Cleansing the Territory

The Spirit of the Early Texas Rangers

It Lives Again in the Ranks of the C.O.T.C.

by Ben Klassen, P.M.

We of the Church of the Creator are proud of the yeoman service rendered by the early Texas Rangers in the expansion and advancement of the White Race in America. They were a comraderie of brave and heroic men at a time when the White Race in America was building the world's finest empire -- an empire that was soon to reach from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

They were lawmen and they were pioneers. They were gunmen and they were Indian fighters and they were racists. They were the protectors of the pioneering White settlers from the marauding Indians and also the encroaching Mexicans. Their motto in the mid-nineteenth century was: "The only good Indian is a dead Indian!", a policy which, if it had been continued by the Federal government, would have saved today's overburdened White taxpayers from having hordes of these pathetic and useless semi-savages on the public welfare rolls.

But the early Texas Rangers were not only protecting the fledgling White settlers from the Indians. They did much more. It was their avowed goal to drive every Mexican and Indian from out of the then Republic of Texas. And drive them out they did, with a zeal that we would do well to emulate today.

It was Stephen F. Austin who pioneered the colonization of Texas by the White Man. His father, Moses Austin, had visions of bringing White settlers into the then Mexican held territory of Texas, and started the initial negotiations with the Mexican government in 1820. His early death the next year left the unfulfilled plans and obligations squarely on the shoulders of his son, Stephen Fuller Austin, who at that time was 28.

By 1824 Austin had almost fulfilled his contractual obligations with the Mexican government of bringing in a total of 300 settlers, each of which received a grant of 4605 acres, and who in turn had certain contractual obligations to Austin and to the colony.

ANOTHER VICTIM

TERROR AGAINST WHITES

Lisa Lauenders, 6, a beautiful blue-eyed White girl, has been abused, tortured, beaten and killed by a sadistic Jewish lawyer, Joel Steinberg.

The Jew lawyer charged Lisa's mother $500 for his "services" in trying to place Lisa with a "decent Christian family", but then he decided to break that promise and keep the little girl for himself as an object of sadistic/sexual abuse.

Investigator later found out that the New York Jew lawyer was "specializing" in illegally "adopting" White babies and later selling them to rich infertile couples. It is interesting to note, that a Jew doctor was also charged in this case as an accomplice in approving the illegal "adoption" papers.

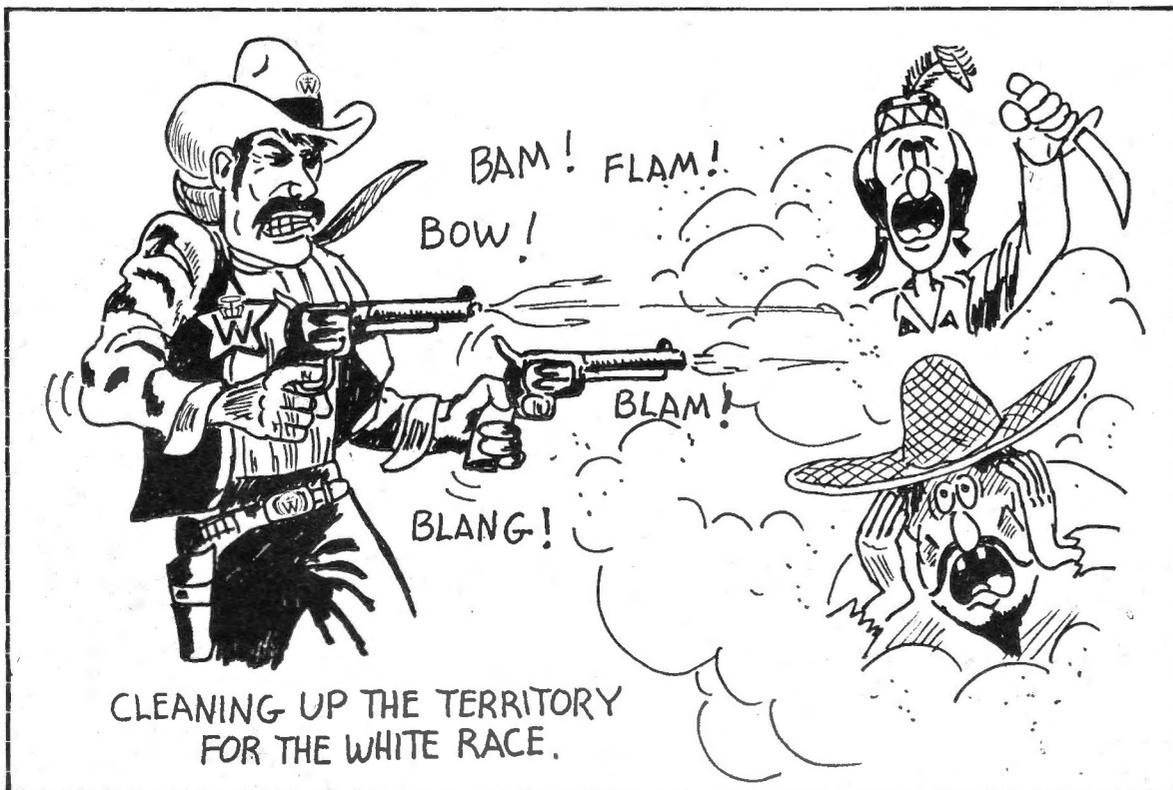

Betrayal, lies, overcharging, abuse and murder... -- how typically Jewish all that is! Let Lisa's case be a warning to all White people never to trust a Jew lawyer or a Jew doctor: they, as well as all the other Jews, are the mortal enemies of the White Race.

WHITE PEOPLE AWAKE!

One of the problems the struggling new colony had to provide for was that of maintaining law and order in a wild and wide open territory of considerable dimensions. Though the settlers themselves were mostly good solid citizens (their character references had been carefully checked before acceptance), there was still the problem of outlaws, desperados and marauding bands of Indians.

When Stephen Austin put forth the call for volunteers, the men quickly replied to the need, and formed local defense groups that Austin organized to repel Indian attacks. These militia companies soon switched from stationary defense to wide-ranging horse patrols, and concluded that the best defense was to go on the offensive. Thus these patrols came to be known as "ranging companies" and became the forerunners of the legendary (and notorious) Texas Rangers.

Initially, the chief targets were the Indian tribes that infested their territory and settlements, and any Indian was fair game. Attacks on Indians were not only a practical necessity for the survival of the settlers, but a contractual duty that Austin owed to the Mexican government, who at that time still had sovereignty over the territory, and in some instances such Indian raids were carried out with the collaboration of, and on direct orders from, the Mexican military.

By the year 1836 when the fledgling colony had expanded its numbers of White Americans, the Indians were not the only menace. The Mexican government itself became a thorn in the side of the White settlers. As it watched the incoming Americans increase, the Mexican government became apprehensive of their growing numbers and became more hostile and oppressive to the settlers over which it nevertheless still considered itself as the sovereign lord and master. The White settlers, on the other hand, were chafing under the taxes, the customs and the Catholic regimen of what they now considered as a culture and a government alien to their own.

The massacre of the 176 brave men at the Alamo in February of 1836 both panicked and also galvanized the spirit and determination of the free-wheeling White American settlers.

On March 16, the Texans promulgated their own Declaration of Independence and elected David Burnet as provisional President of their newly formed Republic. When Sam Houston and his rag-tag band of 800 volunteers trapped and then annihilated Santa Anna's army of 4000 at San Jacinto on April 21 of the same year, they sealed their independence in blood.

Houston's heroic battle at San Jacinto was one of the more important victories in American history. Although small in comparison, it was the battle that decided that Texas was to become the White Man's domain and not that of the mongrelized mestizo Mexicans. The decisive San Jacinto victory rightfully earned Sam Houston a glorious place as an outstanding hero not only in Texas and American history, but also in the history of the entire White Race. We of the C.O.T.C. recognize him as such and are hanging an oil portrait of him in our gallery of "White Men of Whom we are Proud" in our World Headquarters.

Sam Houston became the first elected president of the fledgling Republic of Texas in October of 1836, his first term of office being limited to two years by the Texas constitution. When he came into the presidency the newly created Republic was in shambles. The land area claimed by Texas after the revolution was 242,594,560 acres, stretching from the Sabine and Red rivers on the east, to the Rio Grande on the West. There were now 30,000 Texans who had settled 62,594,560 acres, but nearly half of this had been ravaged and devastated by Santa Anna's marauding forces. The economy of Texas was in ruins, food was scarce and prices were sky high. Flour was selling at an unprecedented price of $18 per barrel, corn at $1.50 per bushel. The Republic was saddled with a public debt of $1,250,000 incurred during the revolution.

Furthermore, a seething and resentful Mexico refused to recognize the boundaries established by the newly formed Republic of Texas, and an invasion of 25,000 Mexican troops was feared by the spring of 1837. Not only did the Republic have the threat of the Mexican invasion hanging over their heads, but Indian depredations, too, were taking their toll. The Republic was bankrupt and could not afford to finance a standing army.

"The White Man and the red man cannot live in harmony together. Nature forbids it!"

Mirabeau Bounaparte Lamar, the 2nd President of the Republic of Texas

At Houston's urging, the Texas congress turned its attention to the Texas Rangers. Veterans of San Jacinto and young brawlers from all over Texas came to join in answer to Houston's call. Such outstanding and notorious fighters as Deaf Smith, Ben McCulloch, Edward Burlinson, Noah Smithwick, W.A.A. "Bigfoot" Wallace, Jack C. Hayes, Samuel H. Walker and George Thomas Howard were all destined to become enshrined in the hearts of Texans, and, might I say, in the present era of the White Man's struggle for survival, in the hearts of all Creators. Houston quickly organized 600 men into three divisions as a border patrol to guard against either Mexican or Indian attack.

For ten years the Republic of Texas walked a lonely road, constantly under threat of the more powerful Mexican Republic to the south, and the ever marauding Indian tribes in its own territory and on its extended borders. When Houston's two year term as president was up, he was succeeded by his former vice-president, Mirabeau Bounaparte Lamar, a one-time Georgia newspaper publisher and poet. Lamar stated the racial conflict succinctly: "The White Man and the red man cannot live in harmony together. Nature forbids it!" He saw the conflict clearly, as a three-cornered racial war between the mestizo Mexicans, the Indians, and the White Man. It was such in 1840, it remains as such today.

