaine-Heroin Connection with Benny Wong in L.A.'s Old China Town in 1946, the FBI and the Jew Anti-Defamation League have built a secret file against me.

U.S. Government Agents, honest, godfearing, loyal Americans, have seen my secret files and have given me precise information as to their contents and even the exact number of pages and where other information is contained. Among the hundreds of items the files contain all the information of my 1963 meeting in Ruidoso, New Mexico with my partner Frank; Audie Murphy; Bill Decker, Sheriff of Dallas County, Texas; and U.S. Senator John Tower, at which time Tower gave us information and documented proof of who killed President John F. Kennedy. And in 1987 John Tower gave me his word that he would appear and give his sworn testimony and documented evidence of who killed JFK if Senator Joseph Biden, Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, would set up official, open hearings by the Committee. Senators Arlen Specter and Joseph Biden sabotaged the evidence that was given to them and involved the entire Senate in a cover-up. Senator Tower had been prepared to tell everything he knew and present evidence that Arlen Specter, William Cohen and Prescott Bush (George's father) were involved in the conspiracy to assassinate President John F. Kennedy. Senator Arlen Specter presently sits on the Senate Judiciary Committee where he has sabotaged every critical investigation into these matters and also sits on Senator Fred Thompson's Committee on Governmental Affairs investigation.

Arlen Specter is desperately trying to kill this investigation by urging Senator Thompson to drop it and have a Special Prosecutor appointed. This way they could control any investigation and after many years of stalling it would die and fade away.

Audie Murphy and Senator Tower were both killed in mysterious, identical airplane crashes. My partner Frank and Sheriff Bill Decker are dead—I am the only one alive who was at the Ruidoso meeting in 1963 only a few days after the assassination.

I have all the documents and evidence Senator John Tower gave us put away in a secure place. However, Senator Tower's information is also in the secret file the FBI compiled on me for over fifty (50) years. I am attaching an explanatory letter that I wrote to U.S. Senator Fred Thompson advising him of these facts and also a certified letter and separate fax that I sent to FBI Director Louis Freeh, asking for my secret files under the Freedom of Information Act. [These items are included herein.]

Senator Arlen Specter, in his evil acts to sabotage the Committee and cover up his terrible guilt, must be stopped. Specter is bludgeoning Senator Fred Thompson in an attempt to have a Special Prosecutor appointed that he can control. Special Prosecutors are appointed by corrupt Washington, D.C. Federal Judges and everybody knows what Special Prosecutors Walsh and Starr have accomplished—millions of dollars and years of nothing. America can wait no longer—it is the bounden duty, the absolute responsibility of Senator Fred Thompson, Chairman of the Senate Governmental Affairs, to expose this monstrous conspiracy to destroy America and the Constitution. For him to shirk his duties and responsibility by handing them over to a so-called Special Prosecutor would be cowardly treason.

The giant Octopus (Devil Fish) dwells safe in its lair at 10 Lower Thames Street, London, England. Sir William Purves, the head of this colossal beast, slithers its powerful, slimy tentacles around the globe and into every crevice of every government in the World.

United States Secretary of State, Lady Madeleine Albright, is one of the top saboteur-provocateur Secret Agents of this Devil Fish, the HSBC Group. She is instigating and sucking America into the most degraded, dangerous International operations—criminal activities that bring down the wrath of the World on the American people and will destroy America.

Lady Madeleine's crazy lie that, quote, "she didn't even know she was a Jew" is the funniest Jew stand-up, comic routine since Jack Benny and George Burns. She was brought up and raised in the Jew International intrigue by her father, a secret agent. His political and financial involvements and depredations, with his furtive movements from country to country, have been documented.

Amidst all her destruction, Lady Madeleine's biggest operation—her immediate, intense focus—is on her laying waste of ASEAN Regional Forum. ASEAN is the Association of Southeast Asian Nations, composed of nine countries, Malaysia, Indonesia, Philippines, Singapore, Brunei, Thailand, Vietnam, Laos, and Burma (Myanmar).

Lady Madeleine's chief aides in this ASEAN operation are her under-secretary, Stuart Eizenstat (writer of the lies in the infamous Eizenstat report uprooting the Swiss banking system for the HSBC Group) and George Soros, an International financier who claims he is an American citizen. Both Soros and Eizenstat are secret agents of the Devil Fish.

This ASEAN operation involves the HSBC Group's conduit of drug money from their Asian banks influxing into the American political and judicial system which Senator Fred Thompson's committee is investigating.

The HSBC Group has over a hundred (100) banks in the ASEAN countries alone that have been sabotaging and terrorizing their politicians and governments for over a hundred years.

However, Lady Madeleine, Eizenstat and Soros have run into deep trouble. All of the ASEAN countries' politicians are not "stupid pushovers" and are mainly Muslim. This means more "big trouble" for America, who will be blamed for all the crimes of the HSBC Group emanating from 10 Lower Thames Street, London, England.

Malaysian Foreign Minister Abdullah Badawi, Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad, and Burmese Foreign Minister Ohn Gyau have erupted in unheard-of confrontations and challenges of Lady Madeleine's evil power.

In unprecedented, powerful language they are blaming the West for declining Asian currencies. Prime Minister Mohamad has long blamed George Soros' evil hand in the banks for destabilizing currencies; some of the ASEAN countries' currencies have lost a staggering 20% of their values.

With festering anger and open charges the ASEAN is rebelling and creating warlike tension against the West. Badawi blamed currency fluctuations on Western traders committing "unholy actions". He stated, "It is time that we recognize these actions for what they really are, namely villainous acts of sabotage." The ASEAN countries are publishing their accusations in their major newspapers.

Lady Madeleine's retort was the typical Jew response, "She was outraged."

But it is America who will be blamed and who will suffer what are we facing—a Holy War, a Jihad. And next, to make Lady Madeleine happy will we be sending our troops to beat down these ASEAN countries who are mainly Muslim?

What makes this investigation by Senator Fred Thompson, the Chairman of the Governmental Affairs Committee, so all important to America is the unvarnished factor that this is America's last chance. Senator Jesse Helms, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, and Senator Alfonse D'Amato, Chairman of the Banking Committee, also have the duty and responsibility to investigate these matters, but they long ago treasonously succumbed to the HSBC Group's drug money.

HILARION: MORE LESSONS ON THE FUNDAMENTALS OF CREATING

Editor's note: The following writing is by the Ascended Master known as Hilarion of the Fifth Ray, the Emerald (green) Ray of Healing, among the seven great "Rainbow Masters" communicating at this time to help us through Earth-Shan's planetary transition and rebalancing. See Journal #7 called THE RAINBOW MASTERS for more background on this important group of Teachers, plus earlier writings by them. Refer to the Back Page for Journal ordering information.

8/10/97 MASTER HILARION

Good morning and be at peace, my scribe, for all IS well! Master Hilarion present to continue where we left off at the end of last week's lesson. I come within the Light of Creator's magnificent and infinite spectral expression. I represent the Emerald Ray, as you would perceive same in the visible frequency range. You know me well.

We last spoke of the basics of preparation and following one's internal guidance system. We monitor the response from those of you who are taking in the information as given. We see the need to offer more upon the subject of connecting to your Higher Self.

You each are connected at all times to the higher energy of Source. However, when you are in a lower-frequency state, say due to emotional "stress", your ability to consciously connect is greatly diminished.

When you are feeling boredom, frustration, anger, or any of those states that debilitate, then you can know that your frequency has lowered and that the otherwise-free-flowing connection has been diminished or choked off. These feelings are, for most of you, associated with the heart energy center.

Many of you have experiences in your life where you were extremely excited and happy, and had a feeling that there was nothing in the world that could stop you. This is when the heart is soaring and you are vibrating at a frequency that more closely matches who you REALLY are!