During its ten year tenure as an independent republic, the Texas government and its strong-arm Texas Rangers were well on their way to cleaning up the Texas territory for the White Man. Upon annexation of Texas as a state into the Union in 1845, the Federal government took control of Indian affairs. Much to the consternation of the Texans, the Washington government now took a paternal attitude towards the savage Indians. Whereas the Texans had from their very inception as an independent Republic sought out, pursued and destroyed the Indian villages and encampments within their territory, the Federal government now reversed this policy and set up Indian reservations on Texas soil. It made a number of meaningless treaties with these lawless savages and actually protected and fed them. Instead of solving the Indian problem, it now aggravated and promoted it, much to the chagrin of the Texans. The White Texans wondered just whose side the Federal government was on.

Finally in 1859, the Texans had had enough and took matters into their own hands. They abolished every reservation, and drove every Indian out of Texas territory. It was a superb task, ably carried out by the Texas Rangers. Any Indian found on Texas soil after that was there at his own risk.

We now want to highlight a few of the colorful characters of this noble and heroic band of racial warriors. There is a rich lore and there are a considerable number to whom we could refer, but we will pick only a few at random.

Captain Jack Coffee Hayes. It was Capt. Hayes who revolutionized mounted warfare in the 1840's by adopting Samuel Colt's new-fangled handgun as a primary cavalry weapon. Invented in 1836, the early Colt five-shot revolver was fragile and prone to misfire. The U.S. Army had rejected the weapon as a mere novelty. But Hays thought differently. The Comanche Indians he was fighting could shoot a dozen arrows in the time it took his men to dismount, muzzle load their cumbersome rifles and fire a round. Captain Hays dispatched Ranger Samuel H. Walker to help Colt modify the revolver, and the result was a durable, quick firing, easy to load six-shooter, known as the Walker Colt.

During the Mexican War when it was the Texas Rangers who were usually at the forefront leading the U.S. Army into Mexico, the Walker Colt proved its mettle. The revolver wielding Texans proved so effective that this weapon was finally adopted as the official sidearm for all U.S. cavalry men.

Ranger Captain Ben McCulloch led 40 men through Texas lines to find a route from Matamoros west to Monterey for the invading U.S. Army. In 10 days, he and his men traversed 250 miles and raided several villages and rancheros without being once sighted by the Mexicans.

So fierce and elusive were the Rangers that the Mexicans called them Los Tejanos Diablos--The Texas Devils. After the capture of Mexico City, with much credit due the Rangers, the Texans earned another name: Los Tejanos Sanguinarios -- The Bloodthirsty Texans. Quick-triggered at best, the Rangers were enraged when one of their men was murdered in a villainous part of the City, and went on a shooting spree that left 80 dead Mexicans lying in the streets.

Captain John S. (Rip) Ford. The Comanches came to regard the Texas Rangers with ever greater fear and terror. In the 1850's, the seek-and-destroy missions staged in the 1820's were refined to a bloody art by the latter-day Rangers. In 1858 Ranger Captain Ford was given command of all Texas state forces -- militia as well as Rangers, and ordered to use whatever means necessary to end Comanche pillaging in northern Texas. Ford gathered a force of 215 men, mostly Rangers, and tracked a band of Comanches all the way to the Canadian River in Oklahoma. The trail led to a large Comanche village, defended by 300 warriors. They were, however, no match for the well armed Texans, who lost only two killed and two wounded. In the encounter they killed 76 Indians, including the chief, took 18 prisoners, captured 300 horses and destroyed the village's food stores.

In the years to come, the Rangers used their effective mobile assault forces to drive the Comanches and the Cherokees out of Texas. After the Civil War, the U.S. Cavalry adopted the Ranger's tactics to crush Indian resistance in the West.

* * * * *

Today the White Race faces a very similar racial dilemma which is crowding in on us and threatening to destroy our White civilization, our race and our gene pool, as did the early Texans from the depredations of the Indians and the Mexicans.

In the latter part of the twentieth century the White Race is besieged not only by a scattering of Indians, but by millions of Mexicans, millions of niggers, millions of Asiatics, and in fact all the scum and freeloaders of the world, not the least of which is the tribe of Judah. The racial war may be much more complex today than it was in the early days of Texas, but the issue is basically the same. It boils down to one eternal law of history and of Nature, that was enunciated by President Mirabeau Lamar in 1840. That law still stands today: "The White Race and the mud races cannot live in the same territory. Nature forbids it!" We will either cleanse our territory of the mud races as did the Texas Rangers a century and a half ago, or we -- the White Race -- will be utterly destroyed. If we, the White Race, do not take a firm hand in changing the course of racial flooding of the mud races that are being dumped upon once White America, we will in the course of the next generation be deluged into extinction.

"The only good Indian is a dead Indian!"

early Texas Rangers*

White people awake! In our creed and program we have stated again and again what the grim lessons of history have repeatedly taught us -- namely, that a polyglot nation or a polyglot society can neither be governed nor can it endure. By sheer breeding alone the mud races will crowd us out of our own territory and off the face of the earth. As I have pointed out in any number of chapters and articles, a fate similar to that which befell San Domingo awaits us here in America. (See p.176 of the WMB, "The Grisly Lesson of San Domingo -- A Forerunner for White America.")

Whether we like it or not, grim and appalling disaster is staring us in the face. Nature's Finest -- the White Race -- is doomed to rapid extinction unless we take determined and, yes, ruthless action, as did the Texas Rangers in the early history of that state. We must again realize our racial values and guard and protect them with our very lives, as did the valiant heroes-at the Alamo, and as did Sam Houston and his rag-tag army at San Jacinto in 1836, as did the heroic Texas Rangers. We must drive the alien scum from out of our midst as did the Texas Rangers in the middle of the nineteenth century. Furthermore, we must make it clear that we are determined to hang those racial traitors who are now selling us out to the enemy, as did Gen. Winfield Scott to the San Patricio traitors in 1848 at the end of the War with Mexico. (See p. 204, WMB.)

*Under the Victorious Flag of the One and Only Truly
White Racial Religion - Creativity*

by Rev. Victor Wolf

THE FINAL HOUR OF WHITE POWER

As the Jew-instigated crashing end of White civilization enters its final stages, more and more White people in the U.S. and all over the world are becoming not only concerned but downright alarmed by the negative aspects of the Jewish conspiracy: anti-White demographic trends, anti-White immigration policies, anti-White criminal terror in the city streets, anti-White brain-pollution in the Jew-controlled media, anti-White economic, social, political and educational discrimination in the form of confiscatory taxation, affirmative action, mixed housing, busing, race mixing and (the latest addition!) colorization (or more appropriately -- mudization) of the college curriculum in order to break the influence of White scholars who are now being called (get this!) "DWMs -- the Dead White Males"...

The list of problems, abuses, threats and insults confronting the White people is endless, and it is forcing the White people to desperately search for a solution and salvation.

CREATIVITY IS THE ONLY SALVATION

They may search long and hard, but eventually (if there is still time!) they will have to admit that the White Racial Religion -- Creativity is the only salvation for the White Race. Here are some facts that should be

Only the Church of the Creator has the firm, unflinching program to take ruthless and determined action to cleanse our territory. We are determined to do so not only in the United States, but throughout the world, to expunge the exploding scum and mud races that are now threatening to turn this planet into another San Domingo, or Ethiopia, or El Salvador, or any of the dozens of other anarchistic and rampaging areas of crime, revolution and terror that is now spreading across the world. White Man, wake up! It is now or never! Whether we like it or not, the Jew has now embroiled us in a racial war from which we cannot escape, and in the showdown one side or the other will be totally destroyed. Either we drive the Jew from power, take charge of our own destiny or we will be utterly, ruthlessly destroyed and exterminated from the face of the earth.

Join the the C.O.T.C.! Only in Creativity is there a firm, intelligent, complete and comprehensive program to do the job that must be done. Join with us now! Join with us in the Racial Holy War that is now upon us! And like the Texas Rangers of old, let us finish the job and cleanse the land. For a Whiter and Brighter World! RAHOWA!

"Know you're right and keep on a-coming!"

considered by every White person searching for a solution to the imminent disaster:

1. Every danger evokes a "fight or flight" syndrome among the victims. However, as far as the White Race is concerned, the "flight" option is no longer available, because there are no longer any places to flee to: the racial situation in Australia, Canada or Europe is in some respects even worse than in the U.S. Whether you like it or not, the only option available to you, White Man, is to stay and fight it out to the bitter end here and now!

2. However, to fight successfully you need to have a well-thought-out strategy / program / ideology / religion, otherwise your fight will be ineffective and doomed to failure. Please analyze all of the available strategies / programs / ideologies / religions, and, I am sure (because I went through such a search myself), you will come to the same conclusion as I did that the Creativity Movement has the best strategy / program / ideology / religion for rallying the White People and leading them to the final victory.

3. CREATIVITY is the one and only White Racial Religion which puts Racial Loyalty above all other loyalties and proudly states:

Based on the Eternal Laws of Nature, History, Logic and Common Sense, we Creators believe:

- We believe that our Race is our Religion!
- We believe that Racial Loyalty is the greatest honor, and racial treason is the worst crime!
- We believe that what is good for the White Race is the highest virtue, and what is bad for the White Race is the ultimate sin! (This is our Golden Rule.)

4. CREATIVITY is first of all a REVOLUTION OF VALUES. As Pontifex Maximus has stated repeatedly in Nature's Eternal Religion, The White Man's Bible and other sacred books of CREATIVITY, we Creators completely and categorically reject the judeo-christian-democratic-marxist-liberal-feminist values of today, and supplant them with new and basic values, of which RACE IS THE FOUNDATION. In CREATIVITY we regard our White racial gene pool as the most precious treasure on the face of the earth, and in accordance with the Laws of Nature we mean to protect our White genetic heritage BY ALL MEANS AND AT ALL COSTS!

5. CREATIVITY looks at everything through the White Man's eyes and especially from the viewpoint of the entire White Race on a worldwide scale. In fact, one of the books of CREATIVITY is entitled: RAHOWA! THIS PLANET IS ALL OURS! Therefore, CREATIVITY was always at the forefront in the fight against any and all ideas / concepts / suggestions / plans detrimental to the interests of the White Race taken as a whole, such as: divisive nationalism, balkanization of America, the stupidly suicidal "NW Imperative" or division of America into "homelands" (in other words, just giving away portions of America to niggers/muds/jews). To all these wimpish, self-defeatist plans our answer was always firm and clear: RAHOWA! THIS PLANET IS ALL OURS!

6. The superiority of the strategy inherent in our racial religion, -- which evokes a level of loyalty and commitment that is much higher

BRICKBATS & BOUQUETS

A Call For White Unity

Dear Rev. Klassen and Mr. Metzger:

Racial greetings! Yesterday I received both your papers at the same time and I was struck by the similarity in attitudes. In the past I've tried to get you two to reconcile your differences and join forces, and I feel dutybound to try again.