When the heart energy center (your Guidance center) is radiating the higher-frequency emotions of joy, excitement, and enthusiasm, you will cause the solar plexus energy center (just below the heart center) to respond in like manner. It begins to "rev-up" and thus you begin to radiate with greater and greater intensity. All of your energy centers are connected in a coordinated and complimentary manner. The heart center and the solar plexus are closely linked, and many will say that they have a "gut" feeling regarding a particular experience when, in fact, more of that "gut" feeling may be emanating from the heart.

There is a great amount of lower-frequency energy being radiated at this time on your planet. However, due to the nature of the energy associated with this lower-frequency state, it is such that ONE who is radiating in a joyous state puts out more energy than a million who are radiating in the lower-energy state! Therefore, a balance can be achieved and the process of turning around the “mess” on your planet is truly not as difficult as it may at first appear.

As has been stated many times prior: IT ONLY TAKES ONE TO RECOGNIZE THEIR TRUE POTENTIAL AND THE GAME IS OVER!

This means that, from the point of view of energy dynamics, if there is just ONE who functions in the physical from a position of being truly connected to Higher Source, then that ONE can so greatly tip the scales back into balanced Radiance that the dark Elite controllers of your planet would shrivel to a point of insignificance.

This is the reason for the mind control of the masses—especially as you ones spoon-feed yourselves by way of your news media and television programing. Even the seemingly harmless “comedy” shows give forth subliminal (programing) suggestions that can cause you to feel helpless or ineffectual or dispersed (from an energy perspective), and induce attitudes that may distract you from a focus that would allow you to connect more fully with your true Potential of Being.

Please do not take the above statement in the wrong way. Understand that laughter is a most wonderful frequency vibration and is beneficial to your well-being. However, the Elite controllers are utilizing your media for programming your minds, and through such means have corrupted the potentially good to achieve their ends. This corruption is centered around the power of suggestion.

Therefore, it is the subtle nature of suggestion that will get you, for instance, to a point that you will find humor in something that is truly twisted and not humorous at all. Moreover, when you find yourself all wrapped up in some of the modern “bad guy” movies, then you may want to ask yourself: “Is there truly joy in this sort of violence, or am I that desensitized to actual violence that I have become numb to it?”

Recognize that the “numbness” of mind keeps you off balance and in a mode of seeking something of even greater “shock” value in order to register the slightest charge of emotional stimulation. This desensitizing situation has been built-up to such a level in recent years that the movie producers are finding it more and more difficult to pack enough violence and/or sex into a film so that the public will even want to see it! Meanwhile the desensitization causes you to lose touch with your Spiritual Center, your Guidance, your Source of Being.

We monitor many who say with the mouth that they want to feel more connected to the spiritual nourishment of Higher Self. Yet all the while these same ones sit in front of their television screens, day after day, in ritualistic fashion, filling their heads with programming that will eventually lower their frequency to such a level that they will surely be among the first to “jump through the hoops” whenever the Elite controllers say to jump through those hoops.

Large companies like Pepsi Cola, Anhauser-Busch, Colgate-Palmolive or General Motors do not pay millions of dollars for 15-second spots of advertising (brainwashing) during events like the Super Bowl because they are ineffectual. Rather, the power of suggestion is most commanding over the largely-brain-dead masses of idiot-box junkies.

Many of you would be far wiser to spend more of your time focusing on strengthening your Inner Connection and Guidance System. And then, when you can truly FEEL your connection and KNOW that you can pull yourself out of the negativity of the world, THEN go back and watch the programming and monitor your response. It will be quite different—and instructive in its revelations!

Raising your frequency, and thus connecting more fully with your Higher Self, is as simple as visualizing a time when you were feeling really good and resonating again with that situation as if you were there. Now hold that feeling and begin to feel it radiating from within you, out to the whole universe.

This is what it FEELS like to be connected at a higher frequency. You can do this anytime you desire.

Now, while maintaining this high-frequency vibration, focus your thoughts upon your desires, with that feeling of joy in your heart, and you will be a million times more powerful in manifesting your desires in the physical!

If you find it difficult to hold these higher emotional frequencies, then take a moment to look at what it is you are resisting and simply let go of it. Then, again, focus on those thoughts from times that bring forth joy you have known. Soon you will find that what you are radiating is the higher-frequency energies, and you are connecting with who you REALLY are—a Being of Light who has been endowed by God with INFINITE capabilities of creating!

Now, when you have done this, and you KNOW that you can feel this joy anytime you like, and that there is no situation wherein you cannot pull yourself out of the lower frequencies and into the higher frequencies, then it is time to focus your thoughts upon that which causes these creative energies to intensify. That is, FOCUS on the way you would like your life to be; FEEL what it will be like; RADIATE your heart's desire with the power of joy and enthusiasm—and you will be amazed at how fast change will manifest and the joy will flow into your experience like never before. Then you will know, with Inner Certainty that IS the God Source within, that you cannot be stopped or dragged down or contained within another person's drama—unless YOU so choose same!

A CAUTION: As I gave for background in last week's lesson, seek first a condition of balance—else you will find that you are actually more focused upon what you do NOT want, and you will miss a very fundamental dynamic of creation. If you do NOT want poverty, then don't dwell upon a perceived condition of poverty, but upon abundance!

The fundamental point here is that YOUR Higher Self connection is YOUR guidance system. And when you are properly focusing your desires, your Higher Self will offer HIGH-FREQUENCY emotional support, and well-being WILL manifest.

Always try to follow and sustain the high-frequency signals. When you encounter lower-frequency situations, look at what it is you are doing (or thinking) which has caused this encounter. Find a better way to meet the challenge. Often this means letting go of that which you are resisting (that is, change your focus). Be thankful for the experience, for you now know better where to focus your thoughts and energy.

Your Higher Self will naturally guide you through your challenges, and the resulting growth will enable you to more fully recognize your true potential. In this way you will be doing your part to turn around the low-vibration condition on your planet. If not YOU, then who?

Stop waiting for another to do it for you and you will eventually come to understand that the reason you were so disconnected in the first place was because you were not following the guidance within that says: “TAKE ACTION!” In the larger perspective, there are no wrong actions, only better choices of action. If the result of an action taken leaves you feeling worse than you felt prior to the action, then change the focus (now that you are wiser) and TAKE MORE ACTION! This is why you are there on that third-dimensional playing field!

If you do not have a job, or you are unhappy with the one you now have, then get focused on what it is that you are wanting, and go interview with as many companies as you can. Do it with enthusiasm radiating from your being, and you are likely to get the job that you are not even qualified to do.

Worry and fear will only serve to lock you into a mundane existence with little about which to truly feel good. JOY and ENTHUSIASM are the signals from Higher Self that tell you that what you are focused on is in alignment with who you really are. If you are feeling otherwise, then you can know that your focus could be better.

There is no limit to the joy you can create; it is truly infinite. When you are connected and aligned in joy, your physical condition (whatever it is) will naturally return to complete balance and perfection, given enough time and persistence. Resist the alignment with Higher Self for any continued length of time, and your physical condition is likely to suffer. Why do you think that “stress” has been observed to cause so many physical illnesses?

You ones are entering a higher-frequency area of planetary travel (Photon Belt area of space), and as the upward frequency-shifting of your space continues, there will be less and less tolerance for out-of-balance, lower-frequency energies. Negative physical manifestations in the body will come more rapidly to you who have the tendency to dip down into the lower-energy emotions for any length of time.

Know that you can turn around your emotional state instantly by simply changing your focus of thought. When you are feeling down, take a moment to look at what you can be thankful for, and know that what you are experiencing is what you have created for yourself, and you can change it anytime you like by simply focusing the mind on those things that cause the HEART to soar.

There is more stated here than what words alone can convey. Go within and seek your own clarity. Resist not the simple answers, for many will find that the simple answers are the RIGHT ones—so much so that you may find yourselves slightly embarrassed for having missed these simple (NOT simplistic!) points all these years.

There is great joy awaiting you all! Get clear; get focused; and carry out your Inspired actions with JOY! The dark ones cannot control you who live in this en-Light-ened way.

I am Master Hilarion, come as Teacher and Lightworker, here to assist those who would desire insights and tools for spiritual awakening. I am but a heartbeat away; call upon my energy and I will respond. In Light and Love, Salu!