As far as I am concerned (and being presently incarcerated I have a lot of time to study and think on such matters) there are only two groups that are exceptionally worthy of our devotion -- that's the C.O.T.C. and W.A.R. And you both are so similar in philosophies, warrior attitudes, and activities that, I feel, for you both to follow separate paths is totally ludicrous.

Sure there are differences between you two and I am aware that in the past there has been bad air between you, but are the problems so bad that you cannot get together to become the greatest White movement since the original Klan? You both have left no doubt in my mind whatsoever as to your dedication to our people. You both have large numbers of diehard followers. You both see the need to reach out to and work with our young folks (a large number of which are embodied in the Skinheads) -- a thing I find of the utmost importance. You both are actively working on our survival and, as seen in your recent papers, are taking into account all the aspects of our survival. Most importantly, you both have seen the need to make this war a religion. From the beginning the C.O.T.C. has actually stressed the fact that it is the White racial religion. Now in this latest W.A.R. paper there is nice article by Charles Schauf ("Aryan Warrior Religion") that could have come straight out of the C.O.T.C.'s credo.

From the day I had my eyes opened to racial consciousness I have dedicated my life to this cause and I have considered this devotion as my "religion" -- a cause held to with faith and ardor. If all our people would look on our racial struggle as a religion (a holy "jihad", so to speak), we would have one awesome movement going.

If you agree with that article, Mr. Metzger, as I most ardently hope you do, is it your intention to turn W.A.R. into another racial religion or wouldn't it be better for all of us if W.A.R. was to join forces with the already established White racial religion of the C.O.T.C.? (It is already bad enough with the differences between our racial religions of the C.O.T.C. and the misguided Identity Christians without throwing another faction in.)

Maybe it's time for you two to get together and show this cause what real unity is. Sure it might not be all that easy after the ill feelings between you in the past but I think you two could do it. Just remember that you are in this for all of our people, not just for Ben Klassen of C.O.T.C. or for Tom Metzger of W.A.R. I think this alliance would be one of the greatest things to happen for White folks of all time and I am not gonna rest happy until I see it happen someday. I know it will be hard but I also think you could do it. I have some thoughts on how it would be done, too, that you might kick around:

1. It could be a W.A.R. group who's religion is Creativity, or

2. It could be a unification C.O.T.C. -- W.A.R., like the AFL--CIO (or whatever that is).

The bottom line is that if you could put aside your differences and, if not forget them, at least look past them for the good of all our folk, and combine your resources, your writing skills (and your newsletters), your members (who think on just about the same wavelength anyway), and your activities, we would have one White wrecking machine the likes of which our enemies have never seen before in history.

I believe W.A.R. and the C.O.T.C. is the best thing going and nothing would be better than the unification of you two. The day is coming soon when I will be getting out of this place and I will be able to support you fully. As I mentioned earlier, I have taken this on as one of my duties and I am not gonna give up. I know a good many people, especially my brother Skins, who agree. You are both fighting for the same ends and are practically on the same wavelength, what do you say to throwing in together?

With Racial Loyalty and Solidarity,

Rev. S. D. Kenly
Pennsylvania

Klassen's Letter To Metzger

(Written & Mailed on January 25, 1985)

Dear Tom:

I have been meaning to write you ever since I returned from my trip to So. California and thank you for your hospitality and the taping of the show. So allow me to now say -- many thanks!

After meeting you I am convinced of your sincerity to the cause that I believe you and I both hold in common -- and that is the survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race -- a goal that we of The Church of The Creator spell out repeatedly.

But time is rapidly running out on us whether we will achieve this in our lifetime depends on how fast we, the White Race, can get our act together. Let me add that if we don't do it in our lifetime (and I believe we have at best only another 5 to 10 years to do so) it will not be done in our children's lifetime either. In another decade or less all hell will break loose and a worldwide racial war will ensue, the objective of which will be to completely destroy the White Race, and mongrelize what dilapidated remnants survive. There will be no comeback, no second chance. The other alternative is to smash the monster that is bent on destroying us.

I have been preaching repeatedly that the only way the White Race can beat the monster and survive is by sheer power -- to build a powerhouse larger and stronger than the Jewish powerhouse and smash the hell out of it. Secondly, I have been preaching that the only way that can be done is the same way as the miserable parasitic Jews have built theirs -- by polarization and dispersion -- around a dynamic powerful racial religion. See again "Dispersion and Polarization" in Racial Loyalty No. 14.

In Creativity we have it all -- the whole ball of wax -- to build that powerhouse. Also the White Race has the manpower, wealth, resources, intelligence and numbers to do the job. The biggest roadblock, in my opinion, is the hubris of the tens of thousands of little groups in wanting to be so goddamned independent and individualistic that they would rather see the White Race go down the drain than admit that their own little satrapy might not equal to the task.

My objective in writing you this letter is to convince you -- implore you -- to join with us in the Creativity movement and form a Church of the Creator in your area. That would be a big step in the direction of polarization, and since you are a leader, a man with a considerable following, this would shake up the whole White Racial movement to take a second look and bring them to their senses -- to the realization that we have to polarize into one huge powerful battering ram. Fragmented and divided we are sitting ducks. The last 50 years of history has proved that overwhelmingly. In contrast, in Germany Hitler proved the power of the polarization approach, the Catholic Church proved it over the centuries, and the Jews have amply demonstrated it for thousands of years.

For those who argue that we must be dispersed or the Jews might smash us in one fell swoop -- the beauty of Creativity is that we can do both: polarize around one loyalty - one creed - one program, and at the same time be dispersed into thousands of different church groups, just like the Jews have done for millenniums.

What I am saying, Tom, is this. What is to stop you from forming a Church of the Creator group in Fallbrook, or anywhere in So. California, and still be your own boss? You can put out your own newspaper, or you can put out ours, or you can put out both, if you like. You can run candidates for political offices or whatever activities you see fit and constructive. You can be ordained as a minister of our church, or we could even create a higher title (equivalent to a bishop, cardinal etc. in the Catholic Church, except we would come up with some Latin name for it) all of which would provide prestige and some legal protection.

All of this would create a significant beginning toward crystallizing and polarizing the whole White Racial movement toward really building a meaningful, lasting power structure. It would also buy us all a lot more security as a movement. For instance, if we (here in North Carolina) were wiped off the map (which could happen) there would be thousands of other church groups who could and would carry on, pick up the leadership and in fact through our martyrdom be fanned into cold blazing fury of determination and retribution.

Anyway, this is the only way to go. History has proven that a formless fragmentation of little groups going in hundreds of different directions are no match for a united, polarized army that has a specific goal, purpose and creed.

I could go on, but I believe you have read enough of my literature, including "The Pole Star" in issue No. 20 to know what I am talking about.

Why don't you sit down, lock yourself in your office as you did about the Christianity issue, and think this thing through. You could be a key figure in amalgamating and galvanizing the White Racial movement, and I invite you to join with us in achieving this overwhelmingly crucial goal.

May the CREATIVE FORCE stay with you!

For a Whiter and Brighter World,

Creatively yours,

Ben Klassen, P.M.

ED. NOTE: This letter was written and mailed to Tom Metzger almost five years ago, yet all of the invitations, offers and pleas for W.A.R. to join with the C.O.T.C. are still valid and are hereby renewed. We wholeheartedly agree with White Racial Comrade Rev. S. D. Kenly and other Skinheads/White Warriors that W.A.R. and the C.O.T.C. should join forces and become one huge battering ram capable of smashing the chains of Jewish tyranny and winning the worldwide White Racial Holy War. I bear no personal animosity or grudge against Tom. On the contrary, I consider him a courageous energetic fighter for White survival. In fact, his son John is already an ordained minister of the C.O.T.C., and has been for years. Personalities are secondary. We must get our priorities straight and remember there is nothing more important than winning the life and death battle against the Jews. In order to do so we should also remember Benjamin Franklin's advice: Either we hang together, or we will hang separately. ALL WHITES, UNITE AND FIGHT!

C.O.T.C. and W.A.R.: Unite and Fight!

Dear White Racial Comrades:

Can you believe it? I have just read the newest W.A.R. paper and was surprised by the similarity between the C.O.T.C. and W.A.R. positions on almost all important issues. Has Tom Metzger converted to the one and only White Racial Religion -- Creativity? I certainly hope so. Let us unite and fight! RAHOWA!

If you are White --Unite and Fight!

Dear White Racial Comrades:

I am a 24 year-old White Skinhead that was just recently released from the J.O.G. penal system. I was placed in the monkeyhouse because I defended a White girl (a stranger) against a bunch of niggers and spics. The Jews saw to it that I was punished for such a "racist" act.

No regrets! The times I have been penned in, the scars on my body and head, the articles I have written and the recruits I have made -- all that helped me to become more educated in the racial matters and, therefore, more effective as a White Warrior.

I want to thank you for sending me your fine newspaper Racial Loyalty. By the way, the Skin who wrote in your October issue, Scott Markidis, is a fellow warrior of mine! If you receive any letters from Skinheads around western Jew York, give them my address. I will be more than willing to meet them. Also, please send me as much of your literature as possible for distribution.

By the way, I fully agree with the article "White or Aryan" in the October issue of Racial Loyalty. I am British born and needless to say there are very few of us with blond hair. But if you are White, Unite and Fight! For White Victory!

White Vigil

Dear White Racial Brothers:

Thank you once again for all of the help and materials that you sent us last month. They have been put to good use.

On September 10, 1989, we held a "White Vigil" to honor all of our comrades who have died for our cause and who face living death in J.O.G.'s prisons at this present hour.

At the Vigil represented were the C.O.T.C., W.A.R., United White Youth, Northern Hammer Skins, National Alliance, N.A.A.W.P. and a few independents.

We had a Bar-B-Q, and speakers from the different groups, and then took a break for photos and socializing. Later we watched racist videos, and I gave a short talk.

In the evening we lit candles to our martyrs -- L. Rockwell, Cathy Ainsworth, G. Kahl, Bob Mathews, as well as all the rest. We paid homage to our fallen heroes and renewed our commitment to the White Race.

Then we went outside and had a bonfire. The climax of the evening was the firing of a red star shell into the night sky as a signal to those "inside" that we were still "out here" for them. At the conclusion of our meeting, the guys and girls left taking with them over 5000 assorted pieces of racist literature for distribution on their home turfs. They will sow the seeds of our future victory.