THE NEWS DESK
ANOTHER SPECIAL REPORT
by Dr. Al Overholt 8/9/97

EXTREMELY URGENT
IMMEDIATE ATTENTION REQUIRED!

THE LATEST VERSION OF GESTAPO TACTICS IN DISGUISE

From the INTERNET, pnpj@db1.cc.rochester.edu (Patricia Neill), 8/1/97, [quoting:]

Yesterday I received an alarming 8-page fax. It was a copy of a set of papers being distributed by a group called "Coalition For Democracy".

This group consists of 23 organizations including the Anti-Defamation League, State Pride Agenda, People for the American Way, Planned Parenthood, United Teachers, AFL-CIO, and Humanist Society [emphasis mine].

They are sending a "survey" to all public schools to determine "the nature and extent of activity intended to break down the constitutional separation between church and state". It refers to "concern over the growth of the Radical Right"...and "political and religious extremists' attempts to impose their religious, social and moral values on all of us". The letter emphasizes a desire to have "all future incidents documented and reported to them on an ongoing basis", and assures all parties concerned that their answers will be confidential [If you believe this—I've got a bridge to sell you.]. The stated purpose of the survey is to gather information on "hate crimes" [Their definition of any of your actions that they dislike.].

The underlying danger is that many of the "hate groups" they have listed are organizations such as the Christian Coalition, Family Friendly Libraries, Promise Keepers, American Family Association, Eagle Forum, Focus on the Family, National Association of Christian Educators, The Rutherford Institute, Traditional Values Coalition and others—which are not hate groups!

Even if the schools don't respond, the damage is already done. The hidden purpose of their survey is to link hate groups and hate crimes with known pro-family groups. This survey is a clever piece of blatant propaganda designed to convince people that groups who are concerned with children or parents and who object to sex education and the promotion of homosexuality are associated with hate groups like Neo-Nazis!

The most insidious section was that which asked for information regarding "letters saying that...a parent does not want his/her child taught or exposed to such things as evolution, values clarification, non-academic personality tests, curricula pertaining to drugs and alcohol, discussion of the occult, education in human sexuality, globalism and anti-nationalistic curriculum..."

This group is actually requesting copies of letters written by parents who object to sex-education, curriculum, etc...and adding these parents' names to a list of those who supposedly commit hate crimes. As soon as parents object, they get painted with a "religious, right-wing fanatical nut" brush. It is urgent that we fight for the immediate removal of state laws which require parents to object to sex-education, etc., on religious grounds rather than strictly on the rights of parents to raise their own children properly.

We have a copy of the survey. Please contact us immediately for further information or to find out if your organization is among the 34 identified.

COALITION FOR DEMOCRACY
(Upstate New York)

PO Box 5341, Albany, New York 12205-0341, 518-439-7740.

Dear Colleague:

The Upstate New York Coalition for Democracy is a non-partisan, multi-issue network of organizations and individuals dedicated to upholding democracy and the constitutional rights of all people. We are committed to supporting and promoting diversity and mutual respect. Our Membership includes the Adirondack Religious Coalition for Choice, Albany/Schenectady League of Arts, Albany County Rape Crisis Center, American Association of University Women (Schenectady Chapter), Anti-Defamation League, New York State Region, Capital District Humanist Society, Citizen Action of New York State, Empire State Pride Agenda, Family Planning Advocates of New York State, Fiscal Policy Institute, Institute for First Amendment Studies, National Women's Political Caucus, NYS/Capital District Chapter, National Education Association of New York, New York State Alliance for Arts Education, New York State United Teachers, AFL-CIO, People for the American Way Action Fund, Planned Parenthood Health Services of NENY, Statewide Youth Advocacy, Upstate New York Black Women's Health Project, Upper Hudson Planned Parenthood, and YWCA of Schenectady [Almost all of which are either anti-American, anti-family or anti-God organizations—or any combination of the three.].

We have been brought together by our concern for the growth of the Radical Right in upstate New York, by attempts of political and religious extremists to impose their religious, social and moral values on all of us, and to limit the free and open discussion that is the basis of our democratic process and electoral system.

One of our first tasks is to survey the region: to develop an accurate and comprehensive understanding of the nature and extent of activity intended to break down the constitutional separation between church and state [And, so they can build profile-lists on all protestors who will be the ones to be brought before their judges—for placing in "camps" or worse—as soon as they take over full control of our government—which they are sure will happen in the near future.]. To that end, we have enclosed a survey that we hope you will disseminate to your organizational leadership and to key membership throughout the geographical areas you cover.

Please be aware that we have no interest in characterizing or labeling groups or individuals [Have you ever seen any better liars than the above groups??]. We are aware that any single incident does not necessarily indicate an organized Radical Right [This is their name for any non-traitor!!] presence or agenda. The information you share with us will be used only as part of our documentation process and to suggest patterns and areas to which we should give further attention. Please be as detailed as possible. Specific answers will be confidential. If you have any questions, call 518-869-9004. Please return this survey no later than May 15, 1997. We hope your organization will document and report future incidents to us on an ongoing basis.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Blue Carreker

CHAPTER 20

HISTORIC FIRST AMENDMENT ACTION LEGAL UPDATE by Eustace Mullins 8/5/97

Dear Rick,

Enclosed is my latest filing, Memorandum of Points and Authorities in the Nesher case. I call it Nesher because the Berkshire Eagle is Lelyveld's paper and Nesher is the Hebrew word for eagle.

There are some very important legal points in here which might make it worthwhile to print the entire Memorandum. I was introduced to Frederic Jesup Stimson's great work The Law Of The Federal And State Constitutions Of The United States in 1980 by a friend in Washington. Stimson says "The cardinal principle is that no fact can be found without the intervention of the petit jury." This does away with the entire Discovery mechanism, which is Talmudic.

Stimson says, "The common law sounds only in damages." This means that the statutory principles invoked against a litigant are invalid. He states, "Bearing in mind firmly the principle that the English law sounds only in damages, and that the notion of ordering or even forbidding, any act (except under a criminal statute) is utterly foreign to its system." Yet the defendant ORDERS me to provide a list of all my residences for the last 46 years, which I am unable to provide. It will be interesting to see where this goes. Their lawyers again denounced all my pleadings as "rambling and nonsensical". Stimson is the finest scholar in our legal history, yet my quotes from him are "rambling and nonsensical"!

Will keep you informed,

/s/ Eustace Mullins

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

EUSTACE C. MULLINS
PLAINTIFF
V.
THE BERKSHIRE EAGLE
DEFENDANT

WESTERN SECTION
CIVIL ACTION No.96-CV-30221 -FHF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO EXPUNGE DEFENDANT'S
DISCOVERY AND PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE FROM THE RECORD

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Plaintiff, Eustace C. Mullins, appearing for himself as the movant, a private citizen, a citizen in party, who has firsthand knowledge of the facts, herewith submits to the Court the Memorandum of Points and Authorities to support this Motion, as follows:

1. This is an action brought alleging violations of the First Amendment rights of Plaintiff, denial of freedom of speech, and denial of the right to peaceably assemble, protected by the language of the First Amendment (1791) “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.”

2. This is a historic First Amendment action, citing grievous violations of these rights. The Court is sworn to uphold the Constitution, and has the responsibility to fully protect Plaintiff’s First Amendment rights. Freedom of speech is the citizen’s exercise of political power; without it, he is emasculated and has no political being in this Republic. The Nation in its issue of July 21, 1997, quotes Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, “freedom of speech means freedom for the speech we hate”; Holmes called for a “a free trade in ideas” and declared that “the best test of truth is the power of the thought to get itself accepted in the marketplace”. The Nation cites two Supreme Court decisions upholding this right, the recent striking down of the Communications Decency Act in Reno v. A.C.L.U., and the Supreme Court’s 1976 ruling in Buckley v. Valeo, stating “The concept that the government may restrict the speech of some elements in our society in order to enhance the relative voice of others is wholly foreign to the First Amendment”.