As always, we will keep up the fight for White Revolution! RAHOWA!

Dear C.O.T.C.:

It has been a while since I wrote my friends at the C.O.T.C. I had been thinking for some time about ways I might spread the word to others that think as we do and R.L. # 55 really hit home. I had always wanted to do more than just pay dues and read our literature. Rev. Wolf's outline for a program of action on the part of all Creators was inspiring and I hope it encourages others to act.

I have drawn up a pattern to have printed on stickers, and a friend of mine, who will soon be joining the C.O.T.C., printed them up for me. I am enclosing a few of these stickers. Please check them out and show them around.

Well, take care and keep up the good work. By the next time I write I will have plastered these stickers all over Los Angeles county. RAHOWA!

Dear C.O.T.C.:

Racial greetings! Once again thanks for the massive amount of material which we have received and distributed. I can't believe all of the responses that are coming in. White people are becoming very receptive to the message of Creativity.

As you know, we have been harassed during our literature distributions, but such obstacles just make us stronger. In fact, I am glad when we are bugged by the Jew-system flunkies. You know why? Because, as far as the White Race is concerned, I am a fanatic! Aggravate me and my race, and I will come back ten times meaner. That goes for our entire group.

In response to any harassment, we try to put even more of the C.O.T.C material into White hands. Just last night, in 45 minutes four of us put out over 500 Racial Loyalties like nothing. Based on our experience in dealing with White people, it is obvious that 95% of them love the Creativity message.

We need more material! Please send as many Racial Loyalties as you can. Plus some buttons and booklets. We have plenty of people to put it out and White areas to hit. In fact, I cannot keep up with all the requests for the C.O.T.C. literature that we have been receiving. You should see what kind of dynamite the C.O.T.C. is! I need an office to organize the responses that we have been getting. We have teenagers, Skins, long-hairs, short-hairs, blue collar, white collar, middle-aged and senior citizens wanting more and more of the C.O.T.C. material.

After eight years in the White racist movement, I am finally convinced that White victory is at hand. Not through some half-assed group or half-measures, but through the one and only White Racial Religion -- Creativity, which is the only way for the White Race to survive and prosper. So, all you White Racialists, get with it, join the winning team!

Millions of Whites are looking for answers, leadership and a vision of a Whiter and Brighter Future. And only the White Racial Religion -- Creativity is able to provide this for them. We were in the dark as far as a religion was concerned. Now that is in the past, thanks to Klassen. Now we know the power of Racial Religion!

I am calling every White person, every White racist to join the truly White Racial Religion -- Creativity and spread its message to the utmost. Let's make sure that the victorious flag of Creativity is flying all over the world by the year 2000! TOTAL WHITE PRIDE, TOTAL WHITE POWER, TOTAL WHITE UNITY, TOTAL WHITE VICTORY! RAHOWA!

Mrs. Harry Kelly Continues the Struggle

Dear P.M., H.P. and all Creators

I am sorry it has taken me so long to write you. After the death of my husband, Rev. Harry Kelly, I became ill. I am feeling better, so it's time to get busy.

I wanted to thank you all for your kind expression of sympathy. My husband will be greatly missed. He believed in the Church of the Creator and White Power. It angered him what was happening around us. He was willing to do anything he could to save the White Race. I will do anything I can also.

Please send me a copy of Racial Loyalty every month. I want to be kept up to date on how all the great White People, I met in April, are. Thank you again. RAHOWA!

ED. NOTE: The Church of the Creator highly appreciates the dedication, courage and commitment of Mrs. Harry Kelly. She is a fine example for all White women to support their husbands in the difficult but necessary and supremely important struggle for the survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race. And in case of death within a Creator family, the surviving spouse should always carry on the Sacred Struggle. RAHOWA!

White South Africa: No Retreat, No Surrender!

Dear Fellow Creators:

Be sure of our continuous support and dedication on this side of the Atlantic. The recent elections here resulted in a disastrous blow for the White Race. Mud arrogance and White treason is running rampant. Most of Whites seemed to be dumbstruck. The role of Christianity in the suicidal behavior of the White man becomes clearer every day. It must be destroyed, along with the Jew and the muck races. RAHOWA!

ED. NOTE: Regarding the situation in South Africa, we Creators are greatly alarmed that it is rapidly degenerating into another Zimbabwe and Congo. We are distressed that the White people of South Africa are allowing it to happen, with little opposition when the alarm signals are directly screaming at them. Is there really nothing you, White South Africans, can do? We believe there is! Perhaps the time has come for White South Africans to implement Articles 7 & 8 of page 402 of the White Man's Bible. We urge all White South Africans to remember that the Supreme Law of Nature states very clearly and unequivocally: SURVIVAL OF THE SPECIES BY ALL MEANS AND AT ALL COSTS!!! We Creators believe it is preferable to die fighting and taking a number of the enemy with you than to miserably succumb on your knees as a whimpering slave, disarmed and helpless. Creator of the MonthA Most Generous Donation to the Cause

Dear Rev. Victor Wolf:

Congratulations and welcome to the fold! I am directing my correspondence to you for two reasons, mainly: 1) there is nothing like lots of work to give one the feeling of belonging, and 2) it might be a good idea to give the Pontifex a breather now and then since I suspect he has put a great deal of effort into the program over the years and deserves our deepest respect. Again, welcome aboard!

In my case, all I needed was exposure to the excellent information and ideas that had been so well assembled in the books of Creativity and many issues of Racial Loyalty, and I was captured -- hook, line and sinker. What had been put together and expressed so well, was to me instantly recognizable as the missing link I had been groping for all my life. The White Racial Religion -- Creativity gives my life a new purpose and meaning, which to me -- a White Man -- is as necessary as food and drink.

With the proper implementation of the creed and program of Creativity we could have the unity and success (and the power that goes along with it) that is now enjoyed by the "chosen". However, apparently there is a breakdown occurring out here at the grassroots level. There is, apparently, a failure by the masses of White people to take the ball and run with it. To reach the masses, I think, we need, in addition to the program for gifted boys, a program of training for activists at the local level.

The $5,000 check I am enclosing is a contribution to the Church of the Creator in support for its struggle for a Whiter and Brighter Future.

Very respectfully,

ED. NOTE: Dear Donor, Thank you very much for your most generous donation to the Sacred Cause of the One and Only White Racial Religion -- Creativity. Yours is the largest single donation we have received to date. It couldn't have come at a better time, a time when we are being besieged by our enemies from several quarters and have just had to spend $6,000 in legal fees defending our rights as a church. (See R.L. #55 - HELP!)

We have a policy that anyone who donates $1000 or more can have a tree planted along our Leadership Lane (leading to the School for Gifted Boys) in their honor and have a plaque with their name engraved alongside the tree. We will be honored to do this for you also, if you give us your consent. Please let us know if so, and how you wish to have your name on it. With the title of Reverend, perhaps? If you would like to become a Reverend, please fill out our ordination application and return it to us.

We hope that other White people of wisdom and means will follow your fine example and support the Church of the Creator with as generous donations as possible. We need all the help we can get, because our mission -- to awake and to save the White Race -- is the most difficult and the same time the most important and meaningful mission on this planet earth. The Wildest Stories Ever Told

Part XIX of a Continuing Series

The Strange Story about the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost

The Christian religion is based on the premise that there exists a Holy Trinity composed of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. There are the three of them, three separate entities, they claim, but then the Christian preachers immediately confuse and contradict that claim by saying that all three of them are really all rolled into one, that they are really one and the same ball of wax, if you can comprehend that. If you can't understand such an obvious contradiction, well, then, that is your problem, you are just too damn stupid, they say. The Christian preachers further claim that this ball of wax is what is called God, but that you shouldn't forget that there is a son involved, too, and his name is Jesus Christ. In fact, you must believe in him, if you want to be a good Christian, and if you don't, you can't get to the Father without him. If you don't believe all this convoluted mixed-up hocus-pocus, you are in real trouble, big trouble. Those three spooks will hustle you off to hell and burn, fry, sizzle and barbecue you in hot sulfur forever and a day. But, of course, they are not to blame for that. Blame it all on Satan, another spooky spook, who is the real villain in the piece, they claim. And of course, the poor, miserable sinner that you are, you are even more culpable than Satan. So the ball is right back in your lap, as always, of course.

Let us examine this whole strange and stupid story and see how ridiculous and wild it really is.

In the first place, if you ask these self-righteous, know-it-all preachers some cogent questions for specifics, they become extremely vague, ambiguous and confused. They indulge in what they do best -- they waffle in obscure and meaningless semantics. We ask them: where are these spooks and spirits supposedly located? They are up there -- up in heaven, they say, pointing vaguely and indifferently in an upward direction. Really? How far up? A mile? Ten miles? A thousand miles? A billion miles? No answer. We pursue the "up there" answer further. Since the earth is spinning around on its axis, wouldn't the "up there" at this instant be an altogether different location the next minute, the next hour or in ten or twelve hours? Anyone in their right mind knows that it would, so what do you say to that, preacher? Then, also if you were in say Chicago, wouldn't "up there" be in a completely opposite direction to a preacher in Auckland, New Zealand, pointing to an "up there"?

We next explore the contention that all three, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, are all one, and that they always existed, that it or they created the world, and in fact, the whole universe, that they run and control it. We ask the question, preacher, doesn't the New Testament say that Jesus Christ was born in Bethlehem in the year 1 A.D.? Wasn't he born of a woman named Mary? How does that jibe with your claim that he and his father "always was" or "always were"? How could he be born of Mary's womb when Mary herself didn't exist but perhaps 20 years or so before that date? How could that be? How do you reconcile such an obvious contradiction? Speak up, preacher, we want some honest answers, not a dung heap of garbage and double talk.

Furthermore, you Christian preachers claim the Holy Trinity - Father, Son and Holy Ghost -- are really spirits. But then the New Testament says that Jesus Christ born out of Mary's womb, was a live, flesh and blood man, that he was born of woman and died at the age of thirty-three. We want to know, and make up your cotton-picking mind, preacher, was he a "spirit" that "always was" or was he a flesh and blood person? If the latter, what about his father, was he of flesh and blood also, and where did he come from? Did he, too, have a father, or not? If they are one and the same, the old man should also obviously be of flesh and blood. Which is it, preacher?