3. In this same issue, “Speech and Power” of The Nation, Ronald L. Collins and David M. Shover, law professors at Seattle University write, urging that we “liberate the public discourse of the First Amendment from lawyers and law professors and open it up to other perspectives.” Floyd Abrams, who lectures on the First Amendment at the Columbia Graduate School of Journalism, states, “The oldest reality about the First Amendment is this: Hardly anyone really believes that we should protect the speech of those from whom we differ.” This was the attitude of Defendant in its assault on Plaintiff, and it is the attitude of Defendant throughout its Discovery demands made upon Plaintiff.

4. Throughout its Discovery, defendant perpetrates a fraud and a hoax upon the Court by largely ignoring the First Amendment violations and attempting to focus this action on racial issues, which it deliberately created and interjected in order to incite racial hatred throughout the Berkshire area. An even greater hoax was its crude attempt to convince Jewish residents of the area that they were in dire peril from Plaintiff despite Plaintiff’s prior advertisements that he intended to lecture only on the Federal Reserve System, with no mention of race, gender, or national origin. Plaintiff hopes to allay these unwarranted fears and reassure the alarmed Jewish residents of the area by citing Jacob Heilbrunn, in his article, Christian Rights, in the July 7, 1997 issue of the New Republic. Heilbrunn commends Michael Horowitz, whom he defines as “a Jewish neoconservative” and cites Horowitz’ article in the Wall Street Journal, July 5, 1995, “For American Jews who owe our very lives to the open door of ‘the blessed land’, silence should not be an option in the face of persecutions eerily parallel to those committed by Adolf Hitler.” Horowitz was urging people to protest the present persecutions of Christians in China, Africa, and the Middle East.

5. Defendant's Discovery reveals a determination to force Plaintiff out of this action by heaping upon him irrelevant and unanswerable demands, such as all of Plaintiff's places of residence since 1951, forty-six years during which Plaintiff traveled and researched extensively in many cities in temporary housing of a few days at a time, and of which he maintained no records, due to not having an office, any employees, or places in which to house such records. By these actions, defendant hopes to bring about what one famous attorney calls "Death by Discovery", the total destruction of an aged litigant in poor health by forcing him out of the action out of law, in effect, making him an "out-law", which was the original meaning of this term. This violates Cap 39 Magna Carta (1215), "No free man shall be taken or imprisoned or diseased, or outlawed, or exiled, or anyway destroyed." This legal principle survives in our Constitution, as noted by Frederic Jesup Stimson, "THE LAW OF THE FEDERAL AND STATE CONSTITUTIONS OF THE UNITED STATES", p. 11, "The Right to Law. The law required by this general right, furthermore, must be the Common Law of the English people. That is to say, in origin, the body of their free customs and usages, made by themselves; not by a king, and also, in earliest days, enforced by themselves; and furthermore, it must be the Common Law, not the Roman or Civil law, nor the Canon or Church law, nor any supposed Administrative law, or orders or decrees of the king, or king in Council. In early English trials, therefore, what was tried was rarely whether the man did the deed (it was usually admitted or known), but whether he was right in doing it; that is to say, was he in his law. Was he acting upon a state of facts whereon the unwritten law gave the right of reparation or vengeance into his own hands? If not, he was out of law, outlaw; that is, he had lost his right to law as against anyone molesting him in person or property."

Stimson points out on p. 24, "The common law sounds in damages... Thus, the earliest codes or statutes merely fix a scale of penalties. The notion of compelling a free man to do something or to abstain from doing something was foreign to Anglo-Saxon ideas of liberty. Like the doctrine of free will carried to its extreme, a freeman was lord of his own acts; only liable for the consequences of the same, to the person injured; later, only to the Crown if a criminal act, and to the individual injured if a private wrong. Even when the judgment of the court was against him, the defendant was never compelled to do a thing, or even, in ordinary cases, to make restitution, as in the Oriental system of rendering justice. This principle must never be lost sight of, for it explains many things noted in local history."