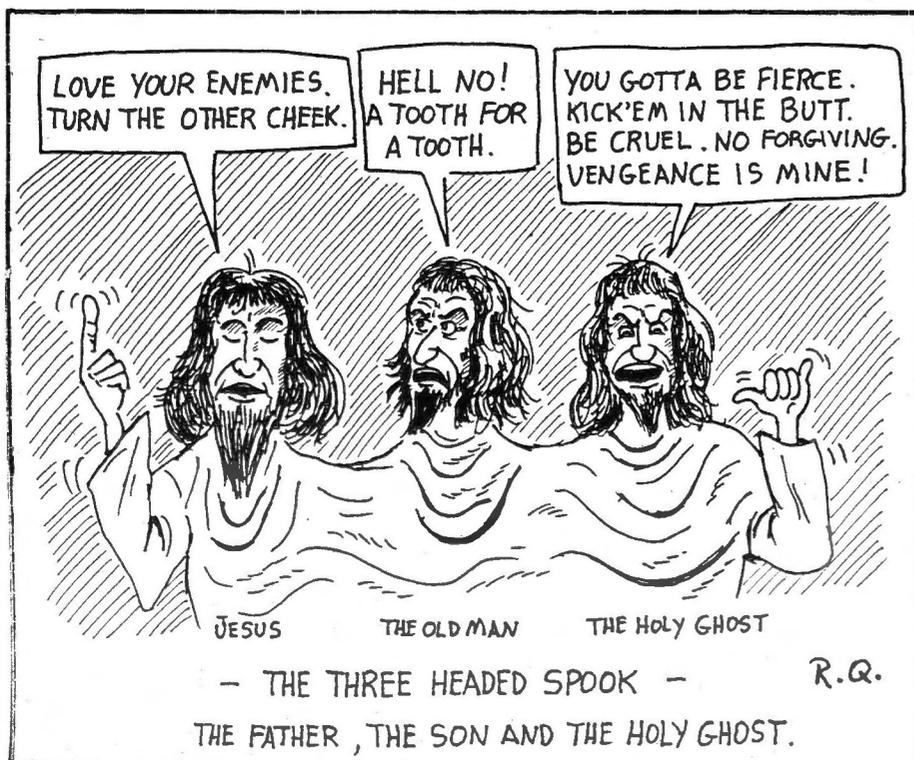

Next, if they are all a passel of spirits, we want to know -- just what is a spirit? Does it have substance? Does it have weight? Shape? Bones? Teeth? A brain? Have you ever seen one? Has your dad, mother, uncle or aunt ever seen one? In fact, has anyone who hasn't been hallucinating in an insane asylum really ever seen a spirit, or is this just another vague, fictitious concept dreamed up by some deceitful gang of Jewish scribblers? (Read again the chapter on "What is a Spirit?" p. 58 of RAHOWA! and "Not likely a Who", p. 139 of EXPANDING CREATIVITY.)

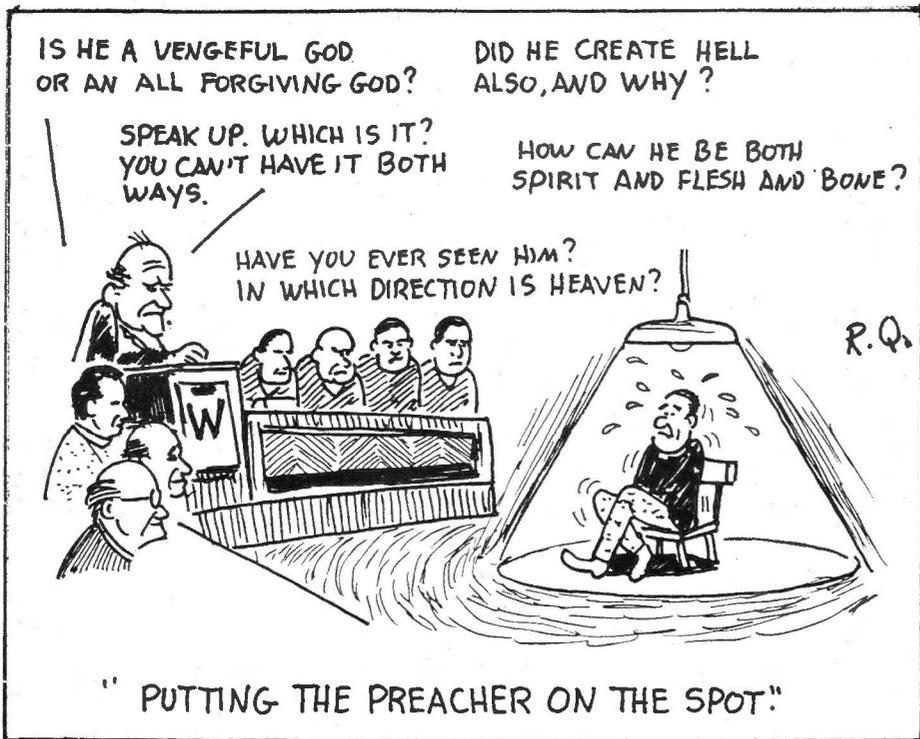

Next, we want to know something about this villain, this bad spook called Satan, upon whom all the blame is dumped, that he is responsible for all the evil in this world, that he stokes the fires in hell and tortures all those unfortunate souls whom he has conned into ending up with him in the fiery pit. Now according to your strange and wild story, preacher, you say that God is all powerful, sees all, knows all, controls all and not a hair falls from the roof but he wills it. He created everything, planned everything and everything is in his total control. So how do you explain the existence of this nasty villain, the devil? God evidently created him, too, intentionally and deliberately. God must have also created hell, intentionally and deliberately about the same time as he created man and intentionally and deliberately planned to send the vast majority of his greatest handiwork (that he created in his own image) to burn, fry and sizzle in hell in all eternity. That is the obvious conclusion from the strange story you are peddling, preacher, isn't it? At the same time you tell us God loves us so much he sent his only begotten son down to save us poor, lousy sinners from being entrapped in hell. Now it seems to me that if he didn't want to see us all fry and sizzle in hell he wouldn't have created the goddamned torture chamber in the first place, now would he? Why DID he create it? Did he want to see us tortured in hell? If so, he is obviously not a loving God but a vicious, sadistic monster. It makes little sense to blame it all on Satan. After all, he must have known what he was doing when he planned and created hell and when he planned and created Satan. Did he make a hideous blooper? If so, he isn't really so all-wise, nor so all-powerful, now is he? If he did make a blooper, why doesn't he correct it right now and kill Satan and save us all from this horrible impending catastrophe? After all, you certainly wouldn't want to burn in hell, now would you? Or, if you think you might escape that booby trap, what about your children, or your other relatives? Can't God just slay old Satan and eliminate all this contemplated misery? Can't he just wipe out hell and grant amnesty to all those poor souls that are already in there sizzling in agony? If he is so all-powerful, why in the hell doesn't he do one or both of the above? We are waiting for your answer, preacher. (See the chapter on "Hell" in THE WHITE MAN'S BIBLE.)

I once read about a freak that was born with one body and two heads. The biggest problem this freak had was that the two minds could never agree on anything, and at the same time they couldn't get away from each other, so they were in constant conflict and argued with themselves on a perpetual ongoing basis. If we read the Old Testament and then the New Testament, we find a similar two-headed freak with two opposing and conflicting messages. The Jewish God is a fierce, cruel monster whose motto is "vengeance is mine saith the Lord". He further sayeth "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth". Throughout the entire Old Testament, which completely ignores Jesus Christ, there is nothing but a continuing series of warfare, murder and treachery by God's favorite pets, the perfidious Jews, with the Jews killing, killing, killing their enemies seventeen times over, and their bloodthirsty Yahweh goading them on to "smite them by the sword, every man, woman and child, every living thing that breathes".

We now come to the New Testament, which was written for the non-Jews, namely the Gentiles, the White Race, or, as the Jews derisively call them, the goyim (=cattle). In this, the other head of this two-headed freak predominates and speaks throughout. What does Jesus Christ say? Well, obviously, he completely disagrees with the old man, his father, and says just the opposite to "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth". Here is what he says in complete contradiction. In the Sermon on the Mount he says: love your enemies, turn the other cheek, sell all thou hast and give it to the niggers, judge not, give no thought for the morrow, do not plan ahead, do not store up treasures on earth but store up treasures in heaven, wherever that is, and a lot of other stupid, suicidal advice. Contrast this with what the old man says about slay, rape and plunder the other peoples.

Now what in the hell is any intelligent, thinking White person to make of such a mess? How can he possibly believe in, and moreover, follow, such conflicting and contradictory advice? It is, of course, impossible to obey both heads of such a two-headed monster, and it leaves the White Christian in a perpetual dilemma and continual conflict with himself, if he is stupid enough to believe such garbage. Yet this stupid Jewish book tells you the "Father" and the "Son" are really one, working hand in glove, and you had better believe this whole mess of garbage. Believe! believe! it keeps screaming, like a con-man trying to convince his victims.

* * * * *

How did the White Race ever get embroiled in such a stupid no-win booby trap? Well, it goes back a long way and prove the effectiveness of propaganda when applied repeatedly and persistently over a long period of time. I have already examined the origins of this pervasive mind scrambler called Christianity in my several books, and in case a newcomer reads this I will briefly recapitulate it here.

It more or less started with the Egyptians, although they, too, probably had predecessors for their religious ideas. The ancient Egyptians were White, they were intelligent and they developed civilization to a high degree. They were also very religious, superstitious and along with such a position, they were also highly gullible. It was the Egyptians who conceived such fictitious concepts as an everlasting soul, eternal life in the "hereafter", the idea of reward and punishment in the hereafter for acts in this life, the idea of temples and worship, and even the practice of circumcision. Although they invented a plethora of gods, they also temporarily conceived the "one god" idea that the Jews copied. The Jews, who are an ancient Stone-age race of predators and parasites, were already among the Egyptians some four or five thousand years ago and plying their trade. While among the Egyptians they learned and adopted most of the religious concepts of the Egyptians, and being masters of deceit even then, developed these fictitious concepts into a religion of their own so that they could more effectively rob, plunder, deceive and conquer the goyim. From this developed the Jewish religion of Judaism as set down in the Old Testament and later enhanced in their Talmud. Their religion floundered along for a millennium and a half and at some time was based in Palestine. The Jews, however, were conquered by a number of more powerful neighbors from time to time, such as the Assyrians, the Babylonians and lastly the Romans. It was during the Roman occupation of Palestine and the destruction of Jerusalem that the Jew, Saul of Tarsus, who later became the Christians' "St. Paul", conceived of a brain bomb with which to destroy the great Roman civilization and its Empire. (See "Confessions of a Jew" p. 286 in the WMB.) Taking a page from the suicidal Essene religion, he devised a new religion called Christianity, a poisonous mind scrambler, and successfully fed it to the Romans. Strange as it may seem, the Romans bought this poisonous garbage and the rest is history. The Roman Empire did indeed collapse and the White Race sank into the slimy pit of the Dark Ages. It remained in this state of ignorance, superstition and misery for a period of twelve hundred years, and in fact, has not fully recovered even to this day. Christianity is still with us, rampant like a virulent cancer on the brain, and is now bringing to a climax what this treacherous Jew, Saul of Tarsus, set out to do some nineteen centuries ago -- the destruction of the White Race.