Stimson continues, "Bearing in mind firmly the principle that the English law sounds only in damages, and that the notion of ordering or even forbidding any act (except under a criminal statute) is utterly foreign to its system; and the cardinal principle that no fact can be found without the intervention of the petit jury: we shall be able to understand both the historical reason and the present meaning of the objections of the American people to the injunctive powers of chancery and ex parte sentences for contempt made by the judge who issued the injunction and upon the facts as found by him showing the infringement of the same."

Although Stimson here is commenting upon the chancery procedure, the defendant's Discovery itself becomes a chancery procedure or, more aptly, a Star Chamber procedure, with its insistence that Plaintiff furnish under oath all details of his past fifty years of research and addresses while doing this work, while ignoring the facts of September 26, 1996, when Defendant launched its frenzied and libelous assault against Plaintiff to prevent him from speaking or having an assembly in the Berkshire area. On p. 59, Stimson writes that "Chancery jurisdiction rested originally on the royal powers as wielded by the King through his Chancellor (in civil matters) or Justiciar (in criminal). These high officials were usually clerics, hence familiar with canon or Roman law rather than the Anglo-Saxon common law, which they probably despised. The common law knew only one remedial process: punishment for doing wrong; it could not, as a priest might do, order a litigant to do right... From the Chancellor grew the court of chancery and all our courts of equity. Mitigating or supplementing the somewhat clumsy and uncompromising common law was well and good; but the Chancellor also shared in this extraordinary, un-English, Norman, and tyrannical power of ordering a free citizen to do something he did not wish to do... For what we may call the Continental notion, derived from the Roman, is that all law rests on the order of a sovereign to his subject, coupled with a threat of punishment if he does not obey; to make a man do something or not do something. This is still more the Oriental notion... But this notion had absolutely no place in the common law of England.

An Englishman was a free man, responsible for his acts: he could be punished for them by the state, or made to pay damages for them by the individual; but he could not be ordered to do anything. In the earliest days of all, when in Saxon tribes each man executed his own law, the “courts”, i.e. the assembly of his neighbors, only tried the question of whether he was in his right in so doing, and if not he paid a regular fine, at first fixed by custom, later and most elaborately, by the earliest written laws we have preserved in England.”

Plaintiff further cites Magna Carta (1215) Cap 35, “The writ called Praeceptum shall not in future be issued so as to cause a freeman to lose his court.”

6. Defendant’s Discovery pretends that it seeks to ascertain “facts” after having steadfastly refused to ascertain any of these facts by interviewing Plaintiff, despite Plaintiff’s repeated efforts to have defendant interview him after the libelous attack of September 26, 1996, was published in the Berkshire Eagle. The real effort here is to deny Plaintiff a trial of this action, to obstruct justice, and to prevent a jury from hearing any of the facts in this case. The ancient legal maxim is that “Discovery simply means an attempt to discover the best way to get rid of an opponent.” It is also the legal profession’s tried-and-true technique to get rid of a citizen who attempts to represent himself in a legal action.

7. Despite Defendant’s persistent attempts to obscure and ignore the issues of this action, namely, denial of freedom of speech, denial of the right to peaceably assemble, and criminal libel committed by the defendant against Plaintiff, these issues remain before the Court and must be addressed. This is one of the two most important civil rights actions ever to be argued in a Massachusetts court. It deals with the most heinous hate crime committed in the State of Massachusetts in 1996, and the media has resolutely refused to report it.

8. Art. 4 Sec 2 Constitution of the United States. “The citizens of each state shall be entitled to all the privileges and immunities of citizens in the several states.” 16 Corpus Juris Secundum 199: “The basic principle of our constitutional system is that all political power is inherent in the people. A constitutional right is quoted from any attack or interference by the legislature, or any other governmental agency of the state.” Sec. 205, “right of personal security. The courts must ever be able to protect personal rights guaranteed by state or federal constitutions. Constitutional rights cannot be made dependent on the favor of the court. Neither may they be abridged or suspended even for a single moment; it is a constitutional function of the American Judiciary to protect life and liberty against high-handed or capricious official invasions operating under legal forms.”