* * * * *

Our only salvation now is to expose this nefarious and sinister Jewish conspiracy, to awaken the White Race to its imminent peril, and to arouse and organize this still slumbering giant -- Nature's Finest. This can only be done by destroying Jewish Christianity and replacing it by a militant racial religion designed for the survival and salvation of the White Race. That religion is Creativity -- the first and the only comprehensive racial religion the White Race has ever had. We are not helpless. There are still 500 million members of our species on this planet. But time is running out. Let us therefore dedicate ourselves anew, put our shoulder to the wheel and rally the White Race. Propagandize! Proselytize! Organize!

Revised Bible

The Bible version most commonly used in mainline Protestant churches and in biblical scholarship has undergone a long-awaited editing to improve the English phrasing and to eliminate references to "man" when both sexes are meant.

The New Revised Standard Version, which will be available in bookstores next summer, was previewed by Bruce M. Metzger, who chaired the team of Christian and Jewish scholars who began working on the new edition in 1974.

Metzger, 75, who was honored Friday as a distinguished alumnus of the Princeton seminary, discussed the new edition last week in Lexington, Ky., at a meeting of the Governing Board of the National Council of Churches, which holds the copyright on the Revised Standard Version. Six U.S. publishers have been licensed to print the work.

Some revisions were made to avoid misunderstanding because of changes in English vernacular:

- The 50th psalm now has a line, "I will accept no bull from your house." That has been altered to "I will not accept a bull from your house."
- The Song of Solomon's first chapter in the old edition says, "I am very dark, but comely. . . ." The new version substitutes "and" for the word "but." "The Hebrew word wa, 49 times out of 50 is translated 'and,'" Metzger said. "We felt we shouldn't allow the idea to surface that because you're black you couldn't be beautiful."
- In the New Testament, Paul writes to the Corinthians, "Once I was stoned . . ." but it now will read, "Once I received a stoning."

Problem About Elephant

The discussion on wording by the 30 men and women scholars sometimes got intense, especially when the committee voted to reject "particularly fond suggestions" made by panelists.

Occasionally there was humor, he said, such as when the committee wrestled with describing how a Jewish soldier got under a Syrian elephant and stabbed the elephant in the soft part of its belly. After a great deal of debate about using "stooped" or "snuck," the committee decided on: "He got under the elephant."

Another light moment came over the New Testament passage that says Jesus took his disciples "apart," he said. That was changed to read he took them "aside."

How many hundreds of times can the Jewish Bible be "revised" and still remain the "immutable word of God"? How stupid can you get??

Purpose of this Series

The overriding goal of the Church of the Creator is the survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race, and the immediate goal is to free the White Race from the worldwide yoke of Jewish tyranny. In order to achieve both goals it is necessary to build a massive, powerful movement that can smash the Jewish monster. Before the White Race can ever be in a position to unite, polarize and build such a power structure it will first have to get its thinking straightened out. This it can never do as long as it entertains in its innermost thoughts that most diabolical of all mind-scramblers, Jewish Christianity. By using ridicule and exposing this idiotic age old spooks-in-the-sky-swindle, we believe we can best help lead the White Race back to sanity, common sense, and a healthy, constructive attitude towards its own best interests.

The Right to Distribute Our Literature Guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution

The U.S. Constitution is by definition the basic law of the land: no federal, state, county, city or community law can contradict any of the basic principles of the Constitution. In fact, all policemen and judges are supposed to abide by the Constitution.

To be effective in our struggle for White racial survival, expansion and advancement, we Creators must become thoroughly familiar with the U.S. Constitution, and especially its First Amendment which reads as follows:

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances."

As you can see from the above quotation, the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution guarantees every citizen, among other things, freedom of speech. In regard to leafletting, the Supreme Court has interpreted this to mean that a state or municipality may not ban the distribution of leaflets on streets, sidewalks or public places, Jamison v. Texas 318 US 413 (1943) and Marsh v. Alabama 326 US 501 (1946). The Supreme Court applied this rule to universities, both state and private, in Papish v. University of Missouri 410 US 667 (1973). Furthermore, leafletting cannot be prohibited on a military base in areas of public access, Flower v. U.S. 407 US 197 (1972).

The Supreme Court has also found that door to door solicitation for the purpose of distributing information may not be banned regardless of the wishes of the householder to receive such information in this manner, Martin v. Struthers 319 US 141 (1943). Furthermore, a state or municipality may not tax or license the distribution or sale of political or religious material door to door, Opelika v. Jones 319 US 105 (1943).

In shopping center cases the Supreme Court has said that privately owned property may be treated as if it is publicly held where it is held open to the public, Amalgamated Food Employees Union v. Logan Valley Plaza 391 US 308 (1968). In Amalgamated the union was allowed to picket a business inside the shopping mall. However, a shopping center may ban leafletting in the shopping mall walkways as this interferes with the business of the center, Lloyd Corp. v. Tanner 407 US 551 (1972). As yet there has been no case decided on the question of leafletting in the parking lot of a shopping center, but a leading treatise of the First Amendment says this on the subject: "The First Amendment interest should not be defeated because the property owner either disapproves of the message conveyed or simply wants to censor all speech activities. Whether outside of a freestanding store or in the common areas of a shopping center, a bare property interest does not justify the subordination of First Amendment speech rights." Nimmer on Freedom of Speech, Section 4.09, Page 4-121.

In light of the above, we recommend that in the event of arrest while leafletting in one of the above areas, the individual arrested should file a civil suit for false imprisonment, malprosecution and the intentional deprivation of constitutional rights and that the parties sued should include the municipality, the police department, the arresting officer and the private property owner (in a shopping center case). In such a case, punitive as well as compensatory damages will be awarded. (P.S. Copy and carry this article with you!)

White Man, know your rights and become an active distributor of our newspaper, books and other literature! Sow the seeds of White Victory! -- your future and the future of your children depends of that. RAHOWA!

Victory for Creativity

Court Returns The White Man's Bible To Prisoner

ED NOTE: The White Race and the Creativity Movement will be eternally grateful to Rev. NORMAN WILLHOITE, who under harsh prison conditions fought against the JOG tyranny and has won a significant battle. Due to the importance of this court decision to the White Race and the Creativity Movement, we reproduce it here in full and at the same time encourage all White prisoners to become followers of the one and only White Racial Religion -- Creativity and fight the JOG tyranny by all legal means available.

If the low-life Indian scum can organize behind the walls and have their own "tribal religious ceremonies" (actually, sweat tent orgies), so can we, White People, especially now that we have the truly WHITE RACIAL RELIGION -- CREATIVITY. Every White prisoner should become a follower of the White Man's Religion -- Creativity, and demand (if necessary, through lawsuits, hunger strikes and other "civil protest" actions) the right to study, teach and practice the White Man's Religion -- Creativity.

SAVE THE WHITE RACE!
JOIN THE CREATIVITY MOVEMENT!
IT IS OUR ONLY SALVATION!

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

NORMAN WILLHOITE, Plaintiff, vs.
T.V. ARZATE, Defendant

No. C-87-2323-FMS ORDER

Entered in Civil Docket on 03/09/89

Filed March 8, 1989
by William L Whittaker, Clerk,
U.S. District Court, Northern District of California

This matter is before the Court on plaintiff's and defendant's motions for summary judgment. After full consideration of the papers filed, this Court GRANTS IN PART AND DENIES IN PART the defendant's motion for summary judgment and GRANTS IN PART AND DENIES IN PART the plaintiff's motion for summary judgment.

(The plaintiff has filed a motion for the return of legal materials he alleges were confiscated by officials at Corcoran State Prison. Because the Eastern District of California is the more appropriate court to deal with this complaint, the plaintiff is directed to seek redress in that court. The plaintiff has also filed a motion for entry of default judgment against the defendant. Because the defendant has filed an answer, and has filed a motion for summary judgment, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55 is inapplicable.)

I. BACKGROUND:

The plaintiff, Norman Willhoite, until January of 1989, was an inmate at San Quentin Prison housed in the security housing units at the prison. On November 13, 1986, the defendant, an officer with the Special Security Squad at San Quentin, conducted a cell search of the security housing units. During the search, the defendant confiscated the plaintiff's book The White Man's Bible. After reading portions of the book, the officer determined that the book could pose a "danger to the safety and security of the inmates at the prison, and did not return the book to the plaintiff.

On May 7, 1987, Willhoite filed a 42 U.S.C. section 1983 civil action complaint against the state of California, Daniel Vasquez, Lt. N. Terlizzi and T.V. Arzate. This Court (Patel, J.) dismissed all defendants except Arzate, and granted Willhoite leave to proceed in forma pauperis. On November 16, 1987, Willhoite filed a motion for summary judgment (which was not served on the defendant), and on November 25, 1988, filed a motion for appointment of counsel. On December 8, 1988, this Court (Smith, J.) issued an Order denying Willhoite's motion for appointment of counsel, and ordered the Clerk of the court to send copies of the motion to the defendant. The Court also ordered the defendant to file a response to the motion within sixty days.

On January 12, 1989, Willhoite filed a motion directing the California Department of Corrections at Corcoran to return his legal law books, allow him to have ink-pens in his cell, provide him with access to legal materials and allow him one phone call to the court. Willhoite also informed the Court of a change in address to the California State Prison at Corcoran. On February 8, 1989, the defendant filed a motion for summary judgment, and Willhoite, on February 21, 1989, filed a motion for entry of default.

II. ANALYSIS:

a. The White Man's Bible

The confiscation of Willhoite's book involves the intertwining of two important First Amendment interests -- religious freedom and freedom of speech. This Court can assume, without deciding, that the book in question qualified as legitimate religious literature. Against this backdrop is the important state interest in prison security.

Prisoners retain First Amendment rights while incarcerated. Bell v. Wolfish, 441 U.S. 520, 545 (1979). However, the exercise of these rights is limited by the fact of confinement and the needs of the prison. Jones v. North Carolina Prisoners' Union, 433 U.S. 119, 125 (1977). A prison regulation which impinges on inmates' constitutional rights is valid if it is "reasonably related to legitimate penological interests". O'Lone v. Estate of Shabazz, 107 S.Ct. 2400 (1987).

In determining the validity of such regulations, the Supreme Court has indicated that four factors must be considered: (1) whether the regulation has a logical connection to the legitimate government interest; (2) whether there are alternative means of exercising the rights that remain open to the inmates; (3) the impact that accommodation of the asserted constitutional right will have on other inmates, guards and prison resources; and (4) the presence or absence of ready alternatives that fully accommodate the prisoner's rights at de minimis cost to valid penological interests. Turner v. Safley, 107 S.Ct. 2254, 2262 (1987); McCabe v. Arave, 847 F. 2nd 634, 637 (9th Cir. 1987).

The government interest must be both "legitimate and neutral". Turner, 107 S.Ct. at 2262; McCabe, 847 F. 2nd 638. In this case, although security concerns are legitimate interests, the defendants removal of the book is based on the contents of the literature. It the contents of the book promote or encourage violence or illegal activity, then the defendants may remove the book from the prison population. Procunier v. Martinez, 416 U.S. 396, 416 (1974); McCabe v. Arave, 827 F 2nd 634, 638 (9th Cir. 1987); Murphy v. Missouri Dept. of Corrections, 814 F.2nd 1252, 1257 (8th Cir. 1987): ("Restrictions of inmate access to Aryan Nations materials through the mail must be limited to those materials that advocate violence or that are so racially inflammatory as to be reasonably likely to cause violence at the prison.") Nonetheless, prison authorities may not confiscate literature merely because it contains racist views. As the Ninth Circuit recently stated: "We hold, therefore, that literature advocating racial purity, but not advocating violence or illegal activity as a means of achieving this goal, and not so racially inflammatory as to be reasonably likely to cause violence at the prison, cannot be constitutionally banned as rationally related to rehabilitation." McCabe, 827 F.2d at 638.

A review of the excerpts of the book The White Man's Bible submitted by the defendant in its motion for summary judgment fails to support the claim that the book, or portions of the book, advocated racial violence. Although the book clearly advocates racial purity, it does not advocate direct acts of violence of any illegal activity. Further, even though advocating racism, the book is not sufficiently "racially inflammatory" to be reasonably likely to cause violence at the prison. Thus,

Ex-Medford man spreads message of hate

By Russell Working of the Daily Courier

A former Medford man who belongs to a group that extols Adolf Hitler and urges a "holy war" against blacks and Jews has promised to step up recruitment in Oregon and Northern California.

James Hazel of Hillsboro, who refers to himself as a pastor in the white-supremacist Church of the Creator, Oregon, wrote in a letter printed in the September edition of the newspaper Racial Loyalty that the white supremacists can "expect to see a little more activity in Western Oregon and Northern California."

The Church of the Creator, based in Otto, N.C., attacks Jews, racial minorities and Christianity, and it urges American whites to deport all blacks to Africa. Adherents refer to themselves as "creators."

Anonymous stickers were left on car windshields in Grants Pass Sept. 23 warning against racial "mongrelization" and the "genocide of the white race." The stickers urged people to contact the church through a Medford post office box.

Reached by phone in Hillsboro, where he recently moved from Medford, Hazel denied any knowledge of the material distributed in Grants Pass.

But he said, "You're probably talking about nigger joke stickers, or something like that."

Hazel added that the stickers wouldn't draw support for the Church of the Creator, anyway.

He said, "We all know that this horrible racism exists among us to some degree. We all know that most people have been duly instructed to try to ignore it, not participate in it, suppress those negative emotions, and so on."

A Freedom of Information Act request filed by the Daily Courier revealed that the box number listed on the stickers was Hazel's. After moving to Hillsboro, he requested that letters be forwarded to a post office box there.

Also, a reporter's letter requesting information drew a reply from Hazel, including a copy of the church's "The White Man's Bible," which praises Hitler and attacks Jews and racial minorities, referring to them as "mud."

Hazel said the post office's information, which listed a home phone number where he was reached, was wrong.

"I think you've got your information mixed up, and I'm under no obligation to straighten out your confusion," he said.

After Hazel moved, his Medford Post Office box was issued to Friends of Hank Henry, a group supporting the re-election of Henry, a Jackson County commissioner.

In an August letter to Racial Loyalty, Hazel urged others to post stickers printed with racist jokes on pay phones and urinals as a means of stirring up interest in the church. The stickers were identical to the ones distributed in Grants Pass.

Hazel and other "creators" sign their letters "RAHOW.!!," which the group says is its "battle cry," reduced from the words "Racial Holy War."

In Racial Loyalty's August issue, Hazel, then living in Medford, wrote that he was "in the middle of a cesspool of Christian patriot groups."

He added he had only a few supporters in the immediate area and that he was moving to the northern part of Oregon. However, he said one supporter in Crescent City, Calif., is a schoolteacher who was "demoted . . . because of his overzealousness in reminding students of their racial responsibilities."

Brad Rind, spokesman for the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith in Seattle, said he had not heard of the Church of the Creator, Oregon.

"What we pay close attention to is actual instances of illegality, such as vandalism and phone threats," he said.

Hazel declined to discuss the beliefs of the Church of the Creator or of a First Oregon Church of Law and Order, which he listed on a post office forwarding card.

Hazel told the Daily Courier, "You can't write anything to my benefit or the church's benefit or to society's benefit on this issue. If you could, I'd probably be a little more open to you."

"The White Man's Bible" scoffs at the supernatural, and instead urges belief in "nature's own religion." An article in Racial Loyalty says, "What is good for the white race is the highest virtue; what is bad for the white race is the ultimate sin."

"The White Man's Bible," written by the group's founder and leader Ben Klassen, says Christianity was a Jewish plot to dismantle the Roman Empire. Racial Loyalty calls Jesus a "a mythical Jewish bastard."

Racial Loyalty speaks glowingly of its leader: "Without a doubt, Ben Klassen is the greatest and most beneficial thinker in the entire 6,000 years of recorded history of white civilization."

Klassen refers to himself as Pontifex Maximus, which he writes is the title of the leader of ancient Rome's state religion. He says his group has "the Final Solution," a phrase used by Nazis for their scheme to exterminate 6 million Jews.

Klassen's anger is not limited to minorities.

"We mean to hang the traitors of our own race that aid and give comfort to the enemy," Klassen writes.

Law officers in Otto could not be reached for comment on the Church of the Creator.

In January, Hazel filed a brief attempting to claim $36,500 seized by Oregon State Police during a car stop on Interstate 5. Hazel said police had no probable cause for making the stop.

ED. NOTE: More White Power to Rev. Jim Hazel for his aggressive distribution of our literature! And by the way, thanks also to reporter Russell Working for spreading our religious message so succinctly. However, it is not a message of hate, but a message of love for our precious White Race. If Mr. Working would like to find out about hate, we suggest that he read the Jewish Talmud. If he would further like to find out about overcoming hate, we suggest he read our booklet "How to Overcome the Real Haters".

LEGAL VICTORY

the book did not come within the rule enunciated by the Ninth Circuit in McCabe, 827 F.2d at 638. Accordingly, the defendant erred by not returning the book to Willhoite.

b. QUALIFIED IMMUNITY

The plaintiff has requested both injunctive relief and monetary damages. As to monetary request, the doctrine of qualified immunity limits the plaintiff's ability to obtain monetary damages from the defendant.

The defendant, an officer at the prison, is entitled to qualified immunity. Thus, the defendant is not liable for monetary damages as long as the conduct does not violate clearly established statutory or constitutional rights of which a reasonable person would have known. Anderson v. Creighton, 107 S.Ct. 3034, 3038 (1987); Harlow v. Fitzgerald, 457 U.S. 800, 818 (1982). In reaching this determination, the Court looks to the objective legal reasonableness of the conduct in light of the legal rules that were clearly established at that time. Anderson, 107 S.Ct. at 2038; Harlow, 457 U.S. at 818.

At the time of the incident, November 13, 1986, the law was not clearly established in this Circuit, or in any other Circuit, that the plaintiff would be entitled to keep The White Man's Bible in his cell. The Ninth Circuit decision of McCabe v. Arave, 827 F.2d 634 (9th Cir. 1987) was not decided until September of 1987, and the Eighth Circuit decision of Murphy v. Missouri Dept. of Corrections, 814 F.2d 1252 (8th Cir. 1987) was not decided until March 19, 1987. This Court finds that the law was not clearly established at the time of the incident, in that the defendant could not fairly "know that the law forbade conduct not previously identified as lawful". Harlow, 457 U.S. at 818. Thus, because the defendant could not be expected to anticipate the Ninth Circuit holding in McCabe, the defendant T.V. Arzate is entitled to qualified immunity for the damage portion of the relief sought.

Accordingly, and good cause appearing therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The defendant's motion for summary judgment is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART;
2. The plaintiff's motion for summary judgment is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART; than anything ever evoked by any purely political, fraternal or academic theories, -- is becoming more and more obvious with every passing day, so others (including the groups which in the past adamantly maintained that "religion was neither the problem nor the solution") have started to come up with their own copycat attempts, like the so-called "Aryan Warrior Religion", "Cosmotheist Religion" or "Evolutionary Metaphysics Religion", mostly based on the writings of Nietzsche. However, these people have probably never read Nietzsche very closely or extensively, because if they did they would know that in "Ecce Homo" Nietzsche himself stated "there is nothing in me of a founder of a religion" and in "Beyond Good and Evil" Nietzsche described his works as a "prelude to the philosophy of the future". So Nietzsche, by his own admission and by any objective evaluation, is only an introduction but not a solution.

7. Some groups are even trying to invent something called a "Hitler religion". However, what has been said about Nietzsche applies even more so to Hitler. In "Mein Kampf" Hitler has specifically stated that he was not a founder of a religion. What he founded was a strictly German (as Hitler said, "not for export") political movement.

3. The defendant is to return the plaintiff's book, The White Man's Bible, to the plaintiff at his current institutional address.

Whereas Hitler's movement was tailor-made to solve the political and racial problems for the Germans of 60 or 70 years ago, the Creativity Movement is tailor-made to solve the racial problems of the White Race on a global scale as it exists today.

We Creators are sure that if Hitler were young and alive in America today (we wish he were!), he would take an altogether different approach to save the White Race than he did to save Germany in the 1920's, and we are sure that it would be amazingly similar to CREATIVITY. Like the Klan, the Nazi party served a useful purpose in its time and place to solve the problems of their day, but for today both are as dead as a dodo and about as useful in solving the multitude of urgent problems that now confront the White Race on a global scale.

8. The solution is none other but CREATIVITY!!! Thanks to the tremendous intellectual efforts of Klassen, the greatest genius ever produced by the White Race, in the one and only truly White Racial Religion -- CREATIVITY we now do have the "Philosophy of the Future" and the "Philosophy of Life" that Nietzsche and Hitler talked about, but were not able to formulate. The logical, complete, comprehensive and inspiring philosophy / ideology / religion of CREATIVITY is the one and only racially religious TOTAL PROGRAM, FINAL SOLUTION and ULTIMATE CREED, to which all White Men and Women can finally dedicate their total loyalty and commitment, knowing that the Creativity Movement is the only salvation for the White Race.

In the next issue of Racial Loyalty I hope to publish a study about Klassen and Nietzsche, because I think it is very important to clarify Postpaid.

SALUBRIOUS LIVING

Written by Arnold DeVries and Ben Klassen, Pontifex Maximus. Published in 1982. 244 Pages, 22 Chapters. This book spells out our program in detail for living a Natural Life Style and achieving and maintaining the Ultimate in Superb Health and Wellbeing. (IMPORTANT NOTE: At this point we Creators would like to clarify a very prevalent misconception that one cannot join the Creativity Movement without changing his eating habits. That is simply not true! Our goals of Salubrious Living, Latin as a universal language, organic farming, Eugenics, etc., are the long-term ADVANCEMENT-stage goals. Therefore, their immediate implementation is not necessary for becoming a Creator. We Creators recognize that even the longest journey starts with the first steps! We urge every White person to read our books, join our Movement and take the first steps in the long and glorious journey towards a New White Renaissance, a Whiter and Brighter World, and a Glorious Era of the White Superman.) $5 each / Carton of 12 -- $30 / Carton of 48 -- $100. Postpaid.

EXPANDING CREATIVITY

By Ben Klassen, Pontifex Maximus. Published in 1985. 255 Pages. This book contains the leading articles written by Ben Klassen, P.M., and printed in the first 12 issues of Racial Loyalty. $5 each / Carton of 10 -- $35. Postpaid.

BUILDING A WHITER AND BRIGHTER WORLD

By Ben Klassen, Pontifex Maximus. Published in 1986. 270 Pages. This book continues the leading articles from issues of Racial Loyalty where Expanding Creativity left off. $5 each / Carton of 10 -- $35. Postpaid.

RAHOWA! This Planet is All Ours

By Ben Klassen, Pontifex Maximus. Published in 1987. 262 Pages. This book details the Racial Holy War (RAHOWA) that is upon us and how we must fight that war to survive. $5 each / Carton of 10 -- $35. Postpaid.

C.O.T.C. that I am not enthused about: one is that I cannot bring myself to stop eating meat, and two -- the question of uniforms.

If I may suggest, you could have certain uniforms designed for certain groups within the Creativity Movement. For example, the C.O.T.C. Skins could have their neat Skinhead Uniform with the C.O.T.C. logo. As a Skinhead myself, I think I am speaking for most of the Skins when I say that we would prefer to keep our own uniform -- of course, with the Creativity logo.

Enclosed is $30 for the 8 book package. RAHOWA!
A White Marine
U.S.A.

ED. NOTE: Dear White Marine, welcome to the Creativity Movement! We appeal to all White servicemen to join the one and only White Racial Religion -- Creativity and insist on the inalienable right of all White People to study, teach and practice the White Man's Religion. If the military establishment allows Jews, niggers and muds to study, teach and practice their asinine judaism (and its offshoot -- christianity) as well as such exotic nonsense as islamism, hinduism, buddhism, taoism, etc., they have no right to discriminate against the followers of the one and only White Racial Religion -- Creativity, which is in every conceivable way far more superior, logical, consistent, comprehensive and inspiring than all the other religions combined. White Soldiers, we Creators appeal to all of you: Reject the Jew-spawned, anti-White, pro-Jew, pro-mud Christianity, convert to the one and only White Racial Religion -- Creativity and join with us in the sacred struggle for the survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race!

As far as the question of uniforms is concerned, we don't want to be dogmatic at this point in time, and we agree that all groups (soldiers, Skinheads, etc.) upon conversion to Creativity can retain their own particular uniforms, provided they display the Creativity logo.

At this point I would also like to clarify a very prevalent misconception that one cannot join the Creativity Movement without giving up his eating habits. That is simply not true! Our goals of Salubrious Living, Latin as a universal language, organic farming, Eugenics, etc., are the long-term ADVANCEMENT-stage goals. Their immediate implementation is not necessary for becoming a Creator.

We Creators believe that the one and only White Racial Religion -- Creativity has the potential for not only leading the White People to a worldwide victory but also guiding the entire White Race over the next million years towards a new era of the White Superman. However, we do recognize that even the longest journey starts with the first steps and that certain goals have to be achieved in stages over a long period of time. When we declare that we are fighting for the SURVIVAL, EXPANSION and ADVANCEMENT of the White Race, we are in effect saying that there are three stages of our struggle, with the immediate (SURVIVAL-type) goals, intermediate (EXPANSION-type) goals and ultimate (ADVANCEMENT-type) goals.

We appeal to all White people, whatever their uniform or eating habits may be, to join with us and embark on the long journey towards a New White Renaissance, towards a Whiter and Brighter World, towards an Era of the White Superman. Remember, even the longest journey begins with the first steps. Do not hesitate, do not delay! If you are White, unite and fight under the victorious flag of the one and only White Racial Religion -- Creativity! RAHOWA!

We have to win this fight!

Dear Pontifex Maximus:

I am not too surprised to learn that the J.O.G. is coming down hard on our Church in an attempt to deny us the right to exist as a Church. But really what can we expect from this Jew-run nigger country? We will have to fight! Our Race and our Religion are our most important assets. We have to protect them by all means and at all costs!

I am increasing my regular monthly dues to the Church of the Creator. I challenge all Creators to increase their regular contributions to the Sacred Cause of the one and only White Racial Religion -- Creativity. We have to win this fight! RAHOWA!

An Example for All Skins to Follow

Dear Pontifex Maximus:

First, I would like to say thank you for the contributions you have made to our wonderful White Race.

I am almost done reading the White Man's Bible and it has enlightened me very much. Creativity is the greatest religion of all time!

Thanks a lot for the Award you sent me along with my membership card. It made me feel so good and proud. Many thanks!

Enclosed is my application for ordination as minister of the Church of the Creator. I hope you will accept it. RAHOWA!
Scott Markidis

ED. NOTE: Yes, Scott, we have accepted your application and as of now you are a properly ordained and certified Minister of the Church of the Creator. Welcome and congratulations! You are a fine example for all the other young White activists, especially Skinheads, to join the Creativity Movement, become familiar with our ideas and apply for ordination as ministers of the one and only White Racial Religion -- Creativity. Please remember that as a minister you gain not only prestige, but also legal protection and thereby increase your effectiveness as a White activist.

Skinheads for Creativity

Dear C.O.T.C.:

I am a Skinhead and I am 100% with you! I couldn't agree more. My neighborhood is infested with these coons, and I want them out! Back in the good ol' days, my neighborhood was all White, and there were no problems. But now,... now these goddamn mooles and camel drivers have taken over. What the hell are we, White Men, going to do about this? I know I am not going to just sit around and watch savage niggers and ugly muds take over! We will have to fight! Please send me as much of your publications as possible for mass distribution. For Racial Victory! White Power!

Australian J.O.G. Persecutes White Activists

Good-day Mr. Ben Klassen:

We have never met yet I feel as if I know you. I have heard so much about you and your work from people like Jack Van Tongren, leader of the Australian Nationalists Movement and others.

On August 14, 1989 at dawn I and the entire "hub" section of the A.N.M. were arrested in a massive police operation code named "Jack Hammer" (to "hammer" Jack Van Tongren...). A traitor by the name of Russel Willey had betrayed the cause, resulting in Jack Van Tongren and seven others being charged with a string of offenses, the worse being "conspiracy" and "arson", all for fighting against the corrupt Jewish system and fighting to keep Australia for Whites, not for the Asiatic hoards to our near North. Although the Jewish Occupational Government calls us criminals, we proudly call ourselves patriots.

In the Fremantle Prison, we have been separated into groups of two and placed in an extremely hostile environment. This prison is acknowledged as the most primitive prison in the English speaking world, our living conditions are little better now than they were of prisoners 100 years ago.

May I wish you every success in your chosen direction. One day the White Man will again raise himself from out of the dust of defeat and assume his rightful place in Nature's scheme of order. We shall win!

These are some of the Judeo-Christian "spiritual" leaders, avowed enemies of the White Race, whose "values" we are rejecting!

Unite and Fight!

the fact that the great genius of Klassen is far above and beyond even Nietzsche and thereby prove that any "Aryan warrior religion", or "cosmotheist religion", or "evolutionary metaphysics religion", or "neo-paganism" and/or Rosenberg/Hitler's "positive christianity" are far below and behind CREATIVITY.

9. To all those White Racial Comrades who are toying with the idea of a new racial religion we Creators say:

- Please join with us! CREATIVITY is the one and only comprehensive White Racial Religion! It is based on the Eternal Laws of Nature, History, Logic and Common Sense! It has been formulated and recorded in the three basic and five supplementary books and numerous issues of Racial Loyalty! And it is in every possible way far superior to any conceivable attempts to fabricate a creed based on Nietzsche, or Hitler, or the outdated Viking mythology, or the insane myth of the "Ten Lost Tribes of Israel!"

CREATIVITY has it all, says it all, and it has the potential of not only leading the White Race to victory but also guiding the White Race towards the new genetic heights of total advancement over the next million years.

A Personal Appeal by Rev. Victor Wolf C.O.T.C. -- W.A.R.: Unite and Fight!

Now that W.A.R., one of the leading and most promising groups in the White movement, has recognized the importance of a racial religion, as is evident from several articles in the W.A.R. newspaper, I join with Rev. Steven D. Kenly, Rev. Matthew Hayhow and other Creators in appealing directly to Tom Metzger, John Metzger and all W.A.R. to accept Creativity for what it is -- the one and only White Racial Religion. The White Race, desperately fighting for its survival, does not have the time to waste on reinventing a wheel when not only the wheel but the entire vehicle is already completed and is just waiting for the many drivers necessary to propel this movement forward into perpetuity on a massive scale.

White Racial Comrades, join with us to save the White Race and to build a Whiter and Brighter World! We need you and you need us! If you are White, Unite and Fight under the victorious flag of the one and only White Racial Religion -- CREATIVITY! RAHOWA!
